Jean Lesher Named Youth Of Christian Endeavor Year

Jean Lesher, one of the major scholarship winners at Roseburg High School, has been awarded the Christian Endeavor Youth of the Year award for Douglas County.

She was given the award for outstanding achievement during the past year in Christian Endeavor work.

She has served as president of her Sunday School class, devotional chairman of the CE Society, vice president of the Douglas County CE and was recently elected to the office of state lookout chairman.

Next year, Miss Lesher plans to enter Northwest Christian College in Eugene as a freshman.

The announcement was made at the county installation of officers at the Roseburg First Christian Church.

The program was planned and presented entirely by the youth, except for the message presented by the Rev. Lowell Messley, minister at Winston Christian Church.

The new officers are Jim Keefe, president; Bev Baxter, vice president; Betty Lou Yundt, secretary; Jan Reed, treasurer; Darlene Carew, devotional chairman; Allison Pfaff, lookout chairman; Charles Lee, social chairman; Roberta Hebard, missionary chairman; Drena Meeks, church activities; Margaret Bryan, publicity chairman; Harold Robins, pastor adviser; Nina Brewer, adult adviser; Hank Davis, regional vice president; and Judy Christensen, junior chairman.

Earlier, the officers of the county CE unit held a planning retreat at Silcoos Outlet on the coast. Twenty-one young people and advisers attended.

The purpose was to plan the coming events for the year and to gain better understanding of the new officers the young people now hold.

High School Seniors Eligible For UO Loans

A letter explaining loan opportunities for high school seniors wishing to enter the University of Oregon has been sent to all Oregon high school principals.

Loans are available from funds provided under the National Defense Education Act of 1958.

Graduating high school seniors are required to be in the upper one-half of their class scholastically to be eligible for loans. The maximum available for a one fiscal year period is $1,000. If a student fails to maintain the all-campus grade average loans will be rescinded at the end of any school term.

According to the terms of the act, special consideration will be given to superior students who intend to teach in elementary or secondary schools, or students who are preparing in fields of science, mathematics, engineering, and modern foreign languages.

VALEDICTORIAN OMITTED

Omitted from the list of graduates at Elkhorn High School on last week's youth page was Charles Henderer, the valedictorian. This raises the number in the graduating class to 13.

Commencement was held last Tuesday.

DARLENE CAREW of Roseburg High School was recently named Youth of the Month at a Christian Endeavor installation service. Darlene, devotional chairman of the organization, is serving as co-chairman of a box social scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday at the Riverside School gymnasium. Purpose of the event is to raise funds to send delegates to the International Christian Endeavor convention July 6-11 in Philadelphia.

PAT RILEY TAPPED

Patricia Diane Riley of Roseburg has qualified for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society at Oregon State College.

Membership in Phi Kappa Phi is campus recognition of scholastic achievement. To qualify for membership, juniors must rank in the upper 5 per cent of their class and seniors and graduate students must rank in the upper 10 per cent.

Thirty-six juniors, 106 seniors, and 35 graduate students were selected for membership this year.

Miss Riley is a junior in business and technology. Her home address is 834 SE Kane Street.

Camas Valley Girl Heads Student Body

The first girl student body president in six years has been elected at Camas Valley High School.

She is LeAnn Moody. Other new officers, all of them to be seniors next year, are: David Wolske, vice president; June Ralston, secretary; Mary White, treasurer.

Myrtle Creek Youth Selected For School

Lee Winetrou, newly-elected president of the Myrtle Creek student body, has been notified he was one of 125 students from Oregon and California to be accepted to attend the Junior Engineers and Scientists Institute that will be held at Oregon State College June 14 through 27. The two weeks will consist of all lecture courses on the various phases of engineering and scientific fields.

Glendale Girl Gains Award

The National Science Foundation has selected Janice Osepien of Glendale High School junior, to attend a six-week summer school session for study.

The session at the College of the Holy Name in Oakland will be devoted to study of the biological sciences. Included in the scholarship grant is cost of transportation and instruction.

Participants in the study session will visit research laboratories and college science departments and will have the opportunity for special study in the marine biology field.

Only four girls from Oregon were chosen and only 30 from the 13 western states. The winners were chosen on the basis of scholastic ratings, interest in biology and intelligence test ratings, as well as a letter written by each candidate stating her interest in the biology field and another letter of recommendation from school principals.

The school is scheduled from June 22 to July 31.

ELECTED TO SOCIETY

Judith Nadine Stadler of Roseburg, a junior in education at Oregon State College, has been elected for membership in Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society.

Membership is based on interest in the teaching profession, scholarship, and promise of achievement. Thirty-two OSC juniors, seniors, and graduate students were named to membership this year. Training that will prepare students for teaching careers at all levels—elementary, high school, or college, is offered at Oregon State.

Miss Stadler's home address is 1138 SE Washington Ave.

Glendale Gives Student Awards

Three college scholarships have been presented Glendale High School seniors, reports correspondent Mrs. G. B. Fox.

Two scholarships to Southern Oregon College at Ashland went to Dean Ball and Lynn Troxel, and the third went to Gale Austin to Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls.

Meanwhile, Janice Osepien, a junior, received a scholarship to attend a six-week summer course on biology, sponsored by the National Science Foundation. It will be held at the College of the Holy Name in Oakland, Calif.

Students Outstanding

Other awards to outstanding students were these: Clifford Worley, chemistry; Mary Lee Pate, typing; Nancy Furlong, typing; Nancy Furlong and Clifford Worley, outstanding journalism students awards made by Oregon Scholastic Press Assn.

A representative of the Grants Pass Elks Club presented merit certificates to Janet Nicholson, Clifford Worley, Jim Berry and Nancy Furlong as Glendale's entries in the annual Elks Leadership contest.

Band and cheerleading awards were also made. Receiving one-year band letters were Bob Allen, A. C. Bowden, Joe Fisher, Charles Fox, Virginia Goodson and Jane Munyon. Two-year awards were given Ruth Harmonson, James Allen and Buddy Smart. Three-year letters went to Oda Lee and Jim Berry, and a four-year letter was given Dean Ball.

Awards also went to varsity cheerleaders Sandra Johns, Beverly Brady, Carolyn Dollar, Gailene Bowen, and Mary June Holland and to JV leaders Sue Long, Sandra Kincaid and Sharon Burgoyne.

Senior Members Feted At Dinner

Roseburg High School senior class members of the Methodist last Sunday night at the annual "senior dinner" held in the Methodist Church.

There were nine seniors among the approximately 40 MYF members at the dinner. For the program, the Four Flats from Roseburg High sang selections and Morris Kelley sang a solo. John Horton, outgoing president and a senior, welcomed the seniors.

Janet Inman and Carolyn Wasson, incoming president and vice president, respectively, were in charge of dinner arrangements. They were assisted by Mrs. Wayne Crooch, who is retiring as advisor for the group, and mothers of members. Mrs. Sam Wade is the new MYF advisor.

Following the dinner, new officers were installed at services in the church sanctuary. A skit, explaining the meaning of all areas of the MYF was given by John Todd, Sharron Brown, Jon Horton, Janet Wasson, Carolyn Wasson and Spike Dillon.

Trio From Canyonville Gain Summer Awards

Three Canyonville High School students will represent the school at two different summer programs this year, according to Supt. O. J. Monger.

Carolyn Morris and June Brainard, juniors, were selected to attend the Governor's Youth Conference at Salem Aug. 29. This activity is being sponsored by the PTA with the governor's cooperation, according to Mrs. Bruce Dick, local president.

John Nordling, graduating senior, was selected for one week, expenses paid, at the Oregon State College National Summer Science School.

Roseburg Girl Dubbed For Linfield Honorary

Ruth West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. West of Roseburg, has been dubbed a member of Cap and Gown at Linfield College, McMinnville, Ore.

The Cap and Gown is a senior women's honorary on the campus, and her selection was based on leadership, character, scholarship, activities and Christian ideals.

Miss West was dubbed into the honorary at the 56th annual May Day ceremonies here and is currently helping the group conduct a teacher-class evaluation on campus.
