

NEW YORK (AP)—The Economics Club says lack of space prevented radio or television coverage of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's speech Thursday night at the Waldorf-Astoria's grand ballroom.

The ballroom's normal capacity is 1,500, and about 2,000 guests were invited. A selected number of newsmen were allowed to attend, but all press photographers were barred.

Fairgrounds Zoo Coati Mundi Welcomed Into New Home

Little Joe Friday, just as his detective namesake, is a very inquisitive sort. Joe, complete with a long nose to match his curiosity, is a coati mundi who presently is making his home with the David A. Kesners 2154 NW Kline St., Roseburg.

Originally, Joe came from Latin America where he and his kind are frequently house pets. In addition to providing fun and amusement for those around, the long noses his kindred have are useful in finding insects, small rodents and other domestic disturbers.

There are no strangers to this race-on-sized inquisitive animal. When someone new walks into the room, Joe is right there, his long nose sniffing his way into pockets and retrieving everything from car keys to money.

Joe can maneuver. When he leaps, he lands with all four feet, and it can be anywhere, including a person's back. He doesn't claw, however. He's just interested in a good grip.

Listening to Joe eat a cookie or cracker—he's no slacker on appetite—and it works like a miniature saw is at work. Zip, zip, zip go Joe's teeth and whatever food was there is gone.

The coati normally is gentle, but fear is not part of his makeup. Along with the Kesners' Pekin'ese dog, Tibby, and a gray cat, there's no doubt as to who is boss, it's the newcomer.

However, the Kesners have found Joe will not hurt their two young sons, Lance, who is about 4 years old, and Donny, about 2.

The Kesners like their new pet which they received by way of the Douglas County Fair. Joe needed a home during the cold winter months and the Kesners have given him one.

Joe, in turn, has brought no little amount of humor and additional interest into their lives.

LITTLE JOE FRIDAY, a Douglas County Fair coati mundi spending the winter as a house guest of the David Kesners, would rather eat than pose for the photographer. Here, Mrs. Lorraine Kesner tries to interest him in looking at the camera. (Darrell Maddox)

Tenmile School Adding 2 Rooms

It will be necessary to have two more classrooms at Tenmile School.

The school has permission from the Tenmile Ladies Club to use the auditorium of the Ladies Club house and is building a partition dividing the room. The east room will be used for the combination first and second grade class and the west room will be used for the school cafeteria. The former lunch room in the school building will be used for fifth and sixth grade class. There are 39 pupils in the fifth grade and 37 in the sixth grade. Ten pupils will be taken from each of these grades to make up the combination class.

The school is not using the club parlor or kitchen and the cafeteria will be available for club and other social meetings when not in use by the school, reports correspondent Mrs. Walter Coats.

Iraq Executes 17 In Purge

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Spectators cheered Iraq's Premier Abdel Karim Kassem Sunday as firing squads felled 13 Iraqi army officers and hangmen executed four civilians as enemies of the government.

The executions were the largest in a single day since the overthrow of the monarchy 14 months ago and were the first to be announced in advance.

The army men participated in the abortive revolt at the northern military headquarters in Mosul last March or were charged with plotting against Kassem. They were opposed to the left-wing tendencies of Kassem's regime at the time.

Big. Nadhim Tabakjali, commander of the 2nd Division at Mosul, was the highest ranking officer to die. Also prominent among the executed officers was Col. Mustafa Haj Sirri, chief of the army's intelligence service in Baghdad.

The officers, tried before the People's court and sentenced several months ago, were accused of supporting policies of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and Kassem's No. 1 enemy.

The civilians, accused of being criminal traitors were members of the government of the late Nuri Said, the pro-Western premier who was killed in Kassem's revolt of July 14, 1958. The best known among them were Said Qazzaz, former interior minister, and Bahjat Attiyah, ex-security chief.
