Winston Ladies Plan Parties

By MRS. PHEBE McGUIRE

Winston Gay Ladies met at the home of Mrs. Betty Longtain recently with Mrs. Georgia Rowland as co-hostess in honor of Mrs. Addie Stebbe.

Amusing relay games were played and a prize awarded to Mrs. Doris Goodman. The many gifts were opened and displayed by Mrs. Stebbe.

During the brief business meeting plans were made for a no hostess banquet to be held at Burton's Cafe, Nov. 19 at 7 p.m. Preparations are being made for the Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. Addie Stobbe, Dec. 9 with a gift exchange among the members, and to honor Mrs. Margaret McConnell.

Those present were: Mrs. Viola Goodman, Mrs. Bernice Staubough, Mrs. Doris Goodman, Mrs. Donna Hoffman, Mrs. George Rowland, Mrs. Sylvia Kopack, Mrs. Betty Longtaine, Mrs. Addie Stobbe and Mrs. Ina Brown.

Oct. 25 through 31 is designated as a week of Prayer and Self Denial Observance. The Dillard-Winston WSCS will met at the Methodist Church on Thursday, Oct. 29 at 1 p.m.

A general meeting of the WSCS was held recently with Mrs. Olga Fullerton in charge of the program. Mrs. Eva Nichols presented the United Nations program and the devotion was led by Mrs. Janice Sams. Plans were made for a public spaghetti dinner to be given at the church, Nov. 13.

Guests Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Behrens and two daughters were overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chasm in Winston, recently. It was the first visit the cousins, Mrs. Chasm and Mrs. Behrens have had in the past nine years. The Behrens have been transferred from Portland to Washington, D.C., where he will continue work with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. A family dinner was enjoyed during their stay in Winston.

Albert Stobbe, son of Mrs. Addie Stobbe, has returned to the Air Force base in Sacramento after visiting with his mother, sister and families the past week.

Miss Brenda Carr of Winston, who has been confined to the Community Hospital for several weeks, is reported improving.

Mrs. Addie Stobbe is spending a month vacation visiting with relatives in Wyandotte, Mich.

Ray E. Oliver has moved to Winston from Coquille, where he has accepted the position of city Chief of Police. His wife and two children will join him in about two months.

Gale Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Benson in Winston, is receiving medical treatment at the Community Hospital.

Uranium Developer Shot, Dies On Hunt

LAKEVIEW (AP) — Word was received here of the accidental death Sunday of Dr. Garth Thornburg, about 40, who was on a hunting trip near Grand Junction, Colo.

Thornburg had left Lakeview the previous week with James Poulos. The brief report stated Thornburg was shot by a hunter of another party.

Survivors include the widow, Patricia B., a daughter, Gara K., 9, and one son, Devin G., 5, all of Lakeview.

The Thornburgs moved from Colorado to Lakeview in September, 1955, when he became head of Lakeview Mining Co., the uranium mine and mill here.

Poulos had been general manager for the Thornburg interests until the recent change of ownership when Thornburg stepped down as head of operation.

Community Halloween Plans Prepared In Camas Valley

By MRS. WILLIAM L. BANKS

A committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James Combs recently to make tentative plans for the Community Halloween Party to be given at the Camas Valley Grange Hall, Halloween night.

The Camas Valley Farm Bureau Federation and the Camas Valley Grange are asking other organizations in the valley to join with them in hosting the children of the valley.

Representing the Farm Bureau was Ernest Booth, Hazel Thrush, and Iva Jeppeson. The Grange was represented by Martha Halterman, Lois Dancer, and Welcome Combs.

The Camas Valley Home Extension Unit will meet Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Neal Brown, Upper Camas Rd.

Miss Data Hochhalter will present the demonstration on "Home Decoration."

All women of the community are invited to attend. A sack lunch will be served at noon.

Grangers Invited

The regular meeting of the Camas Valley Grange was held recently at the Grange Hall with Master Leslie Catchpole presiding.

The members voted to aid in the community Halloween party for the youth of the area.

Guy Moore read another chapter of the Grange history of Camas Valley, that he is preparing. The cost of having the booklet published was given.

It was announced that the Douglas County Pomona Grange will meet Saturday in the Masonic Hall in Drain with North Douglas Grange hosting the event.

Visiting Grangers are asked to bring a salad or dessert for the pot-luck supper that will start at 7 p.m. The business meeting will begin at 8 p.m. All members are asked to bring their own table service.
