

Bowl, Conference Titles Generally Week Away, But Fierce Jockeying Slated On Grids Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The scrambled college football picture should get a little clearer this weekend and set up some terrific showdown battles next week. But these showdowns are going to be preceded by a lot of tugging and pulling tomorrow as teams like Louisiana State, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Texas, Georgia and Washington battle for prime bowl spots or conference titles, and in some instances both.

The weekend gets off to a rousing start tonight with South Carolina (5-2) meeting Miami (4-3) in the Orange Bowl, and Atlantic Coast Conference member North Carolina State (1-6) travelling to Los Angeles' Coliseum to face UCLA (2-3-1).

Hidden beneath the wealth of top games Saturday is the nation's No. 1 team in the current Associated Press poll, Syracuse, who faces upstate New York rival Colgate, with a 1-6 record. Syracuse (7-0), a prime bowl participant, tops the nation in offense, defense and scoring.

Can Nail Tie

Texas (No. 2), with its 8-0 mark, can nail down at least a tie for the Southwest Conference title, and put a foot in the door as the Cotton Bowl host, if it gets by tough Texas Christian (5-2). Just in case Texas fails, Arkansas, ranked 20th could take the conference lead with a victory over Southern Methodist.

Flemming's Wife To Serve Berries

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The government official who publicly put cranberries under suspicion is going to get them with his Thanksgiving dinner, his wife says.

Mrs. Arthur S. Flemming, wife of the secretary of health, education and welfare, told the Evening Tribune that the furore over her husband's Monday disclosure that some cranberries had been contaminated by dangerous weed killer was unwarranted.

She said there would be about a dozen family members and friends at the dinner in Washington "and as far as cranberries go, we will all have them."

Farmers Losers In Price Change

CORVALLIS (AP)—Prices Oregon farmers received for their products were up 2 per cent at the end of October, but this was more than offset by prices farmers had to pay for what they bought.

Mrs. Elvera Horell, extension agriculture economist at Oregon State College, said from a farmer's standpoint the ratio between prices charged and prices paid was the poorest since August, 1949.

Compared with September, the prices for eggs, turkeys, milk, milk cows, feed grain, wheat, hay and potatoes were up. Prices were lower for meat animals, wool, broiler chickens and corn.

Rare Stamp Discovered By New Jersey Youth

PEEKSKILL, N.Y. (AP)—An unidentified New Brunswick, N.J., school boy has discovered what may be one of the world's rarest stamps.

A stamp expert said the stamp was issued by the British African possessions of Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika. It bears a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II and Owen Falls Dam. The picture of the dam is inverted. The stamp was issued in 1954. No previous example of the dam inverted had been discovered.

Lane County Hepatitis Sets Three-Year Record

EUGENE (AP)—The number of infectious hepatitis cases in Lane County this year has already set a three-year record, the county health department said.

A total of 78 cases has been reported so far this year. Three were reported this morning.

The health department recorded 45 cases for all of 1958 and 72 cases for the year before that.

CLOSED IN—Army's new uniform for handling toxic missile fuel completely "seals in" wearer against contact with air. Suit has own 20-minute oxygen supply.

Third-ranked LSU, 7-1, shorn of its top rating last Saturday by Tennessee's 14-13 victory and relegated to a contender for the Southeastern Conference and Sugar Bowl race, faces weak Mississippi State (2-5). LSU will be without quarterback Warren Rabb and halfback and place-kicker Wendell Harris.

Ole Miss Whack

The SEC will have two other whopping good games as 5-ranked Mississippi (7-1) gets its chance at Tennessee (5-1-1). (No. 9), LSU Ole Miss and Tennessee are tied for third in the SEC with 3-1 records. The runnerup, eighth-ranked Auburn, 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the SEC, is ineligible for a post-season bowl, but hopes to derail first place Georgia's title ambitions. A Georgia (7-1) victory gives it the SEC title with a 6-0 record, and the inside to the Sugar Bowl.

Things are lively in the Big Ten too, with Northwestern (No. 6) tied for the conference title with Wisconsin (No. 7) after losing to the Badgers last week. Wisconsin, 6-1 in the conference, meets tough Illinois while Northwestern (6-1) takes on upset-minded Michigan State. A slip by either spells disaster in the march to the Rose Bowl.

Troy-Baylor

The other two members of the top ten, Southern California (No. 4) and Penn State (No. 10) have formidable opposition. Southern Cal (7-0) meets Baylor. Penn State

(7-1) knocked from the unbeaten ranks by Syracuse last week but still prime bowl material, takes on tough Holy Cross (6-1).

Here's how the other conference races stack up:

Ivy: Penn (4-1) can clinch a tie for the title by beating Columbia (1-5). Yale (3-2) plays Princeton (3-2) in a renewal of their ancient rivalry.

SOUTHERN: The Citadel (4-0) faces VMI (3-1), and Virginia Tech (2-0) meets West Virginia (2-0) in a battle of the loop's top four.

ATLANTIC COAST: Clemson (5-0) can win its second straight title against Maryland (1-2), and then wait for the bowl representation.

BIG EIGHT: Leader Oklahoma (4-3) meets Army (4-2-1) in a prime intersectional game. The Sooners can't return to the Orange Bowl as hosts but the three contenders — Iowa State, Kansas and Colorado — are putting up a lively battle. Only Colorado (3-2) faces a conference competition, meeting Nebraska (1-5).

FAIR WEST FIVE: With leader Southern Cal meeting an outsider, runnerup Washington (2-1) hopes to advance its Rose Bowl hopes against California (0-2). Southern Cal is banned from post-season competition by the NCAA.

SKYLINE: Wyoming (5-0) can clinch its title against New Mexico (4-1), but can't go to a bowl because of last month's NCAA action.

MISSOURI VALLEY: — North Texas State (3-0), and one of its

'Brain' To Aid Family Doctor

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A small black box may some day enable your doctor to consult with the world's best medical minds and avoid many of the pitfalls that now lead to improper diagnosis and treatment.

The latest research, which now sifts down through scientific journals to doctors who sometimes are too busy to read them, will be at your physician's fingertips.

This Utopian world will come about through the use of the "black boxes" popularly known as electronic brains.

They now guide space rockets, automate factories and regulate traffic. Their ability to store tremendous amounts of information, analyze it and reach decisions may soon be put to work combating disease.

When this day comes, you will walk into your doctor's office and tell him your symptoms. He then will feed this information plus all that he knows about you — your case history — into a small, electronic data-coding machine.

This machine will relay the data to a giant central computer which in turn is linked to other computer centers all over the world. In minutes, perhaps seconds, a combined opinion of the world's best medical minds on how to treat your case will flash to your

Retirement Hint Of Helen Hayes

NEW YORK (AP) — Helen Hayes says that at the moment she feels like retiring from her theatrical career — but may change her mind.

She made the comment after sending a telegram to James P. Davis, a playwright who had offered her a role in his comedy, "I've thought and prayed over this but don't want to commit myself to yours or any other play until I've come to yearn again for work — which may be never," Miss Hayes wired.

Asked by a reporter for further comment, the star said: "At the moment I feel just as the telegram says. But how I will feel in seven weeks or a month from now I do not know."

Summit Conditions Set

PARIS (AP) — Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville laid down two conditions here for an East-West summit meeting — unanimity on a Western position and a continued easing in relations with the Soviet Union.

Addressing the Anglo-American Press Club, Couve de Murville said he does not reject the idea of a series of summit meetings.

Nehru Willing To Talk Conditionally To Chou

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indian officials indicated here Prime Minister Nehru is willing to meet with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai to discuss their border dispute but not at the price of leaving a large area of India-claimed territory in Chinese control.

The officials also emphasized that unless the ground is carefully prepared for a Nehru-Chou conference and there is some indication it would be better not to open talks.

CRANBERRY COCKTAILS

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The New Jersey Farm Bureau announced today it will serve cranberry juice cocktails as usual at its annual meeting Nov. 18-19 in Somerville.

Hang Up Your Tin Hat!... And Come To DOUGLAS SUPPLY'S Grand RE-OPENING

TOMORROW
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14
8 A.M. to 12 Noon
To Show Our Appreciation...

As you know, our store was severely damaged by Roseburg's Aug 7th disaster. For several weeks, we have been working in a maze of scaffolding, falling plaster, dirt and debris. A new office, completely remodeled store and new, more efficient displays are now complete and the workmen are gone. (Tin hats no longer required!) We wish to thank all of you, our customers, for your patience during this remodeling and repair period and cordially invite you to attend this Grand Re-Opening tomorrow.

A Special Note of Thanks...

To the owner of the building, Mr. Craig Marsters for his cooperation and hard work in getting the building back to the condition which meets our needs. He has done a fine job which is sincerely appreciated and we intend to remain at this location for a long, long time to come.
