The fact that Kennedy is a Catholic wasn't an open issue in the Oregon campaign.

Actor Seeks Damages Over Traffic Crash

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Jim Backus, best known as the voice of Mr. Magoo, is seeking $25,000 damages in a 1958 auto accident.

The 57-year-old Backus told a Superior Court commissioner Friday that the amount represented his loss for injuries and working time. He charged that the auto of Ruth E. Matheny, 49, a hospital manager, crashed into the rear of his car.

land home after trouncing a field of unknowns to win the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate.

However, she added: "We'll have to work toward November." That's when she will meet former Gov. Elmo Smith for the Senate seat vacated by the death of her husband, Sen. Richard L. Neuberger.

After easily beating back the field in the quest for the Republican nomination, Smith commenced at his home in Albany:

"The heavy vote I received in a light primary election is an expression of the traditional voting responsibility of Republicans. I shall wage a dynamic campaign for election in November."

There were overtones, too, today of things that may come in the Senate race of 1962. That's when the term of Wayne Morse expires.

Hartfield Comments
Morse was beaten Friday by Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts in the Democratic presidential primary, and that prompted Richard M. Nixon on the Republican ticket to say that the defeat "reaches the image of Sen. Morse as a man of national stature."

Hartfield often has been mentioned as Morse's likely opponent in 1962.

Hartfield wasn't running for anything this time around, but he said the vote for Vice President Richard M. Nixon on the Republican ticket was "surprising" and "our fondest expectations."

Oregon GOP Chairman Wendell Wyatt also was ecstatic, saying: "The size of his vote under the circumstances is an amazing tribute to Mr. Nixon, as the man who has the experience and the courage to succeed President Eisenhower."

'Kennedy Choice Sure'
Rep. Edith Green, a Democrat from Oregon's 3rd District, said Kennedy's primary victory has made him the logical choice of the Democrats to oppose Nixon in November.

"There can be no doubt that this victory assures Sen. Kennedy of the Democratic nomination at Los Angeles."

Said Kennedy: "I am extremely grateful to the people of Oregon for this overwhelming vote of confidence."

And Mrs. Green added: "There is no chance now for the anti-Kennedy forces to try to stop him at the convention."

State Sen. Monroe Sweetland of Milwaukie won the Democratic nomination for secretary of the party. He said the Democratic Party has paved the way for a sweep in November. His opponent will be Secretary of State Howell Appling, who was unopposed for the GOP nomination.

Copco's Water Project

Summit Fiasco, World Tension Fail To Materially Affect L. S. Business Status

NEW YORK (AP)—Business took the summit collapse and increased world tension in reasonable stride.

The only immediate sharp reaction was brief gyrating by the aircraft, missile and electronics issues on the stock market in the assumption defense spending would mount.

But after a spectacular rise Wednesday, the defense issues came back to earth.

Deputy Secretary of Defense James A. Douglas told senators an immediate major increase in defense spending was not necessary. However, requests by top Pentagon officials that Congress appropriate more money for defense made businessmen speculate of the effect it would have on the economy.

Industrialists felt more work for the defense industry would spread the economic stimulation into railroads, oils, chemicals and other segments of business.

Encouraging Figures

The business world was encouraged by reports of two presumptive developments: Personal income advanced to a record rate of $397,400,000,000 in April, a gain of $3,400,000,000 over March and $18,400,000,000 over April 1959. The April industrial output held steady at the March level of 19.

Stock sales this week on the New York Stock Exchange totaled 19,725,570 shares compared with 15,420,570 last week and 15,069,910 a year ago.

Bond sales amounted to $32,376,000 par value this week compared with $26,147,000 last week and $26,029,000 a year ago.

The automobile industry built its three millionth car of the year this week. Last year it didn't get far along until June 15.

Automakers stepped up weekly production to 157,000 cars, the highest level in three months. Sales in the first 10-day period of May totaled 168,413 cars, the best in 49 months.

Steel production continued its downward spiral with the week's estimated output at 2,042,000 tons, 71.7 per cent of capacity. Steel executives said they expect the decline to continue through June.

Retail trade dipped this week as cool and rainy weather interfered with shoppers in some areas.

Food Prices Steady

Factory sales of washers and dryers in April were reported 28 per cent under March and 15 per cent below April 1959.

Food prices held the line fairly well. The Dun & Bradstreet index—total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use—stood at $5.94, up only one cent from last week and about in the center of the $5.91 to $5.93 range covered since the middle of March.

Merger talk filled the air. The Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Line, two of the biggest railroads in the South, agreed on merger terms. Directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Baltimore & Ohio reached agreement on a stock exchange plan that could result in a merger.

Officials of Trans World Airline and Northeast Airlines said a merger is under consideration. Directors of General Instrument Corp. and General Transistor Corp. agreed in principle to merge.

Briefly around the business scene: Cash dividends publicly reported by corporations totaled $70 million dollars in April, 70 60 million from last year. ... P. W. Woolworth Co. expects its sales to hit a billion dollars this year for the first time. ... Chairman Clyde E. Weed of Anaconda Co. said world copper production soon may be running ahead of demand. Textile machinery producers' unfilled orders are the largest in five years.

Great Welcome Given Khrushchev On Return Home

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev returned to Moscow today after a week of diplomatic encounters which shook the world.

He flew in from Berlin, where he cooled fears Friday by saying the Soviet Union would not press for a new German status, which would include the departure of the Allies from West Berlin, for the next six to eight months.

The crowd greeting him at the airport echoed innumerable public meetings and newspaper articles with shouts of approval for the star Khrushchev took at the frustrated Paris summit session. The newspapers and the public meetings here have been condemning the United States for "deliberately sabotaging" the Paris talks.

The road from the airport to Moscow was lined with hundreds of militiamen controlling tens of thousands of Muscovites cheering their leader on his return from Paris and Berlin.

Pet Hates Voice
In a four-hour speech Friday to 8,000 Communists in East Berlin, Khrushchev repeated his denunciations of President Eisenhower over the U2 spy plane incident.

He coupled the name of the President with that of Konrad Adenauer, the West German chancellor and one of his pet hates.

Khrushchev said he was not insisting on a summit without President Eisenhower, though a six-month delay would guarantee that. In November, a new president would be elected.

The new president, Khrushchev pointed out, might also be one whose "policies are directed by the reactionary forces of the Pentagon."

Khrushchev repeated his demand that the German treaty be signed "with the two German states that actually exist." But he made no threats for the immediate future.
