

Minor Traffic Counts Bring Deep Trouble

PENDLETON (AP) — Because of two minor traffic violations Lewis Trelford, 49, found himself in deep trouble today.

Trelford, who was picked up because he was missing one license plate and a vehicle registration card, now is scheduled to be taken to the Washington prison.

The escaped man was serving a term for grand larceny and robbery.

Lottery-Won Cadillac By 57 Poser For Law

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — How to whack up a Cadillac among 57 West Orange firemen?

That was the poser faced by superior court judge Nelson K. Mintz Friday.

The firemen won the car with a $100 ticket for which they had chipped in two dollars each for a Rotary Club charity. The extra $14

Seattle Firm To Build Destroyers For Navy

SEATTLE (AP) — The keel for the biggest naval ship built by a private shipyard in the Pacific Northwest since World War II will be laid next month at the Puget Sound Bridge & Dry Dock Co. yard here.

The company, a subsidiary of Lockheed Aircraft Corp., bid in the contract for $25,000,000 to build the Grisdley, a 533-foot destroyer leader. The vessel will carry guided missiles.
