Barbara Gadway Is Bride Of Nov. 11

The double ring ceremony was used Friday, Nov. 11, for the wedding ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church which united in marriage Miss Barbara Gadway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gadway, and Michael Stone, son of Walter M. Stone, all of this city.

The Rev. John E. Adams performed the nuptial service at 2 p.m. A large fan-shaped arrangement of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar together with the traditional candelabra. Stephen Gadway, brother of the bride, and Danny Stone, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

Mrs. Homer Grow was organist. She played incidental music as the guests assembled and also played the wedding processional and recessional.

The bride's gown was street-length, fashioned in sheath style, with detachable full overskirt of lace over tulle. The bodice had long sleeves and the floor-length neckline came to a V in the back. She carried a small white Bible topped with a lavender-throated orchid. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Janice Gadway, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale lavender ballerina-length frock of chiffon over tulle, fashioned with a cowl neckline. Her slippers had been dyed to match her gown. She carried a cascade of lavender chrysanthemums and wore a three-strand pearl choker which matched her dress and which had been a present from the bride.

Lee Stone, who is in the U. S. Air Force, stationed in New Mexico, came west to be best man for his brother. Ushers were Bill Sherwood and Doyle Gardner.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gadway wore a champagne brocade sheath dress with matching jacket. Her accessories were avocado green.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the social room of the church. The serving table was covered with lavender nylon net over a white foundation. The net was caught with white sugar bells trimmed in lavender. The gift table was decorated with lavender Fuji chrysanthemums. The beautiful four-tiered cake, which had been made by Marge Packer, a friend of the bride, was done in lavender, white and pink and was topped with two large bells. Serving was done by Mrs. David Harmon, Mrs. Pete Pearson, Mrs. Donald White and Mrs. Ward Cummings, all aunts of the bride. Donna Mae Debbel, the bride's cousin, had charge of the guest book.

For going away, the bride wore a smart lavender ensemble with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. The young couple stopped at Village Green, then went on to Portland to honeymoon and to see "Holiday On Ice." The newlyweds are now at home at 1774 NE Klamath Ave.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stone of Centralia, Wash., grandparents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Colby Sanborn, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hansen and daughter, Kathy, all of Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gadway and Patti and Cheryl Cooper.

The December 9 meeting will be a Christmas party to be held at the Piano Roll Inn.

Present at the affair were the Mesdames H. J. Winter, Fred M. Darby, A. J. Standley, M. D. Steinbach, H. K. Halvorsen, J. A. Joelson, Frank Long, C. R. Brittain, E. A. Barnes, W. M. Thompson, F. W.
