Portland Bucks Battle To Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Portland Buckaroos thought they were dreaming Sunday when they encountered Harry Lumley the evening after he had had a nightmare.

The apple-cheeked goalie who spent the better part of a decade jumping from Detroit, Toronto, Chicago and Boston of the National Hockey League put on a sensational performance as he kicked out 44 shots and held the second-place Buckaroos to one goal in a Western Hockey League game.

His Winnipeg Warrior teammates managed to match the counter and come out with a 1-1 overtime tie.

Lumley's great goaltending helped to make up for Saturday night when the Seattle Totems made him look ridiculous while walloping the Warriors 11-1.

In other action Saturday, league-leading Calgary whipped Victoria 6-4 and Vancouver maintained a slim margin over the fourth-place Totems with a 2-1 victory over Spokane.

Sunday's tie enabled Winnipeg to move into seventh place, one point ahead of the Edmonton Flyers, who have six games in hand.

Portland, which attracted 9,451 fans for Sunday night's game, is two points behind league-leading Calgary with two games in hand.

Southern California Moves Step Closer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern California, on the strength of its victory at Stanford last Friday and UCLA's subsequent loss to Stanford Saturday, moved a big step closer to its first Big Five basketball championship over the weekend.

UCLA, rated the best shot at the high-flying USC Trojans, came a cropper at Stanford, 79-65, as 6-8 John Windsor dumped 30 points for the winning Indians.

In other Saturday night action, Washington made it two in a row over California after eight straight defeats dating from 1957, by edging the Bears, 59-58, at Washington in overtime.

The Huskies had beaten Cal 70-50 Friday night while Southern Cal ripped Stanford 63-57.

The Trojans are now 6-1 in conference play and 16-3 on the season. Washington is second at 5-4 and Stanford and UCLA are 3-3.

Washington and Cal ended regulation play tied at 52 all, a last second basket by sub Ed Donohue giving trailing Cal the lock.

A basket by Earle Irvine and five followup free throws as against three Cal buckets did it for the Huskies in the overtime.

Cal led at the half 28-27. Washington's Clint Names led all scorers with 17. Dick Smith had 15 for Cal.

Linfield 5 Downed By College Of Idaho

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College of Idaho came from behind to edge Linfield, 65-63, Saturday night and pare Linfield's lead to one game in the Northwest Conference basketball race.

Bob Moreno led the second-place Idahoans with 26 points as they gained a split in the two-game weekend series with Linfield, which won Friday night, 70-69.

Linfield led at halftime, 35-30, but Idaho finally went ahead on a Moreno basket, 50-49, with seven minutes left. Linfield, playing without its top scorer, Bill Wallin, never caught up.

Bob Close paced Linfield with 12 points.

Lewis and Clark, in third place, defeated Pacific, 93-77, and Willamette beat Whitman, 73-58. The results kept Whitman and Pacific tied for fourth in the standings.

Conference action resumes tonight with Linfield at Whitman and Willamette at College of Idaho.

On Thursday College of Idaho will be at Lewis and Clark and Whitman at Pacific. On Friday and Saturday it will be Whitman at Lewis and Clark and College of Idaho at Pacific. Another Saturday game will send Willamette to Linfield.
