

Congo Leaders Sign Pact For Front Against Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The central Congo government today signed a military pact with independent Katanga and the Kasai mining state for a united front against the leftist rebels. But a rebel threat to this capital seemed to be evaporating.

As the pact was signed in Katanga, President Moise Tshombe's capital of Elisabethville, the United Nations reported that leftist rebels had pulled out of the Kasai provincial capital of Lulua-bourg while their spearhead at the frontier of Leopoldville Province had vanished.

Leads To Federation
The pact among the three frequently feuding regimes could lead to a political federation capable of challenging the Communist-backed regime of Antoine Gizenga, the dead Patrice Lumumba's political heir, in Stanleyville.

House Plans Investigation On Lobbyist Fund Statement

SALEM (AP)—House Speaker Robert B. Duncan said today the House would conduct its own lobbyist investigation March 8, and cast doubt whether Rep. Edward F. Fadeley, D-Englewood, would appear later today before a special Senate committee.

The special five-man Senate committee was created Monday. It invited Fadeley to appear to explain an earlier statement that lobbyists have tens of thousands of dollars to spend.

Mishaps Restricted To Fender Benders

The first accident occurred at about 6:30 a.m. at the intersection of Corey St. and Military Ave. with damage to both vehicles restricted to fender benders.

Hope Seen For End To Algerian War

PARIS (AP) Hopes rose today for a swift settlement of the costly six-year-old Algerian war as President Charles de Gaulle and Tunisia's President Habib Bourguiba wound up their crucial talks on a confident note.

After a day of closed-door meetings in De Gaulle's heavily guarded chateau in suburban Rambouillet, the two leaders said in a communique Monday night they agreed possibilities exist for "a rapid and positive" settlement of the bloody conflict.

Timber Sales Up

SALEM (AP)—The state received $4,148,267 last year from sales of timber on state-owned lands, the state Forestry Department said today.

Purchasers bid an average of 26 per cent more than the appraised price, it said, was the second time that sales went over $4 million.

Rhodesia Troops To Be Disbanded

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Territorial troops mobilized by the federal government to prevent racial violence during an emergency session of Parliament will be disbanded Saturday, the Defense Ministry announced today.

Prime Minister Roy Welensky's speech in the Central African Federation Parliament Monday, offering new talks with Britain about enlarging the Territorial Legislature of Northern Rhodesia, eased tensions.

Compromise Reached

LONDON (AP)—A compromise has brought an end to the fishing war between Britain and Iceland. Britain agreed to accept the 12-mile fishing limit around the island nation but British trawlers will be allowed to fish six miles offshore for the next three years.

The agreement, announced Monday night, must be ratified by parliaments of both nations.
