Mrs. Newcomer Addresses Roseburg Episcopal Group

Factors that stand in the way of being good churchwomen was the primary theme of the talk given by Mrs. John H. Newcomer, Episcopal national executive board representative of the Eighth Province of Phoenix, Ariz., who addressed the Women of St. George's at their April luncheon meeting. Mrs. Newcomer also explained the work of women in parishes and missions in their relationship to the national council carried down from Triennial to province, synod, diocese and deanery. An open forum discussion pointed out that lack of good communications, inertia, outside responsibilities, a false sense of values, self-satisfaction with continuing as we are, and a lack of knowledge were among problems that could be solved, thus opening the door to becoming better church women.

A new slate of officers was elected, with Mrs. Roger P. Smith to succeed Mrs. J. M. Williams as president. To be installed with Mrs. Smith at the May meeting will be Mrs. James H. Harris, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Wilder, recording secretary; Mrs. Tom Hoskot, corresponding secretary, and

Winston Church Wedding Scene

The Assembly of God Church in Winston was the scene of a very pretty wedding March 24, when Miss Alice Lee Scone became the bride of Conrad Hildebrand of Junction City. The Rev. W. A. Garner performed the single ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in the garden setting of ivy and roses. Nearly 500 waxed crepe paper roses, made by the bride's father, were used in the church and the reception room. Organist Mrs. Al Hooten accompanied her husband, who was soloist, singing "To My Bride," "The Wedding Prayer" and "Together." The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful floor-length gown of lace over satin, with semi-train. The bodice had a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The fingertip veil was secured by a rhinestone tiara. She carried a white Bible with orchids and rosebuds. The bride's attendants, Mrs. Jim Scone, Miss Yvonne Steele and Miss LaRetta Scone, wore pastel
