

Broken Cotterpin Cause Of Bettenhausen Death

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Tony Bettenhausen, 44, whose greatest ambition was to win the richest of all auto races, died because a nickel's worth of wire broke on a car he was testing for a friend at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Bettenhausen was killed instantly when the roaring racer hurtled into a wall and burst into flames Friday.

Speedway officials said the cause of his death was a cotterpin worth about five cents. The sheared pin let a bolt fall, and when the idol of American auto speed fans stepped on the brakes, the axle twisted, flinging the car into the outside retaining wall on the northwest turn.

Bettenhausen, of Tinley Park, Ill., was dead when guards fought their way through horrified fans to where the smashed car hung wrapped in wire atop the wall.

It was his 29th wreck in a race car. The first was in his first race at Chicago 23 years ago. In 28 of those crashes he was upside down.

The stocky little Dutchman's death came while his own car, with which he hoped to break records at today's time trials for the 500-mile Memorial Day race was sitting in a speedway garage.

Testing Car

He was testing a car for his long-time friend Paul Russo of Fortville, Ind. He had turned in several laps at 145 miles an hour in the car, the Stealy Special, and had slowed down as though he planned to come into the pits.

Sutherlin Is Scene Of Memorial Day Road Rally

American Legion Post 121, Sutherlin, will sponsor a road-rally auto race following the Memorial Day parade and services.

A meeting for interested drivers and participants will be held Tuesday, May 23, 7:30 p.m. at the Sutherlin Legion Hall. Details for the race and arrangements will be made at the meeting.

The rally is to interest all car clubs and the general public in good driving. The contest will be a test of the driver, not the car.

A set speed limit will be enforced by referees riding in each car. The entry will be timed and any driver exceeding the set limit will be disqualified. The course is 38 miles in length and the trip will be made under normal road conditions. The drivers will learn the course at race time.

This rally will be open to all legal and qualified drivers of Douglas County, both male and female.

A safety check of tires, brakes and other necessary equipment will be made on each car entered. There will be two classes: Class 1, sports cars and dragster type; and Class 2 for ordinary stock cars.

Garage owners, mechanics and service station workers, or anyone wishing to assist as pit help or referees at the check points are urged to attend the May 23 meeting.

The race is sanctioned by Sheriff Ira Byrd and his department.

All reserve and off duty law enforcement officers are especially requested for their assistance.

Registration will be held at the May 23 meeting and also at the Four Winds Bowl parking lot, West Central Ave., Sutherlin, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. the day of the race. This will also be the starting point of the rally.

Positions for the race will be determined by a drivers drawing held before the rally and entry fees will be $1 for contestants.

Trophies and other awards will be presented at a drivers and officials banquet to be held the evening of the race. For further information call Harold Forney, Sutherlin 2855, or A. W. Andrews, Sutherlin 3057.

Major League Round-Up

BATTER'S-EYE VIEW—This is a closeup of how Warren Spahn looks to National League batters. The Milwaukee Braves' star, winner of more games than any left-hander in National League history, recorded his second no hit, no-run game with multiple of pitches.

Superb Spahn Seeks 8 Wins For 300 Goal

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The magic number now is "8" for Warren Spahn.

The superb southpaw of the Milwaukee Braves needs just eight more victories to hit the charmed 300 goal after collecting his fourth of the season with a 5-4 decision at San Francisco Friday night.

This one was nothing like the no-hitter he spun against the Giants two weeks ago, but his eight-hit job was good enough to shave San Francisco's National League lead to mere percentage points over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who beat the Chicago Cubs 4-2.

Pitt Drops Sox

Pittsburgh ended Cincinnati's winning streak at nine games, beating the Reds 6-5 on a pinch-homer by Dick Stuart, and the St. Louis Cardinals extended Philadelphia's losing slump through 10 games with a 5-1 victory over the last place Phillies.

Right-hander Frank Lary was up to his old tricks and added a new one last night. He padded his career record over New York to 25-8 with a tie-breaking home run in the ninth inning that gave the Detroit Tigers a 4-3 victory and a 3½-game lead over the second place Yankees. Baltimore defeated Cleveland 4-2, the Chicago White Sox edged Kansas City 2-1, Minnesota edged the Los Angeles Angels 5-4 and Boston defeated Washington 2-1.

The Giants got to Spahn (4-2) quickly this time, scoring in the first inning on singles by Jim Davenport and Felipe Alou. But the Braves, once more over .500 and within 2½ games of the top, got to Sad Sam Jones (3-2) first, scoring twice in the first inning on Hank Aaron's home run. Lee Maye and Ed Mathews also homered for Milwaukee, with Mathews' solo shot winning it in the ninth.

Works Out Of Jams

Spahn, who also beat Jones in the no-hitter, walked two and struck out but one. Orlando Cepeda's home run leading off the ninth made it close, but Spahn was pretty much in command — four times working out of jams by getting the Giants to tap back to the mound.

Southpaw Sandy Koufax had a no-hitter for six innings against the Cubs, struck out 11 and had a shut out for eight innings, but then needed relief help from Dick Farrell before nailing his third victory for the Dodgers. Billy Williams doubled leading off the seventh for the Cubs' first hit, but Sandy then struck out the side, whiffing Ernie Banks, Ron Santo and Mel Roach.

Santo led off the ninth with a triple and was forced home by Koufax' third walk of the inning.

Farrell gave up an RBI single to Bob Will before getting Don Zimmer for the final out.

Wally Moon drove in two runs for the Dodgers, one with a first-inning single and the other with his 10th home run, tops in the NL, as Don Cardwell lost his second against three victories.

Blast Homers

Stuart's pinch homer was a three-run shot in the fifth off losing reliever Marshall Bridges (0-1) of the Reds. Rocky Nelson also hit a three-run homer for the Pirates, who blew a 5-2 lead before Bobby Shantz came on and won his first in the NL with four-innings of two-hit, shutout relief. Hal Bevens and Frank Robinson homered for the Reds off Buc starter Wilmer Mizell.

The Cards broke up a scoreless duel between Ernie Broglio and the Phils' John Buzhardt (0-3) with three runs in the sixth. Daryl Spencer's two-run single clinched it. Broglio, winning his second in a row, gave up nine hits, but had a shut out until the seventh. Then Pancho Herrera homered for the Phils, who hadn't scored in 15 innings and now are tagged with their longest slump since 1956. Don Landrum hit an inside the park homer for St. Louis, scampering around while center fielder Tony Gonzalez waited for the ball to bounce off a scoreboard catwalk.

Roseburg Offers Adult Class In Boats-Motors

With the growing popularity of boating in mind, the adult education program at Roseburg High School is now offering a course on outboard motors and their care.

The class meets Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the Roseburg High welding shop where Emery Williams serves as the instructor. The length of the courses is set at two weeks requiring 10 hours of class and the registration fee is $5.

This is a practical course designed for boating enthusiasts in the operation, maintenance and care of the outboard motor. It will include preparing the motor for use in the spring, storage for the winter, trouble shooting while on lakes, operating principles of the motor, steering mechanisms and controls.

Wet Grounds Shuffles Drain-Oakridge Game

Wet grounds Friday caused a rescheduling of the Drain Warriors Emerald League doubleheader against the Oakridge Warriors.

The games set for the Drain diamond will be made up Monday with game time scheduled for 2 p.m.

Elsewhere in Emerald League action the McKenzie Eagles grabbed the crown with a 5-0 and a 10-inning 4-3 victory over the Elmira Falcons. The Eagles finished league play with a 13-1 mark, while the Falcons ended in second place with an 11-3 record. Drain has a 7-5 league mark.
