

Bentz-Ginter Rites Held At Sutherlin On Sunday

The lovely wedding of Miss Beverly Faith Ginter and Donald Allen Bentz was solemnized Sunday, May 14, at the First Methodist Church in Sutherlin. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John P. Ginter of Sutherlin, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bentz of Vallejo, Calif. The double ring ceremony was performed at three o'clock in the afternoon before 100 guests by the Rev. John P. Ginter, church pastor and father of the bride. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Vern Holgate with footed baskets of white calla lilies. Mrs. Art Treman, church organist, played prelude music and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her brother, Jack Ginter, of Salem. Her knee length wedding gown was fashioned with a full, gathered skirt of white organza overlaid with a bodice of white lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a tiny crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon. Her only jewelry was a single drop pearl on a gold chain, a gift brought from Formosa from her brother, Miss Judy Alto of Sutherlin was maid of honor and wore a street length gown of pale blue nylon chiffon with white accessories. She carried a white fan with floral accents of white carnations.

Miss Percy Ginter, sister of the bride, was the most appealing flower girl in a gown of pale blue chiffon with white lace overskirt and headband to match. She wore white slippers.

Joel Harvey performed the duties of best man and ushers were Gary Bentz of Vallejo, the bridegroom's brother, and Boyd Davis, of Corvallis.

Mrs. James Brown, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Before Thine Altar," accompanied by Mrs. Treman at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ginter was attractive in a dress of light blue taffeta brocade with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of pink with white accessories and both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the wedding party greeted guests at a reception arranged by the Women's Society of Christian Service, in the church basement. The room was beautifully decorated by Mrs. C. J. Bielmann. The bride's table, covered with a floral patterned cloth of white, held the lovely three-tiered wedding cake, in colors of blue and white. The colonnade design was accented with decorations of white wedding bells.

Autograph Party Set At Calapooia

An "Autograph Party" will be held on June 3 from 2 till 5 p.m. at the Calapooia Club House four miles west of Sutherlin for Mrs. Guy (Maude) Cole. She will autograph copies of her new book, "Away Back When," for those who are interested.

The book is authentic and based on early day life in Douglas County beginning with D. R. Cole and his party's trek by covered wagon from Missouri in 1851. They settled in Coles Valley, he being the first white man to take up a land claim there who had his family with him. Then about 1900 the Bairds of Pennsylvania dominate the story as they came West to settle on a ranch adjoining that of the Coles'. An interesting presentation of early day simple country living brings us up to the present time. Many interesting pictures of historical sites and events of Douglas County are included in this full length book which is made up in a soft-backed, compact form.

Toastmistresses Install Officers

Mary Lee Weinberg was installed as president of the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club at a dinner meeting at The Brouler on Wednesday. Others accepting offices for the new term were Yvonne Daniels, vice president; Bunny Albertus, secretary; Marjorie Brady, treasurer, and Phyllis Parrett, council representative. Carol Talbert, installing officer, presented each of the new officers with a flower in a color symbolic of the office. Retiring president, Phyllis Parrett, presented the president's pin to the new president and thanked the club members for their help during the past term.

New committee chairmen appointed by Mrs. Weinberg were: membership, Shirley Wagner; program, Edna Ebner; Marge Brady and Yvonne Daniels; parliamentarian, Bunny Albertus; hospitality, Daisy Fox; public relations and publicity, Imalee Van Dermark; community service, Fran Allen, housing, Carol Talbert.

Edith Roberts, who is moving to Myrtle Creek and has become a charter member of the Toastmistress Club there, served as Toastmistress for the program. Evening the theme, "Something Old, Something New," she introduced Vi Hansen and Lenore Zuber who each gave get-acquainted speeches.

Mary Weinberg moderated a round table discussion concerning the type of program the members wish to develop next term. Edna Ebner served as critic for the speeches and general evaluator was Vivian Laurence. Joyce Benton was timer and Bunny Albertus presented an educational feature as a lexologist. Toastmistress Marge Brady asked each member to speak for one minute on an embarrassing moment. Invocation was given by Shirley Wagner and the closing thought by Lenore Zuber.

Red roses and yellow iris decorated the tables and were arranged by Ruby Peterson and Vivian Laurence. The last meeting of this term will be held June 14 at Douglas High School.

Club Is Entertained By Mrs. Harry Abbott

Mrs. Harry Abbott entertained members of the Yoncalla Business and Professional Women's Club recently.

Dr. Lydia Emery, guest speaker, told of different phases of public health affecting us locally. David Vian, Janetta Baldwin and Joan Hogarth told of their eighth grade class trip to Salem and Portland.

Kittie Jobe received a gift in appreciation of her two years as president of the club. Mrs. Jobe then presented a gift to each of her officers.

The next meeting will be June 5 at the home of Mrs. Dale Bessett.

Musical Selections Heard At Afternoon Piano Recital

Mrs. Walter Marosok presented her piano students in a fourth and final spring recital at her home on NE Douglas Avenue Sunday afternoon.

Students of all grades played delightful selections by contemporary composers. They showed much talent and interest in their music study. The memorizing of the difficult numbers they played was outstanding for students so young.

The rooms and tea table were decorated with bouquets of roses. Refreshments were served to parents and guests after the program. Assisting Mrs. Marosok with the serving were Mrs. Al Hooten, Mrs. Merrill Tozier, Mrs. Axel Skoog and Miss Linda Kinsel.

Students taking part in the recital were Kathy Hooten, Michael Ter Bush, Gregg Campbell, Helen Tozier, Charles Gardner, Lori Campbell, Dianne Jarvis, Barbara Hempel, Valerie Stapleton, Barbara Christensen, Peggy Clute, Bryan Baker, Beverly Hempel, Mark Campbell, Tommy Gruwell, Charles Insley, Susan Emra, Linda Langley, Jean Barnes, LuAnne Thurber, Gale Short, Barbro Skoog, Annette McGee and Billy Ford.

Charming Tea Honors Visitors

To compliment Mrs. Celia Hauge, director of nursing service at the central office in Washington, D.C. and Miss Elizabeth Jung, area chief nurse from San Francisco for VA Hospitals, a charming tea was given at the Roseburg VA Hospital by the nursing staff members.

Mrs. Florene Keel acted as hostess chairman for the lovely affair and was assisted by the nursing personnel as hostesses.

The table was elaborately decorated with azaleas, tiered crystal candelabra holding tall tapers, a silver coffee and tea service and crystal punch bowl and cups. The beautiful Madeira cloth was loaned for the occasion by Ruth Jacobson.

The small serving tables were centered with a bud vase holding a single rose blossom. A salad course in addition to the tea sandwiches and tea cakes was served to more than 100 guests enjoying the occasion.

Pouring were Mrs. Daisy McLean, Mrs. Florence Jones, Mrs. Irma Sanders and Mrs. Mary Justus. Serving the punch were Miss Joanne Keel and Miss Lorraine Jensen.
