Yanks, Who Come Up From Behind In AL, Start 16-Game Tour In Second Spot Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Yankees, apparently squared away after getting fat on second-division clubs, put the show on the road in their bid for the American League lead tonight with the opener of a three-game series at Cleveland against the first-place Indians.

It's the start of a 16-game tour for the Yankees, who are in a virtual second-place tie with Detroit, both a game behind the Indians. They have a three-game set with the Tigers this weekend after leaving Cleveland.

The Yankees, winning 11 of their last 12 games, moved past the Detroit by .004 percentage points when they won their fifth in a row and closed a 10-1 home stand with a 3-1 victory over the Los Angeles Angels Monday night.

New York and Detroit closed in on the lead when Kansas City sliced Cleveland's edge in half with a 7-5, 10-inning decision over the Injuns.

Fourth-place Baltimore stayed eight games behind what has become a three-way scrap when the Orioles blew a 5-1 lead and let the White Sox, Boston outlasted Minnesota 10-8 in the only other AL game scheduled.

Giants Beat Dodgers
In the lone National League game scheduled, San Francisco beat Los Angeles 7-4, leaving the Dodgers a half-game behind first-place Cincinnati.

The Yankees, working behind the four-hit pitching of righthander Bill Stafford, broke up a two-hit shutout by losing lefty Ted Bowsfield (2-2) and came from behind with three runs in the sixth inning. Singles by Tony Kubek, Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard, a force out by Bill Skowron and a double by Hector Lopez did it.

Stafford (4-2), winning his fourth in a row, held the A's hitless until the fifth inning, when Leroy Thomas opened with a single and scored on a double by Ken Hunt, who was cut down trying for a triple. Stafford walked two and struck out seven for his third complete game—the eighth in 14.

games by the Yankees staff, which had produced only six in the first 42 games.

The A's tagged the Indians with their third defeat in 35 games when Heywood Sullivan singled for his fourth hit in the 10th and pinch-hitter Leo Posada followed with a two-run, two-out homer off relief ace Frank Funk (7-4). Kansas City tied it 5-all with two runs in the ninth as Cleveland missed double plays. Jerry Walker, seventh Kansas City pitcher, saved it for reliever Jim Archer (4-1) when Vic Power bunted into a force out and Kirkland and Woodie Held filed out with two on base.

Sievers Has Pair
Roy Sievers drove in three runs with a pair of homers for the White Sox, who nailed it on Al Smith's solo homer in the eighth off relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm. Dick Hyde (1-1) was the loser. Don Larsen (2-0), acquired Saturday from Kansas City, was the winner in relief.

A walk and Chuck Schilling's two-out single gave Boston the deciding run in the seventh. The Twins out-hit the Red Sox 15-11, and slugged three home runs, but left 17 on base. Ike Delock (4-2) won it with relief help.

The Giants, beating right-hander Roger Craig (3-4) for the first time in nine decisions since 1955, dropped the Dodgers with three runs in the fifth inning for a 7-2 lead. Orlando Cepeda's double scored the clincher. Billy O'Dell (2-3) was the winner.

Injured Vernon Law Injures Pennant Hopes Of Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ailing Vernon Law is starting to worry about his future with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The hefty righthander tore a shoulder muscle against Cincinnati in April. He hasn't been right since.

Someone else may be wearing his Pirate uniform next year if the ailment isn't cleared up soon, he said Monday.

"I'm not helping the club at all the way I'm pitching now," Law said. "I want to pitch, but I want to do my job the right way."

Law has won three games this year while losing four, a far cry from the pace he set last year when he won 20 while losing nine.

Manager Danny Murtaugh gave Law a long rest after he got hurt in April. Since then, Law has made a few starts and failed to give the distance. He has picked up two victories.

He would do all right for five or six innings, then the arm would tighten up.

"It gets so darn sore I can't do anything," Vernon explained. "I can't throw hard. I can't throw a curve. I can't follow through. It even hurts several hours after a game."

Doctors said the trouble is a torn rotator muscle in the right shoulder.

Law said he has done everything to cure the trouble — hard exercise at times and a lot of rest at others — but nothing seems to help.

"I just don't know what's wrong and I don't think anyone else does either," he said.

"I'm hoping the warm weather will help the arm. If it doesn't, I don't know what I'll do."

Beavers Still 3 1/2 Games Behind Pacific League Pacing Rainiers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Pacific Coast League schedule gave Seattle Monday night off and offered both Portland and Tacoma a chance to gain on the front-runners but both challengers booted it.

With the Rainiers resting at San Diego, Portland's Beavers split a doubleheader with Salt Lake City, winning 6-3 after losing 5-2, while the Giants absorbed a 15-2 shellacking at Vancouver.

Hawaii shut out Spokane 2-0 in the third PCL contest Monday night.

Seattle returns to action at San Diego Tuesday night on a schedule that finds Salt Lake still at Portland, Spokane at Hawaii and Tacoma at Vancouver.

Walt Bond homered with two aboard in the top of the ninth to give Salt Lake City the win in the opener at Portland. The loss snapped a Beaver victory string of five straight. In the nightcap, Portland scored four times in the first inning and added two more in the eighth on Gene Oliver's round-tripper with one on.

Southpaw Seth Morehead made his PCL debut at Vancouver and limited Tacoma to five hits as his mates jumped on Giant pitching for 16. Frank Torre paced the Mounties attack with a homer and two singles in three trips. He drove in four runs and scored two. The win moved Vancouver into a tie for fourth place with San Diego.

Spokane starter Howie Reed allowed Hawaii only five hits but four of them came in the fifth inning and, with a walk tossed in, produced both Island runs. It gave Hawaii a 3-1 lead in the seven-game series at Honolulu.

Liston's Manager Says Impersonating Charge A Mistake

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An angry George Katz, manager of heavyweight Sonny Liston, said today he doesn't think the No. 1 championship contender will be convicted of charges of impersonating a police officer "because the whole thing was a mistake."

Katz said, too, that he didn't think Liston's latest in a series of squabbles with the law Monday would hurt his chances for a shot at Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

Katz took exception to a statement by Arch Hindman, executive secretary of the National Boxing Association and former president of the group.

Hindman said Monday night from his home in Hagerstown, Ind., that "if Liston is guilty of that kind of crime, he has no business in boxing."

Katz, angered
Katz blew up at Hindman's statement, saying:
"It's about time I got a little burned up. Nobody says anything about the good things Liston does like playing baseball with kids. Nobody's holy. Anybody's liable to get into trouble. You just can't come out with a statement that you think somebody ought to be knocked out of boxing."

The charge against Liston was brought after two men stopped Mrs. Dolores Ellis, 29, of suburban Lansdowne, as she drove through the lonely reaches of Fairmount Park before dawn Monday.

Mrs. Ellis, who was not harmed, said she was under the impression she had been halted by police.

She and the two men are Negroes.
"I think the whole thing was a mistake," said Katz. "They (Liston and Isaac Cooper) didn't say they were officers. Mr. Hindman got the wrong information. They thought they knew this person. Sonny is a fun-loving person who likes to play pranks."

Power Inc. Leads Yanks Into Battle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris & Co. lead the New York Yankees into Cleveland tonight for a three-game showdown series with the first place Indians.

The Yanks are on a five-game winning streak and have cut the Tribe's lead to one game. A victory tonight would put the defending American League champs in front by 0.05.

The New Yorkers scored a 3-1 victory over Los Angeles in Yankee Stadium Monday night for their 11th win in the last dozen contests, while the Indians dropped a 7-5 decision in 10 innings to Kansas City.

Cleveland has won 13 of 18, but all three losses have come in the last six games.

A somewhat neutral observer, Kansas City Manager Joe Gordon, looks for a New York-Cleveland dogfight all the way for the pennant.

"The Indians convinced me they'll be in the race all the way," said Gordon, who managed the Tribe last season. "They have that pitching depth."

"The Yanks have the edge in hitting, but this club can scare you at the plate, too."

Maris has 20 homers and 47 runs batted in and Mantle has socked 18 homers and driven in 44 runs.

American GI Upsets British Tournament
TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP) — Lt. Monroe (Blinky) Mitchell of Fort Worth, Tex., pulled off the first big upset of the British Amateur Golf Championship today by defeating Frank Deighton, Scottish Walker Cup player, 4 and 3.

Mitchell is a 23-year-old lieutenant in the weather branch of the United States Air Force in London.

In another second round match, David Brew of England eliminated Truman Connell of Tequesta, Fla., 2 and 1.

Airman I.C. Ralph Morrow from Oklahoma City had been rated the U.S.'s best prospect for honors after a first round that trimmed the total American entry from 2 to 14.

Morrow's non-commissioned colleague is Pte Michael P. Korich from Roseville, Calif. Outranking them—but not necessarily on the course—are Col John E. Fitzgerald of San Diego, Calif., and Maj. Hiram M. Snowden of Savannah, Ga.

The royal and ancient, ruling body of British golf, selected eight seeds for the championship — and made them all British.

That's what the club thought about the strength of the U.S. entry.

Eleven Americans won their first round matches and nine were eliminated. Another three scratched and three more had byes into the second round — the point at which the going begins to get tougher.

permental rearing of spring chinook. It is scheduled for salmon production in the spring of 1962.

70,000 Planted
The first to go into steelhead production was also in Douglas County. It was the 35-acre Whistler's Bend impoundment. A total 70,000 steelhead fry was planted in the impoundment in May. At migratory size these young steelhead will be counted, marked and released into the Umpqua system.

Schneider said the completion of Hemlock Meadows and Lake County's Cottonwood Meadows impoundments will make a total of seven impoundments constructed or under construction by the Game Commission within the past two years, built specifically for fishery purposes. Four of the impoundments provide some 170 surface acres of trout angling waters for Oregon fishermen, while the other three, including the two in Douglas County, are to be used for rearing salmon and steelhead alone.

Only one impoundment built by the commission is currently available to anglers. This is Trillium Lake, with 55-acres of surface water just off the Mt. Hood Highway near Government Camp. The other completed impoundment is 76-acre Medco pond located in the upper Rogue River area.

Under construction at the present time is Lofton Reservoir, located between Klamath Falls and Lakeview. It will be completed within a few weeks.

Bids have already been let for Bull Prairie Reservoir located south of Heppner in the Umatilla National Forest, with construction of this 25-acre trout lake scheduled to start immediately.

Director Schneider said the Game Commission is continuing its investigations of other impoundment sites to provide new fishing waters for Oregon anglers. He said several have been located that show exceptional promise.

Oregon Junior Golfers Begin Match Play Today
PORTLAND (AP) — Match play a day under way today in the Oregon Golf Association Junior Tournament.

Medalists Monday were Fred Taylor, Portland, in the junior division, with a 2 over par 73; John Krogh, Portland, in the boys division, with 73; Joan Edwards, Portland, last year's junior girls crown winner now in the girls division, with 80; and Dan Young, La Grande, and Mike Spang, Portland, tied with nine-hole 48s in the pee-wee division.

John Carey, Cottage Grove, and Jay Gorman, Portland, with 74s, were right behind Taylor in junior play. Mike Collmar, Salem, with 37-37-74, was second in boys' competition. Wendy Moberly, La Grande, was runnerup in girls' play with 40-41-81.

Juniors and Boys' competition is on the Tualatin Country Club course. Girls' and pee-wee play the first two days will be at Riverside, moving to Tualatin Thursday and Friday.
