Blakelys Have Golden Wedding

More than 200 relatives and friends attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Blakely, Sunday, May 21, from 2 to 5 p.m. at their Glide home.

The occasion was also the 86th birthday of R. T. Blakely, who is the son of Samuel Plum Blakely, the first white settler in the Glide area, who arrived in 1852 by covered wagon from New York state.

The charming affair was hosted by the couple's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Blakely of Glide; their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Fearn (Agnes) Moore of Glide and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Margaret) Prowell of Roseburg.

The rooms were attractively decorated in the golden wedding theme with bowls of yellow roses and yellow irises. Mrs. Blakely wore a beige summer frock with a golden orchid corsage as she happily greeted her guests.

The beautifully decorated serving table was covered with a lovely rose fluted hand-crocheted tablecloth made by Fearn Moore, who is confined to a wheelchair. The large four-tiered anniversary cake, topped with a large golden "50" had been made and decorated by Mrs. Prowell. After the honored couple had cut the first slice, the cake was served by Miss Linda Moore. Mrs. Florence Moore and Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Lillian Van Horn served at the punch bowl and Mrs. George Richey, Mrs. R. P. Blakely and Mrs. Frank Hayes presided at the coffee service.

A rose-covered wishing-well received money gifts and many cards. Jane Prowell, Marilyn Blakely and Rob Blakely, granddaughters and grandson, were in charge of the well and the gift table. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. M. J. McDaniel, Mrs. Bob Ridgeway and Miss Bernice McDaniel.

The Blakelys were married at the Christian Church in Roseburg. C. G. Blakely, a nephew who was present at the wedding 50 years ago, attended the anniversary reception.

Present were four generations, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Blakely, Mrs. Fearn Moore, Mrs. Frank Hayes, and Kathy Hayes.

Of special interest was a cablegram of congratulations from the Dave White family in Germany (Mr. White is teaching there).

The guest book, in charge of Fern and Helen Moore and Ruth Prowell, granddaughters, was signed by relatives and friends:

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Blakely, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Prowell.

S. Clarence Trued Presents Piano Pupils In Recital

A gathering of Junior High and Senior High students presented a varied program of piano and organ selections at the Trued home on SE Jackson St. Monday night. About 35 were present, parents and close friends of the students participating, some coming from Portland. They all proclaimed it an enjoyable affair after listening to the varied degrees of skill and the nature of the music offered.

Carol Lee Colbrunn played the first movement of the American Youth Concerto by Bauer, assisted by Ruth Trued at the organ; Cheryl Baker performed the Gypsy Mazurka by Bohm; Sharon Wagner played the Allegro by Chopin-Liszt; Gail Neuner gave Gavotte Petite by Conrad; Charlene Miller offered Edward Grieg's Triumphal March on the organ; Beverly Baxter played the opening theme of Tchaikovsky's B Minor Concerto as arranged by Percy Grainger; Cinda Byrd played Toreador Song from Carmen and Oh! Susanna by Stephen Foster; Pat Byrd rendered Mozart's Minuet from Don Juan; the latter two also played the Peasant Dance by Scher as a duet; Judy Patton performed the Allegro-Barbaro by Bela-Bartok; Vivian Lawrence played Gypsy by Sarasate and Mary Beth Hill gave a Prelude and Fugue by Bach on the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Trued closed the program with two organ-piano duets: My Heart Ever Faithful and Meditation on Bach's First Prelude by John Sebastian Bach.

Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Trued, assisted by Mrs. Roy Byrd and Mrs. Charles Miller, who poured. Flowers for the occasion were presented by Mrs. Harold Horn.

Individual recitals are to be given by other advanced students in the late summer.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Gaylen Blodsoe, Mrs. Blair Harrington, Miss Nora Williams, Mrs. Eldon Lee and Mrs. Orville Pontius. Mrs. Dale Bessett sent a gift.
