

Glendale Job's Daughters Installation Is Enjoyed

Approximately 100 were present for the installation of officers for the Glendale Bethel of Job's Daughters which was held at the Glendale Masonic Temple Saturday evening.

As the service opened, Karen Mehl, cousin of the honored queen-elect, Marilyn Mehl, and Patsy Stapleton, lighted candles held in white candelabra. Some of the tall tapers were blue with white glitter decorations, the others were white with blue glitter. The candle lighters wore white dresses with purple cummerbunds, and corsages of purple pinks.

The senior and junior installing custodians, Mrs. Floyd Taylor and Mrs. Jim Mosley, escorted Mrs. Dean Smith, guardian, and William La Prath, associate guardian. La Prath also escorted his daughter, Sandra La Prath, installing honored queen. They were followed by the installing officers: Mary Lee Pate, guide; Mrs. Carl Ford, marshal; Mrs. John Sether, chaplain; Mrs. Robert Thompson, recorder; and Mrs. Joe Payne, musician.

Judy Blomme and Marsha Cooper, dressed in purple, carried straw baskets filled with rose petals.

For the installation the honored queen-elect had chosen as her theme, "In The Garden," and for her ceremony, "The Friendship Heart of Faith." Mrs. Life Edson read an appropriate selection with a musical background. Miss Mehl carried a flower-laden silver heart tied with blue ribbon.

Billy Mehl, small cousin of the honored queen-elect, brought the Bible to the altar.

Sandra La Prath, retiring honored queen, led the new officers in taking the obligation, after which they were installed in turn. New officers, not including the honored queen, are: Nancy Turner, senior princess; Nancy Clare, junior princess; Barbara Kumbrough, guide; Carol Major, marshal; Jeanne Hughes, chaplain; Betty Stapleton, treasurer; Janice Burgoyne, recorder; Ruth Price, senior custodian; Terry Sue Johns, junior custodian; Diana Temple, Janet Brady, Lona Kay Gilmore, Cheryl Miller and Emma Lee, messengers; Neva Jean Wilson, librarian; Evelyn Kimbrough, musician; Cindy Temple, inner guard; Julie Taylor, outer guard; Rita Jackson, Ann Bartle and Susan La Prath, choir.

The retiring queen gave the obligation to Marilyn Mehl. She was then escorted to the anteroom door where guests, Wally Davenport, master councilman for the Grants Pass De Molay Chapter and a corps of his officers were greeted. The De Molay honor guard escorted the honored queen to the altar where she received her regal robe and crown from the installing queen.

The marshal then escorted the retiring queen to her station.

The honored queen introduced all of the past honored queens present, including Sandra La Prath, Mary Lee Pate, Mrs. Jim Mosley, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Floyd Taylor and Mrs. Dean Smith.

The honored queen was introduced as the grand representative to Saskatchewan, Canada, from Oregon.

Introduced were Mrs. Dora

Flower Family Is Honored At Supper Held At Tiller

Ranger and Mrs. Leonard Flower and children of Shelton, Wash., formerly of the Tiller Ranger Station, were the inspiration for a potluck supper in their honor held recently at the home of Ranger and Mrs. Hillard M. Lilligren at Tiller.

Planned as an outdoor affair, it had to be moved indoors because of rain, and tables for adults were arranged in the living room and for the children in the basement recreation room.

Present in addition to the honored guests and the Lilligren family were Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Poole, Ranger and Mrs. John O. Wilson and sons; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Donovan and Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Carson and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Onstoft, Mrs. Kathryn Billups, Lew Billups and Stan Sorgenfrei.

Following supper, the evening was spent visiting. The Flower family left Tiller three years ago. Flower, formerly Cow Creek District Ranger, is now stationed on the Shelton District of the Olympic National Forest. During their stay at Tiller, the youngsters were houseguests at the Lilligren home and their parents stayed at the Poole home. They stopped here en route to California on vacation.

June Bride-Elect Is Feted At Shower In Canyonville

Miss Sandra Lee Christensen was the honored guest at a bridal shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Young of Canyonville with Mrs. William Thompson of Riddle, co-hostess.

Miss Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Christensen of Surprise Valley, will be married to Theodore Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts of Myrtle Creek, June 24.

A pink tiered cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Arthur Thompson, and a bride doll on the refreshment table, set the theme for decorations.

The honoree opened her gifts after several games were played and poems dedicated to the bride were read.

Besides the above mentioned, guests included Mrs. James Lee and daughters, Barbara and Linda; Mrs. Marshall Yarbrough and daughter, Joan; Mrs. Ralph Criddle, Mrs. Emma Blazer, Mrs. Worth Burdick, Mrs. Madelle Stinson, Mrs. James Musick and Mrs. Frank Roberts, all of Myrtle Creek; Sally Thompson, Mrs. Earl Burboyne and Mrs. Basil Schofield and daughter, Donna, of Riddle; Mrs. Keith Olsen, Mrs. Richard Christensen, Rita Brown and Dorothy Young, Canyonville; and Mrs. R. L. Frame of Days Creek. Many others, not able to attend, sent gifts.

Ladies Club Has Meet

The Tenmile Ladies Club held their recent meeting in the clubhouse. Hostesses were Mrs. Warren Lockwood and Mrs. Don Lakey.

A social hour followed the delicious covered dish luncheon.

Their next meeting will be at the Centers Park.

Luncheon Meet Enjoyed By WSCS

Nineteen members of the Yoncalla Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service met in the recreation room of the church Thursday afternoon for their first meeting of the year. The new president, Mrs. Terry Wise, conducted the session. A luncheon was enjoyed at twelve o'clock, with Mrs. Orville Pontius and Mrs. Clifford Emery as hostesses.

Mrs. Avery Lasswell gave a report of the Oregon conference held in Portland recently. She gave a brief outline of different events taking place during the week.

A pledge service was conducted by Irene Sparks, Mrs. Herschel Phillips, Mrs. Karl Hummel and Mrs. Noble Snider.

The club decided to be hostesses at an afternoon tea for the next meeting July 13. They will invite members of the Drain and Sutherland WSCC to be guests to hear Mrs. J. J. Davis, a returned missionary from Africa. This meeting will be at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Herschel Phillips was elected chairman of local activities to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Raymond Otto who has moved to Harrisburg.

Mrs. Harold Withnell will represent the society at Camp MacGruder July 10.

Mrs. Eric Stenseth invited the society to hold their August meeting at her cottage on the Umpqua River near Scottsburg.

Party Is Given At Murphy Home

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Murphy entertained at a lovely dinner party at their home at Umpqua Friday evening. The long table, with a centerpiece of gay spring flowers, had places set for Mrs. E. Lansing of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Elmer Ellison of Yoncalla; Mrs. Alton Clark and the host and hostess and their daughter, Peggy, and twin sons, Bill and Paul.

The group attended the Oakland High School graduation, then returned to the Murphy home for a party.

Others, besides the dinner guests at the party, were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ferguson and son, Robert, of Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. William Miller and son, Bill, of Roseburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liles and daughters, Kathy and Nancy, and Miss Irene Murphy, all of Umpqua. Games and visiting were enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Rogers-Rankin Marriage Takes Place In Eugene

Miss Carol Lynn Rankin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley D. Rankin of Springfield, former Glendale resident, and Vernon L. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Rogers of Springfield, were married recently at the Kingdom Hall in Eugene. John Owen Lovewell, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The hall was beautifully decorated with bouquets of flowers. Milo Jeffreys sang appropriate solo numbers before the ceremony, with Ruth Pacholke acting as pianist.

The bride wore a traditional white gown of nylon net with thin velvet straps worn off the shoulders. The gown featured a white sequined bodice, full skirt and a nylon shawl. She wore a silk and net bridal veil and carried a dozen long-stemmed yellow roses.

Her bridesmaid, Sandra Lee Rankin, wore a mint-green dress with quarter-length puff sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a yellow rose corsage.

Mothers and grandmothers of the couple wore orchid corsages.

After the ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the Santa Clara Grange Hall, where the couple cut a large five-tiered wedding cake. The cake was decorated in white with yellow rosebuds and large yellow wedding bells.

The serving table holding refreshments extended the full length of one side of the Grange hall. Mrs. Roberta Davenport supervised the serving. Mrs. Anna Mae Bailey of Cottage Grove arranged the flowers. Shirley McGillivray of Fall Creek had charge of the gifts and Mrs. Sam Grace of Glendale, paternal grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Esther Miller of Springfield, formerly of Glendale, maternal grandmother of the bride, the wedding book.

More than 200 guests attended the wedding. Those present from Glendale included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Grace, Mrs. M. L. (Bud) Frost and Mrs. Oscar Davidson.

The bride wore a white sheath dress with net slippers for her going-away costume. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Eastern Oregon and have now returned to 328 1/2 W. 12th St., Eugene to make their home.

The bride lived in Glendale most of her life, and was graduated from Glendale High School in 1960. After the family moved to Springfield last year, she was employed at Pappy's Pantry there.

The bridegroom attended school in several different cities, and was graduated from Eugene High School in 1954. He has been in missionary work for the past six years, driving school buses for the Eugene school system as a part-time occupation. He is now employed by a Eugene contractor.
