Tenmile Couple Sells Residence

By MRS. WALTER COATS

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Smith have sold their home in Tenmile to C. L. Wood of Florida. The Smiths have moved into a new trailer home at their Dogwood Motel on the North Umpqua. Mrs. Smith teaches fifth grade in the Tenmile Grade School. They will move their trailer home back to Tenmile during the school months.

Course Completed

Lloyd Thomas has completed his third gun safety class in Tenmile with 12 boys and two women completing the course. Courses will be resumed in the fall.

Miss Brenda Fisher is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Buck, in Springfield, and attending vacation Bible school there.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Christopherson and family were Mrs. Christopherson's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deitz, of Woodlake, Calif., and Mrs. McCarty of La Puente, Calif. They stopped en route to British Columbia for a vacation.

Mrs. Don Nuzum and three children and Mrs. Ted Head of Tenmile drove to Portland recently. They took Devonna Nuzum up for a check up following plastic surgery on her face last week at the Good Samaritan Hospital. She received electrical burns on her face from an accident which occurred about a year ago. Mrs. Nuzum's father, Carl Cassidy, who had been visiting in Tacoma, Wash., returned with them.

Dixonviller Leaves On California Trip

Carol James of Dixonville accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John York of Roseburg to points in southern California recently.

The trio plans to visit Disneyland, Marineland and other tourist places before returning home this weekend, reports Jean Radcliffe, correspondent.

Mrs. A. R. Counts and Mrs. Clifford Counts drove to Portland last week, where the latter visited with her daughter, Mrs. Gary Bateman, and with Mr. Ray Gilpin. Mrs. A. R. Counts drove on to Vernonia, where she was a guest of her father. She also visited the Charles Mingers at Vernonia.

Mrs. W. O. Waddle and two daughters drove to Eugene Saturday on a shopping trip.

Earl Maddox, who attends Oregon State College, Corvallis, is home to spend the summer vacation.

Dennis Hill, who attends Oregon State College, spent a few days last week visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Hill.

Betty Ann Collins is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jack Ladd, in Cottage Grove for a few weeks. Other Collins children on vacation are Marjorie who went to Corvallis to spend the summer with an aunt, Mrs. James Pynich, and the two Collins boys, Clifford and Steve, who are visiting Mrs. Don Magnusson in Cottage Grove for a few weeks.

Helleck Is Speaker At Inter-Agency Meet

County Juvenile Officer Julian Helleck told the June meeting of the Inter-Agency Council that the social health of a community is set by the people in it.

If they want to have a higher standard of living, he said, they strive for it. As they increase their education, earning power increases and the whole picture of social health in the community becomes better.

A higher standard of living, Helleck said, means more interest in preventive medicine, which means a healthier community.

Helleck gave a comprehensive resume of the year's work by the agency during the meeting held at the YMCA.

Kenneth Barneburg was appointed hospitality chairman for the next year and Jack Summerfield will serve as publicist. Mrs. Bernice Smith will chairman the program committee.

Mrs. Casey Morgan, council president, presided over the meeting. Next meeting will be in September.

Woman Attends Portland Events

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Mrs. George Showers is back in Melrose following a trip to Portland to attend the wedding of her niece, Mary Waeltz.

She met her mother, Mrs. Lyda Bogart, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Bogart, both of Reedsport, and with them attended the Rose Parade. She also visited an uncle, Asa Hyde, and family and a school days friend whom she hadn't seen in 20 years, Mrs. Myrtle Nedrow, and her family.

Returns From Visit

Elvin Ornbaum has returned from a visit with his mother in California.

Mrs. J. E. Conn and Mrs. Jeanine Blanchard and two daughters are back from a week's visit in Delta, Utah, with the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stidham, and three sons. They toured Virginia City, Nev., and other points en route home.

Mrs. Edith Hill of Los Angeles has arrived to spend the summer months with her son, Jack Bathrick, and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pargeter spent three days last week at King Surf Motor Lodge at Depoe Bay, where the former attended a symposium for Oregon Insurance agents.

Relatives Visited

Mrs. Fern Wheeler of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Sig Weiss of Portland spent Sunday visiting relatives in the area, including the former's father, Royce Busenbark.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wood and David Wood spent the weekend at coast points.

Mrs. Arlie Rich of Callahan, Calif., is spending several weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Arensmeier and son of Eugene were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arensmeier, on Doerner Road.

Canyonville Welfare Center Needs Clothing

Although the Canyonville Dorcas Society is planning a summer recess late in July, the need for clothes and furniture at the Canyonville Welfare center is still great, according to Mrs. Earnest Naylor, president.

Mrs. Naylor says that scarcely a week passes but a burned out family is re-outfitted as much as possible from the center and stated that all old furniture, children's clothing and especially boys' clothes, were at the head of the list of things needed, reports Virginia Proctor, correspondent.

Dixonvillers Take Recent Reno Trip

By JEAN RADCLIFFE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fuller of Dixonville accompanied the former couple's son, Dale, and Miss Linda Hodson to Reno, Nev., on June 10 where the young couple were married. En route home they stopped in Redding, Calif., and visited the George Tennyson family.

Counts Visited

Richard Counts of Grants Pass was a recent guest of the Clifford Counts.

Miss Alda Lee Brumbach travelled to Beaverton recently where she participated in the State Grange youth talent contest at the Beaverton High School. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brumbach, her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Brumbach, and Jerry Rust. Alda placed second in the miscellaneous division.

Recent overnight guests of the Bud Ruhn family were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wickstrom, and children of Lumpac, Calif. They were en route to Anchorage, Alaska, where Wickstrom is communications head for the fish and game commission.

Janice and Janell Chalker left for Portland last weekend where they will spend the summer visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Ada Chalker, and other relatives.

Gary Haas, student at Oregon State College, Corvallis, spent a recent weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haas and sisters.

Land Board Orders Royalties Probe

SALEM (AP)—The state Land Board Tuesday ordered its staff to see whether it should charge higher royalties for gas and oil produced on state lands.

The board's policy now is to charge a 12½ per cent royalty.

The board said it thinks it might be wise to have a sliding scale, so that this royalty would increase if production becomes large.

This royalty doesn't apply to offshore lands, where leases are granted on competitive bidding.

The board's staff was instructed to see what other states do about royalties.

Oregon has no producing wells now.

The board turned down a request for a $400,000 loan by Walter J. Kraus, owner of Pony Village, a North Bend shopping center. It decided there was too much risk involved.

Kraus, who offered the 35-acre center as security, said he wanted the loan to liquidate existing loans, saving himself interest.

Job Description Asked For Mental Health Post

SALEM (AP)—The state Board of Control Tuesday told its staff to prepare a job description for the position of mental health director.

The new law, creating a mental health division under the Board of Control, will go into effect July 1, 1962. The division will supervise the state mental institutions and local community mental health clinics.

The board held up action on a plan to increase home and apartment rentals of institution employes who live on the institution grounds.

It has received several protests against the increase.

Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, board chairman, said some consideration might be given to those employes who are required to live on the grounds, and to those who aren't getting salary increases.

Sitting as a banking board, the board increased the salary of the state superintendent of banks by $1,100 a year. The new salary will be $11,100.

Canyonvillagers Back From Trip

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brent and Carolyn have returned to their Canyonville home from a trip to Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, the main purpose of which was to attend the wedding of the Brent's son, Ronald David Brent, to Sheryl Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Avery, at Wichita, Kan., June 10.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Brent will make their home on the Evangel College campus, where Brent is studying, at Springfield, Mo. Before returning to Canyonville, the Brent family visited relatives in Oklahoma and Texas.

Visits Father

Mrs. Raymond Carson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Crockett and family of Canyonville motored to Portland to spend Father's Day with Raymond Carson who has been in the Veteran's Hospital there for about a month.

The group visited with Carson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Monaghen, a daughter, who had brought him home from the hospital for the day. They reported Carson much improved.

Bille Herbert, Joy Yakel and Susan Northway are attending a week of baton school at Portland State.

A rummage sale was scheduled for June 26 and 27, to be held at the IOOF hall, by Bertha Rebekahs at their regular meeting according to Mrs. Leonard Clifton.

The sale will begin at 9 each morning, Mrs. Clifton said. Four visitors from Sutherlin were welcomed and reciprocated by inviting Bertha members to visit them.

Following the routine business meeting, Mrs. R. E. Cassidy and Mrs. Howard Green served lunch.

Fair Oaks Grangers To Buy Refrigerator

A committee has been appointed by the Fair Oaks Grange to buy a large refrigerator for the Grange hall kitchen, reports correspondent Barbara Liesinger.

This was one of the points of business at the last meeting of the Grange, attended by 23 members. It was also reported that the Home Economics Club women would serve luncheon at the Andy Hempenius auction June 25.

Ethel Byles, a member who has been recovering the last several months from injuries received in an auto accident, was reported confined to bed once again after suffering a hip fracture. The charter was draped in memory of Susie Cockerum, a member who recently died.

In honor of Flag Day, readings were given on the history of the flag and a tribute to the flag.

Hosts for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin King.

A newly-elected member of the Grange is Bob Kellum, who was voted into membership at the meeting.

Myrtle Creek Teacher Selected For Session

Selection of Myrtle Creek High School biology teacher Charles R. Sperling for summer study has been announced by Dr. Ronald G. Humphrey, Oregon State College.

The two-week institute which Sperling will attend is sponsored by the Oregon Council on Advanced Placement, under grant from The Fund for the Advancement of Education, reports Lorraine Birenbaum, correspondent.

Teachers attending the session at Oregon State College, Corvallis, will receive intensive supplementary training in biology to best prepare them to offer high-level work to superior students. Except for a registration fee, expenses for this training are provided by the sponsoring agency.

US Naval Academy Head Disagrees With Admiral

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The superintendent of the U.S. Naval Academy says he does not agree with Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover that the military academies should be reformed or closed.

Rear Adm. John F. Davidson, through the academy's Public Information Office, has released a "no comment" statement which also said, "in general, he does not agree with Adm. Rickover's views regarding the Naval Academy, as stated in the newspapers the superintendent has seen."

Rickover, 61, in secret testimony before the House Appropriations Committee last month, called for the abolishment of the service academies unless drastic steps are taken to improve them.

Tidbits The Movie Colony Is Talking About Today

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The movie colony had these tidbits to talk about today:

Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner, who embarked 3½ years ago on a marriage their fans considered perfect, are living apart.

The announcement Tuesday caught the movie colony by surprise. A spokesman said it would be a trial separation; the couple has no immediate plans for divorce.

Wagner, 31, and onetime child star Natalie, now 22, were married Dec. 28, 1957 in Scottsdale, Ariz.

A squabble among lawyers appears to have snarled Lana Turner's offer to settle a $750,000 civil suit for $20,000.

The action stemmed from the 1958 knife death of Johnny Stompanato, Lana's boy friend at the time. Her daughter, Cheryl Crane, now 17, told investigators she stabbed Stompanato to protect Lana.

A coroner's jury ruled the case justifiable homicide.

Attorney Melvin Belli, who prepared the suit in behalf of Stompanato's only child, John Stompanato III, 13, said Tuesday the proposed settlement was off. He said he was annoyed by a statement attributed to Lana's lawyer, Louis G. Blau, that his client was offering the $20,000 settlement only to prevent further publicity.

Bing Crosby's eldest son, Gary, 28, is due in Hollywood today to recuperate from an attack of nervous exhaustion.

"He saw a doctor in Chicago who said he had nervous exhaustion and should quit work immediately," Gary's press agent said Tuesday. "He is to go to bed for a month for a complete rest."

A Hot Springs, Ark., night club where young Crosby was to begin an engagement Thursday, said Bing's younger brother, Bob, has agreed to fill in for his nephew.

In Chicago, a night club spokesman said Gary's engagement was cancelled because he walked out on the show.

A Los Angeles court has turned down actress Linda Christian's bid for a $200,000 trust fund for her two daughters from the estate of her former husband, actor Tyrone Power, who died in Madrid in 1958.

Noting that the youngsters already have $10,000 yearly potential income from a previously established trust fund, Judge William J. Palmer commented Tuesday: "Only an infinitesimally few of the world's children are so fortunate."

The judge said Miss Christian, 33, has the "professional recognition, youth, attractiveness, ambition and apparent good health" needed to contribute toward the support of her daughters, Romina 9, and Taryn, 7.

Bumptious playwright Brendan Behan and his wife, Beatrice, are en route by train to New York following a high-spirited drinking party he gave for friends Tuesday.

Though he poured liquor liberally for his friends, Behan took nothing but carbonated water and then coffee.

Of his new play, "Richard's Cork Leg," almost completed, Behan quipped: "It's about sex, politics and religion, in that order—in a ratio of about 60-20-20."

A young actor and his mother are battling over his earnings as a minor in the "Life of Riley" TV series.

Wesley E. Morgan, 21, testified in Los Angeles Tuesday that, as his guardian, his mother took control of $66,000 he earned between 1953 and 1958, except for 15 per cent she was ordered to invest in government savings bonds. He wants $40,000 returned to his control.

His mother, Josephine M. Morgan, 56, said in a counter suit that all the money was spent on her son, plus $4,127 of her own money she wants him to return to her.

Engineers Reject Powerhouse Bids

PORTLAND (AP)—Army Engineers today rejected all bids as too high for the excavation and construction of the Cougar Dam powerhouse on the south fork of the McKenzie River.

Col. Walter L. Winegar, district engineer, said the seven bids received exceeded the government estimate by more than 25 per cent. The government estimate for the work was $1,071,762. The lowest bid was $1,365,594, submitted by S. and C. Inc., and West Coast Electric Co. of Seattle.

Winegar said bids will be called again in October.

Cougar Dam, now about 40 per cent complete, is expected to go into operation in October, 1963.

Navy Has Biggest Simulated Ocean

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy today began using what it claims is the largest simulated ocean in the world.

Enclosed in a five-acre building, the basin is intended for testing ship models under realistic rough sea conditions. Such tests help the Navy predict the performance of full-scale vessels.

The basin, with a capacity of 12 million gallons, is a rectangular concrete structure, 240 feet wide by 360 feet long, with a water depth of 20 to 35 feet.

The test basin is equipped with 21 devices for creating waves up to 24 inches in height.

China Wheat Menaced

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio revealed winter wheat crops in four northern China provinces have been menaced by drought for the third straight year.

It gave no figures as to the size of the harvest or crop losses.

Chandler Fought Hard For Life Says Rabbi

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"For five desperate weeks," said his rabbi, actor Jeff Chandler struggled against death—"struggled as no man I've ever known struggled."

Rabbi Albert M. Lewis told a throng of mourners this week that the tall, husky actor "pitted all his great strength against his illness.

"But then the Sabbath came—the day of rest of his people."

Chandler, 42, died Saturday of blood poisoning. He had been in critical condition after three successive operations.

Eight hundred persons, including many film and sports celebrities, attended the rites at Temple Isaiah. Many more stood silently outside the temple.

Hospital Bids Due

PORTLAND (AP) — Bids will be invited later this summer on an addition to the crippled children's division of the University of Oregon Medical School Hospital.

The addition, expected to cost about $35,000, will provide a large room for interviewing and clerical space.
