Movie Stars Offer Advice For U. S. European Visitors

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Going to Europe this summer? If you are among the 700,000 fortunate Americans who are doing so, you'll want some advice to pack along with your drip-dries and wash-and-wears. Here are more movie stars' experience than movie stars. And though you may not be traveling in movie-star style, you might want to listen to some advice to European tourists I have gleaned.

Anne Baxter: "Be sure to take a half-day's trip from Paris to Chartres. And pick a clear day so you can see the sun shining through the cathedral windows. There's a restaurant nearby where the lunch is magnificent. Charles Boyer and I agree that Chartres is our favorite spot on this earth."

Lana Turner: "Above all, don't just take the airplane through Europe. Rent a car and drive through the countries, especially from Paris to Rome and on down to Sorrento. And don't hang out in the big hotels and famous restaurants; all you'll see is Americans, if you do."

Debbie Reynolds: "Just remember you're a guest in their (the Europeans') house. Act accordingly. I've seen too many Americans who go to Europe and shout at each other down the streets and get mad because the shop people can't speak English."

Bob Hope: "Travel light. Leave plenty of space in your bags for all the junk you're going to bring back with you. I had so much overweight coming back that I could have saved money by chartering the Queen Mary."

Thus armed, I am embarking on a tour of the Continent. A show biz reporter has to keep on the move these days.

I'll be sending reports on filming in Stockholm, Munich, London, Amsterdam, Paris, Rome and points in between. It's tough work, but I'll try to bear up, especially now that I have such good advice.

Milk Producers' Petition Asks New Milk Price Meets

BERMISTON, Ore. (AP) — A group of milk producers sent a petition today to the state Department of Agriculture asking for a new hearing on milk prices—and they expect to ask that the minimum payment to them be reduced.

Dillard Mills, one of the group, said the producers could save money in two possible ways out of a dilemma: A lower minimum price that their distributor can afford to pay, or a 2-cent-a-quart boost in the price to retail stores and hence to consumers.

The latter would require that other major suppliers, principally Dairy Cooperative Association, also boost the price to retailers. Mills said Dairy Coop had been asked to do this but had not replied.

The trouble arose when James Hager, distributor buying from 12 dairymen in this area, said he could not afford to pay the $5.80 per hundred-pound minimum price to producers set under a new law. So he paid the rate for surplus, factory milk, about $3.15.

Before the minimum price was set Hager had been paying $4.85 since about March. Before that time he had paid $5.94 but at the same time he was getting 2 cents a quart more from retailers.

When Dairy Coop reduced the price it paid producers—an action that led to the new minimum price law—it also reduced the price to retailers, Mills said, and this reduced price has continued.

Mills said the producers selling to Hager are agreed that Hager cannot pay the $5.80 minimum to producers as long as this reduced price to retailers continues. And, he said, Hager is the only distributor who needs their milk so they must sell to him rather than to another paying the $5.80.

Of the 12 producers in the group, 11 signed the petition asking for the new hearing. The twelfth could not be reached but was believed in favor.

Texas Republican Slated In Oregon

PORTLAND (AP) — Sen. John G. Tower, the first Republican to be elected to the U.S. Senate from Texas in 80 years, is scheduled to speak at GOP meetings in Oregon next month.

The tentative schedule calls for Tower to make appearances at Medford, Eugene and Salem July 22, and at a Multnomah County Republican picnic July 23.

The announcement was made recently at a GOP meeting here by state Republican Chairman Robert G. Davis of Grants Pass.

Discussing what he said was a patronage dispute between Democratic Sen. Maurice Neuberger and Rep. Edith Green, Davis said "a federal appointment is not something to squabble over, as dogs in an alley over a sty bone.... In these troubled times, there is a call to statesmanship. Statesmanship does not allow anyone—Democrat or Republican—to set his personal whims and petty pride ahead of his party, his state and his nation."

Hoover Due For Award

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover will receive Philadelphia's first Presidents' Freedom Award on June 27 during Freedom Week observances.

Lookingglass Man On Recovery List

By HAZEL MARGH
Mr. and Mrs. Corvin Heard returned from Portland Wednesday. The former is recuperating from additional surgery performed earlier in the month and is reported to be making satisfactory recovery. Mrs. Heard stayed with her husband through the entire period of his surgery and convalescence in the hospital.

Enrollment Slated
Mrs. Carolyn Hoffman left this week for Seattle where she will enroll for the summer session at Seattle Pacific College. Her two small sons remained for the summer on the ranch with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Storms.

Mrs. Fred Schmidt is reported to be convalescing satisfactorily at Community Hospital following surgery performed the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swift and daughter Lois left the last part of the week for Seattle where they will visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swift, and son.

Mrs. Grant Nielsen and children came from the Steamboat area where they are camping for the summer to spend the weekend at the home place with the former's mother Mrs. Eugenia Swan and guest Mrs. Ida Hutt.

Jackie Pinch-Hits For JFK At Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy stayed home to nurse his back injury Monday night while Mrs. Kennedy filled in for him at a banquet date with women reporters.

The back strain that caused Kennedy to miss the annual banquet of the Women's National Press Club also contributed to cancelling his scheduled flight to Hawaii next week.

Both dates were called off Monday. The White House said Kennedy's recuperation had advanced to a stage where he did not want to risk aggravating the condition.

The same explanation was given a week ago when Kennedy skipped a speaking engagement before the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

Every day since then, White House physician Dr. Janet Travell has been described as satisfied with Kennedy's progress.

At Monday night's banquet, Mrs. Kennedy took all the song and satire, including digs at herself and her husband, with apparent good humor. At the end of the evening, she gave a little talk, voicing regrets on behalf of her husband that he couldn't be there.

Kennedy had said he would attend the Governors' Conference in Honolulu and deliver a speech next Tuesday unless prevented by other business. White House news secretary Pierre Salinger said only that "it was felt he should not make a trip at this time."

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will substitute for Kennedy at the Governors' conference.

School Districts Get Final Yearly Payment

Bert Laurance, Douglas County Treasurer, last week signed $182,124.19 in checks for school districts in the county as the last payment to them for the current fiscal year.

He said funds for the checks were derived from current and prior taxes and land sales for the fiscal year which ends June 30.

Largest check went to Roseburg for $40,100.36. Reedsport received $22,612.28 and Sutherlin got $22,228.84. Other large checks went to Winston Dillard, $18,356.85, Myrtle Creek, $14,202.77, and Glendale, $11,216.10.

Named Top Apprentice

COOS BAY (AP) — The winner of the Oregon carpenter apprentice contest is Wilfred D. Newman of Albany.

He took first place in the state competition here last weekend and will represent Oregon in the Western regional contest at Reno later this summer.

Negroes Urged Not To Buy Homes In Residential Area Of Whites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Panic selling by white persons in an integrated section of the Lakeview community near Hempstead, N.Y., has led to a campaign by Negro residents to keep the area from becoming predominantly Negro.

Lynch said Negroes are being urged not to buy homes in the section so the community can be stabilized at its present ratio of about eight white residents to each Negro.

He said about 40 white families in the community of 150 to 200 residents have offered their homes for sale because of the increase in Negro population. The homes cost from $17,000 to $25,000.

At Louisville, Ky., about 300 white persons called and throwing rocks greeted Negro anti-segregation demonstrators at a private, segregated park.

Four or five white persons were arrested after the incident at Fontaine Ferry Park. Nearly 30 Negroes were arrested at the amusement park earlier Monday when they blocked an entrance during a demonstration, police said.

In other racial developments: The Interstate Commerce Commission announced plans for considering Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's request for a ban on racial segregation in interstate bus facilities. The ICC invited written comments to be submitted on Kennedy's proposal by July 20, with oral arguments Aug. 15.

Kennedy was criticized Monday by Alabama's Atty. Gen. MacDonall Gallion who said the federal official should "take his feet off the desk and put them on the ground."

Gallion denied a statement by Kennedy before a U.S. Senate committee that he had talked with Gallion and Alabama Gov. John Patterson about protection for the "Freedom Riders."

"Never before or since the beginning of the freedom rides has Bobby Kennedy or any of his assistants called me concerning this subject and I have never talked with this individual at any time," Gallion said.

The U.S. Supreme Court rejected three more appeals seeking to block public school integration in New Orleans.

The Supreme Court also refused to order the setting up of a three-judge federal tribunal to hear a protest against Florida's new pupil assignment law by parents of 14 Negro children in Duval County (Jacksonville), Fla. The county school board defended the law as a constitutional and orderly plan for public school desegregation.

Nine more convicted Freedom Riders were transferred from the county jail at Jackson, Miss., to the State Penitentiary and five others posted bond to gain their freedom from the prison farm.

At Chapel Hill, N.C., a white Duke University student was arrested on trespass charges after refusing to leave the Negro section of a bus station grill. Police said the student, Edward Orton Jr., told them he feels segregation is morally wrong.

Rayburn Doubtful On Education Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn has described as not very good the prospect for passage of President Kennedy's aid-to-education program in this session of Congress.

He also said there is a cross-country campaign against the administration's foreign aid program, but said he believes Congress in the end will decide "we need it."

Rayburn talked with newsmen following the weekly conference of Democratic legislative leaders with Kennedy.

Rayburn said he does not know just who is behind the campaign against foreign aid, but remarked there are "some hate societies running in the country." He said they are against everything.

Fleming Champie's Water Fluoridation

EUGENE (AP) — Arthur S. Fleming, who will become president of the University of Oregon on July 1, champions fluoridation of water in a July magazine issue. Fleming will write a monthly column for the Good Housekeeping magazine, drawing on his experiences from 2½ years as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower cabinet.

The first column, with the title "Let's Save Our Children's Teeth," makes a strong appeal for fluoridated water to prevent dental decay. He said fluoridation has been blocked in many communities by those "who appeal primarily to the fears and prejudices of an uninformed electorate."

Fleming is currently en route to the West Coast with his family. He will leave them to fly to Hawaii in late June to speak at the governor's conference. The new president is expected to be in his campus office the first week in July.

U. S. Factories To Be Rolling In High Gear

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon today predicted the nation's economy will grow by a whopping 8 per cent next year and put the federal budget back into the black.

In a talk prepared for the National Press Club, Dillon said "we should keep this long-range prospect of prosperity clearly in mind" when assessing the budget deficits currently being recorded.

"It is probable that by this time next year our economy will be rolling in high gear," Dillon said. "We may well be in the midst of an economic boom."

Dillon said the nation's total output of goods and services—the gross national product—will approach $315 billion this year compared with $303 billion in 1960. Noting this would mean an economic growth rate of 2½ per cent, he added that 1962 "gives promise of being a year of accelerating growth."

Looking ahead, he said: "From something like $540 billion in the first quarter, we can reasonably hope for an increase to about $570 billion by year end. This would give 1962 an annual level of some $555 billion, an increase of nearly 8 per cent over 1961."

Saying that chances for such a performance are good, Dillon asserted that this "would mean enough federal revenues to meet all of our national needs, with something left over."

Dillon said revenues in the 1963 fiscal year, which begins July 1, 1962, should approximate $90 billion.

For fiscal 1962, which begins next month, the Treasury looks for revenues of $81.4 billion and a deficit of $3.7 billion.

For the current fiscal year, ending June 30, the Treasury now is forecasting a deficit of about $3 billion.

Cuban Molasses Unloaded In U.S.

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A cargo of Cuban blackstrap molasses was being unloaded here today from a Norwegian tanker.

The ship—the SS Stolt Advance—arrived here last Friday from Neuvieta, Cuba. It carried 2,018,424 barrels of molasses.

The New Orleans Times-Picayune quoted an unidentified customs official as saying there are no import restrictions on blackstrap molasses.

The cargo is being unloaded at the Publicker Chemical Corp. docks at Westwego, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans. The molasses will be used to make cattle feed.

The office of the New Orleans Collector of Customs said the cargo was valued at $201,842.40.

It could not be determined if the molasses was part of a $2 million purchase which President Kennedy earlier had said he hoped would not be consummated.

The President told his Feb. 5 press conference that the deal was not in the best interest of this country.

No officials of the Publicker concern were available for comment.

Mendez Cafe, a Riddle restaurant, has been listed for bankruptcy proceedings in the U. S. District Court in Portland. The restaurant's debts reportedly total $4,124.82.

New Official Picture Of Jackie Made Public

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new official picture of Mrs. John F. Kennedy has been made public.

It shows the 31-year-old First Lady from the waist up in a light hued wool dress. She looks straight ahead and smiles softly. Her right elbow rests on the back of the sofa on which she is seated and her chin rests on her right palm. Her left arm is draped over the top of the sofa back.

The new official picture was taken by New York photographer Mark Shaw in the White House living quarters at the end of May.
