Honors Are Given At OES Meeting

Officers, courtesy girls and members of Oregon Chapter No. 37, O.E.S. chose Wednesday evening's regular meeting at the Masonic temple, Canyonville, to honor Mrs. Ray Wright, outgoing worthy matron, and Ray Wright, outgoing worthy patron.

In an addendum featuring the things the Wrights would not have time to do, courtesy girls climaxed their tribute with a gift of a doll dressed to match Mrs. Wright in her station. Officers summed up the year's activities with a "This is Your Life" format climaxed with presentation of money towards past matron and patron rings. Mrs. W. Frank Brown planned the courtesy girl's skit and Mrs. Leo Davidson, the officer tribute.

Following the courtesies, Mr. and Mrs. Wright presented gifts to each officer. Reports of grand chapter were made by Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Guy McGee and Mrs. Wade Worthington. Sr., incoming worthy matron, who, with Mr. Worthington as worthy patron, was installed Saturday.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. William Preston, Mrs. Norman Chappell and Mrs. Robert Proctor. A handkerchief shower for the Wrights was featured and after refreshments the group viewed the Wright collection of colored slides taken of chapter activities during the year.

Friendship Club Meets Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thiele entertained their Friendship Club on Saturday evening at their attractive home on Roberts Creek Road. A delicious turkey dinner was served at 6:30 to Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schosco, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Chenoweth, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux, members, and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Mabel Allen and Mrs. Maggie Francis.

Careys were enjoyed following the dinner hour with high scores being received by Herman Schosco and Wanda Schosco. Ed Thiele received second high for men and Ruth Manning second high for ladies. Mabel Allen and Eloise Lamoreaux each received a sweep prize.

Gift Exchange Enjoyed At Friendship Club Meet

The Glendale Friendship Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Joe Fachel. Birthdays and anniversaries which occurred during April, May and June were celebrated with a gift exchange. Plans were made for the July 20 visit of the State Rebekah President, Mrs. Cleona Applegate of Central Point.

Members decided to again sponsor the annual Odd Fellows and Rebekah picnic to be held in the Grants Pass City Park on the first Sunday of August.

The next meeting will be a potluck supper meeting to be held in the Glendale City Park, with husbands of the members invited as guests.

After the meeting, games were played with Mrs. Oscar Davidson named the winner.

Mrs. Fred Wright and Mrs. Maurice Reasoner served refreshments to the 12 members present.

Pink And Blue Shower Given For Mrs. Berry

A pink and blue shower was given at the Elktion Lodge Hall Friday for Katherine Berry. The following guests were present: Mrs. Kenneth Brooks, Mrs. Wilbur Garrison, Mrs. John McNeil, Mrs. Don Harbaugh, Mrs. James Davis, Mrs. Lawrence Rigor and the hostesses Mrs. Boyd Garrison and Carol Beck. Several games were enjoyed followed by the guest of honor opening her gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Newlyweds

A VERY BEAUTIFUL WEDDING took place June 17, when lovely Janet Weikum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weikum, became the bride of David Hugh Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Willis, all of Roseburg. Following a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Willis are now residing on Klamath Avenue in Roseburg. (Picture by Wilson Studio)

Willis-Weikum Wedding Takes Place June 17th

Lavender and white was the color plan of the wedding of Miss Janet Weikum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weikum, and David Hugh Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Willis, all of Roseburg. The scene of the wedding was the Green Community Church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with large floor baskets of lavender rhododendron. The pew markers were large bows of white satin with color accents of lavender orchids. The service was held on Saturday evening, June 17, at eight o'clock, with about two hundred and fifty relatives and friends present for the occasion.

The Rev. Mr. Leonard Floth, pastor of the church, read the impressive double ring ceremony by candlelight before an altar flanked with tall candelabra and large floor baskets of white and orchid fringed gladioli arranged in greenery.

Mrs. Al Cummings, church organist, played as the guests assembled, with Miss Wendy Hunt of Winston joining her at times with flute arias. Mrs. Cummings also played the traditional wedding music for the processional and recessional.

Soloist was Miss Penny Ostrander, who sang choruses of "Aloha" and "Because of You" during the assembling of the guests. Just before the ceremony she sang "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap and while the couple knelt before the altar the "Lord's Prayer" was rendered. She was accompanied at the organ by her sister, Peggy Ostrander.

The bride, who approached the altar on the arm of her father, was given in marriage by both her parents. She was beautiful in a princess style dress of white tulle with tulle train. The bride featured lavishly trim of Alencon lace and the neckline was accented by the portrait collar. With the three-quarter length sleeves she wore dainty lace mitts. Back interest was added by the huge tulle bow below the neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a satin and lace covered white Bible, a gift from her parents when she became queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 53 of Winston-Dillard. Upon it had been arranged a single white orchid in a spray of staphanotis with satin ribbon. For her "something old" she wore a string of pearls which had been a gift to her mother from her parents on her sixteenth birthday.

Miss Kathi Madson was maid of honor. Sharon Neavoll, Judy Miner, Barbara Willis, sister of the bridegroom, and Trudy Wooster, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. All wore identical dresses of lavender chiffon over tulle, designed with tight bodice, cummerbund, square neckline and bouffant skirt. The car sleeves were covered with flowers. Their hats were lavender flowered circlets to which were fastened short circular face veils. Their jewelry was a gift of the bride. They carried lace-covered fans upon which had been arranged a spray of white gladioli centered with a lavender orchid and streamers of white satin ribbon.

Little Janet Brint, niece of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. The bridegroom was graduated from Douglas High School in 1957, where he was especially active in musical activities. He is employed in the plywood industry.

Out-of-town guests coming to Roseburg for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wooster, Trudy and Kerry of LaCenter, Wash.; Mrs. Arthur Michaels, Mrs. Edward Wolfe and Mrs. George Lingelback of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Weikum and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Kirk of Milwaukie; Mrs. William Weikum, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weikum, Mr. and Mrs. James Gage, and Mr. and Mrs. Delsyn Closser of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wooster and Kevin of Sweet Home, and Miss Judy Miner of The Dalles.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Brenda Lea Fisher, guest of honor; Deena and Connie Croy, Vickie Peters, Lori Dwight, Carol and Diane Lockwood, Cheryl Centers, Paty Cook, Linda Seigle, Betty Hall, Bunny St. Clair, Marilyn James, Mrs. Ed Dwight, Mrs. Bill Centers and Mrs. Douglas Croy.

Mrs. Fisher Entertains At Party For Daughter

Mrs. Ernest Fisher entertained at her home on Lockwood Road in Tenmile to honor her daughter, Brenda Lea, on her ninth birthday. Balloons and colored streamers were used to decorate the room.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Brenda Lea Fisher, guest of honor; Deena and Connie Croy, Vickie Peters, Lori Dwight, Carol and Diane Lockwood, Cheryl Centers, Paty Cook, Linda Seigle, Betty Hall, Bunny St. Clair, Marilyn James, Mrs. Ed Dwight, Mrs. Bill Centers and Mrs. Douglas Croy.

New Officers Installed In Canyonville Ceremony

Carlotta Wiesman of Grants Pass, past grand matron of Oregon, officiated as installing officer when Mrs. Wade Worthington was installed worthy matron of Oregon Chapter No. 37, O.E.S., and Wade Worthington, worthy Patron, at formal ceremonies in the Masonic Temple, Canyonville, Saturday evening.

W. Frank Brown officiated as installing patron. Mrs. Ralph Weaver, marshal; Mrs. Brown, chaplain; Mrs. Lawrence Michaels, organist; and Mrs. Leo Davidson, secretary.

Following the accepted ritual for installations, outgoing worthy matron, Mrs. Ray Wright, and worthy patron, Ray Wright, called the meeting to order and officiated over the placement of the Bible and flag and turned the meeting over to the installing officers.

Following the installation of Mrs. Worthington, Howard Haynes sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Robert Shaffer. He sang "Whither Thou Goest" following the installation of Mr. Worthington.

A light touch to the program was provided by the South Douglas Assembly as members danced an intriguing "catalina head" dance, costumed accordingly.

Following introductions of family and guests and remarks by all concerned, gifts were presented to the new worthy matron including a gavel made by James Bush, a Days Creek teacher. Mr. Worthington and Bush had conspired to fashion the gavel of hickory sent to the ranch in 1910 from the Midwest as a surprise to Mrs. Worthington. The gavel was suitably inscribed gold band.

Another surprise was a gift sent from Mrs. Worthington's sisters and brother to be presented by Mrs. Ray Wright.

At the close of the installation, Dorothy Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stokes Jr., Myrtle Creek, was installed as Honored Queen of Bethel 18 Job's Daughters, Myrtle Creek, Friday evening in the IOOF hall.

Installing officer were Tamara Stamey, senior custodian; Karen White, junior custodian; DeLaine Franklin, recorder; Mrs. Earl Bumgarner, chaplain; Donna Trask, guide; Susan Black, marshal; Neva Millsap, flag bearer; Mrs. Robert Kelly, musician; and Myra Kelly, who read the tribute to the flag.

The book of silver ceremony was read by Mrs. Jack Doud after it had been carried in by Barbara and Diane Davidson.

Mrs. Frank Felkel of Roseburg sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Shepherd," accompanied by Mrs. Maurice Stamey at the piano.

Miss Stokes' theme is "I shall wear the crown of rejoicing." After the installation a reception and dance was held in the Elks hall, which was decorated in the queen's colors of pink and white.

Mrs. Cody Long Birthday Honoree

Mrs. Cody Long was pleasantly surprised at her home south of Yoncalla Monday when a group of her friends gathered to help celebrate her birthday. The surprise was sponsored by her daughter, Mrs. Bob (Lucille) Blue of Portland, and two granddaughters.

Visiting was enjoyed during the afternoon and after opening the many lovely birthday gifts, a large cake beautifully decorated with a large bouquet of yellow roses in the frosting, was served with ice cream and coffee to the following: Mrs. Bob Blue, Janet Blue and Terry Jo Ling all of Portland; Dr. Milton of Oakland; Mrs. Eric Steneth, Mrs. Edward Kelso, Mrs. George Edes, Mrs. M. J. Wright and two granddaughters; Mrs. Roy Brant, Mrs. Roy Dodd Sr., Mrs. Roy Dodd Jr., Mrs. Bird Nelson, Mrs. Thelma Estes and two daughters; Mrs. Mamie Lake, Mrs. Ernest Warner, Mrs. Roy Knopp, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. Ray Turpin and two granddaughters; Mrs. Karl Hummel and Mrs. Tyrrel Wise.

For going away the bride wore a lavender sheath dress with large collar, which had been made by her mother. Her accessories were white and she chose to wear the orchid from her wedding bouquet. She carried a golden orchid lei, which had been brought from Hawaii that day as a gift by Miss Ginger Harris, who had returned from vacationing there. After the wedding trip down the coast to San Francisco, the young couple is now at home at Klamath Avenue, Roseburg.

The new Mrs. Willis was graduated from Roseburg High School this spring and was very active in school activities. She takes an interest in Job's Daughters affairs, and has been an active participant in 4-H activities. She is presently employed as a sales clerk at Newberry's in this city.

The bridegroom was graduated from Douglas High School in 1957, where he was especially active in musical activities. He is employed in the plywood industry.

Out-of-town guests coming to Roseburg for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wooster, Trudy and Kerry of LaCenter, Wash.; Mrs. Arthur Michaels, Mrs. Edward Wolfe and Mrs. George Lingelback of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Weikum and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Kirk of Milwaukie; Mrs. William Weikum, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weikum, Mr. and Mrs. James Gage, and Mr. and Mrs. Delsyn Closser of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wooster and Kevin of Sweet Home, and Miss Judy Miner of The Dalles.

No-Host Dinner Held Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fullerton entertained the Wednesday evening bridge club members and their husbands at a delightful no-host dinner party on the patio of their beautiful home Wednesday night.

Covers were placed for Mrs. George Sathman, a guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moischenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Berrie and Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton.

High score for the evening's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Sathman with Mrs. Berrie, second, and Mrs. Turner winning the traveling prize.

Duplicate Club Winners Reported

Tuesday winners at the Roseburg Duplicate Bridge Club play at the Umpqua Hotel for North-South players were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGregory and Mrs. W. E. Herriott and Mrs. Ray Carrioco, who tied for first, and tying for third were Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mrs. S. G. Palmer and Miss Gertrude Rast and Mrs. Lyle Bodenner.

East-West winners were Mrs. G. W. Marshall and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, first; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bevans, second; and W. E. Herriott and L. E. McClintock, third.

The group adjourned to the dining room for light refreshments served by Mrs. Ernel Briggs and Mrs. Luson Winn assisted by the chapter's courtesy girls. Centerpiece of the refreshment table was a replica of the Eastern Star in appropriately colored artificial flowers with a miniature altar topped with a tiny Bible designed and made by the hostesses.

Decorations in the chapter hall followed the theme and color of the star point. Mrs. Lois DeWald designed decorations to point up Ruth's color, yellow, and the sheaves of barley. Mrs. William Belcher was in charge of the guest book, a gift of the 1961-62 officers.

Besides the Worthingtons, officers installed included Mrs. William Belcher, associate matron; William Belcher, associate patron; Mrs. Ira Poole, secretary; Mrs. Milton Cooper, treasurer; Mrs. Martin Moore, conductress; Mrs. Joseph Anderson, associate conductress; Mrs. William Moore, chaplain; Mrs. Ray Wright, marshal; Mrs. Guy McGee, organist; Mrs. Jeanette Jenks, Adah; Mrs. Richard Prairie, Ruth; Mrs. Craig Heath, Esther; Mrs. Charles Pruden, Electa; Mrs. R. E. Cassidy, warder; and Malin Moore, sentinel.

Courtesy officers include Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Michaels, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Brown.

Xi Tau Chapter Has Final Meet

The final meeting of Xi Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was preceded by a potluck at the lovely home of Mrs. Dan Dimick. Cohostesses were Mrs. Harold Jokela, Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Paul Hult. Small bouquets of red roses centered the tables.

Following the lovely dinner, Mrs. Laurence Peterson introduced Russell Hanson of Pacific Telephone N.W. who showed slides an narrated the film strip "Seeing Habits for Expert Driving."

During the business meeting it was decided to give a small gift to the girls of Mrs. Kent's Camp Fire group which the chapter sponsors.
