

Open House Held

HONORED on their silver wedding anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Archer, who were complimented by their sons and daughters pictured above with them. Left to right: Gerald (Jerry), Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Archer, Joan and Jim. Below Mr. and Mrs. Archer cut the anniversary cake at the reception held in their honor June 25. (Pictures by Warren Studio, Sutherlin).

Open House Held June 25

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Archer, Stearns Park Road, Oakland, observed their silver wedding anniversary Sunday at an open house. The Archers were married June 27, 1936, in Omak, Wash.

Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were their sons and daughters: Mrs. Ervin J. Darling (Donna June Archer), Gerald (Jerry) Archer, who came from Fort Ord, Calif., where he was then serving with the National Guard; and Jim and Joan Archer of Oakland. Mrs. Darling and family recently returned home from Germany.

Mrs. Archer wore a light blue cotton broadcloth dress with a pink and white carnation corsage. The corsage was a gift from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Darling, and family.

Special guests for the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Watkins of Roseburg who observed their silver anniversary June 28. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins and the Archers were both married in Omak, Wash., and by the same minister. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cromwell of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Archer's mother and stepfather, who observed their ninth anniversary June 27.

Four generations present for the occasion were Mrs. Cromwell, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. Darling and Deanna and Deanne Darling.

Sweet peas and roses were used to decorate the rooms. The flowers were gifts of friends and neighbors. Many gifts and cards were also received from relatives and friends.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Walt Watkins, Mrs. Jack Babcock, Mrs. Gerald Archer, Mrs. Ernest Helms, Martin Steinmeyer, Mrs. W. T. Archer, Miss Joan Archer, Miss Carole Copeland and Miss Susan Leith.

Lovely decorated cakes made by Mrs. Robert Monett, Mrs. James Stearns and Mrs. Clifford Peterson were served to the guests.

Those signing the guest book were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cromwell and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Leith and Susan, all of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Babcock and Greg and Barbara, Wapato, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Archer of Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Archer of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin J. Darling, Deanna and Deanne, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helms, Mrs. Martin Steinmeyer and granddaughter, Judy Kay Steinmeyer, all of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, the Rev. and Mrs. John L. Welch, Mrs. Ida Rander, Lorne Rander and Dick Kemp, Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stuve and Yvonne, Mrs. Edith Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles James, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Copeland, Vickie, Diana and Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Copeland and Carole, Clyde Manning, Mrs. Clifford Peterson and Stewart and Jim and Joan Archer, all of Oakland.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Merion Allee, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, Odessa, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. William Peseau, Reedsport; Mr. and Mrs. Walt Bergstedt, Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tucker and Carol of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Rich Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carlton, all of Wenatchee, Wash.

Lawn Picnic Enjoyed By Family Group At Tennille

Friends gathered at the Tennille home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rathkey Tuesday and enjoyed a picnic dinner on the lawn.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Folmsby, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Breitenbuecher, Mrs. Grafton Tyler, Mrs. Louis Diederich, Mrs. Walter Robbins and Miss Mary Jean Dickover. Mary Jean received a lovely birthday cake.

Picnic Held On Tuesday

Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Reece and sons, David and Bruce of Melrose, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Secoy of Daly City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weiborn and son, Gordon, of Springfield; Connie Bevans of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Secoy. Connie remained at the home of her sister, Mrs. Reece, for a few weeks visit. A picnic dinner was enjoyed.

Silver Wedding Anniversary Celebrated By Don Pankeys

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pankey of Melrose were honored at a surprise party at their home on their silver wedding anniversary Tuesday evening. Arranging the affair were their two children, Mrs. William Hunter and Donald Pankey, and Mrs. Kay Nelson.

Mrs. Nelson decorated the Pankey home while the Pankeys were being entertained at dinner at the Hunter home and on their return found the guests waiting to honor them with gifts and congratulations.

Two lovely cakes were served with other refreshments from a table gay with appropriate decorations.

Enjoying the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Pankey were Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter and children, Bill and Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Schrader, Mr. and Mrs. David Schrader, Kathy and Debbie; Mr. and Mrs. George Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sibley Nielsen, Donald and Rusty; Mrs. Leonard Warren and Pam; Mrs. Kitura Wiard, Earl Wiard and son, Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, Russell, Kathy and Barbie; Claire Carnes and Donald Pankey.

Sending gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Art Kittelson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dick, Mrs. Mary Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pankey were married in Roseburg and have spent their entire married life in the Melrose area.

STEWART PETERSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Peterson, Oakland, celebrated his fifth birthday recently. Guests at his party included Chris Lytle, Robbie Merges, Buzz Copeland, Carol Copeland and Joan Archer. Games were played and favors given to the guests, after which lovely refreshments were served. (Picture by Warren Studio)

Bridge Club Is Entertained By Mrs. M. H. Coen

Mrs. M. H. Coen graciously entertained her bridge club Wednesday at an 8 o'clock dinner-supper at her lovely home on SE Chadwick Street. American flags were arranged in the floral decorations and also decorated the napkins and tallies.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Leslie West, a guest, and Mrs. Robert Golden, Mrs. Donald Kelley, Mrs. Carroll Sensabaugh, Mrs. Victor Lewis, Mrs. Claude Hicks, Mrs. R. A. Cavin and the hostess, Mrs. Coen.

High score for the evening's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Golden.

Golden Pheasant Scene Of Supper

A delightful dinner supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Scharpf of San Jose, Calif., Saturday evening at the Golden Pheasant Restaurant in Salem, following the wedding rehearsal for Miss Linda Lee Hunt and Raymond William Scharpf, for members of the wedding party.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Hunt of Winston, parents of Miss Hunt; Miss Wendy Hunt, David Hunt, Miss Carolyn Scharpf, Miss Barbara McKay, Harold Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. Dana H. Collins, Alvin Wolf Jr., Miss Cathy McFarland, Mrs. John Wilkinson, Mrs. Charles McCord of Dillard, Miss Marion Kimball, Miss Kathleen Hunt, Miss Sharon Burian, Miss Judy Sorenson, Miss Sharon Wood, Miss Teresa Leslie, Miss Linda Lee Hunt, Raymond Scharpf and the host and hostess, parents of the bridegroom.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized, Sunday, July 2, in the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Salem.

Marriage Event Of Late June

Claire Carnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carnes, and Donald Pankey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pankey of Melrose, were married Friday, June 30, at the home of Justice of the Peace Watson.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pankey Sr., Mrs. Ralph Carnes and Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter. Following the ceremony the bridegroom's parents entertained the wedding party and guests at a dinner at the Four Winds Restaurant in Sutherlin.

Following a few days honeymoon Eugene and up the McKenzie River the couple now resides at Tye, where he is employed with his father.

Mahlon R. Hale Home Scene Of Pink And Blue Shower

A lovely social event was the pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Bill G. Onstott which was held recently at the Mahlon R. Hale home at the Tiller Ranger Station. Mrs. Hale and Mrs. John T. Utley were co-hostesses.

A pink and blue umbrella, with buds of tea roses arranged on and beneath it, centered the attractive serving table. Flowers in ceramic booties and other attractive containers were arranged about the rooms. A smaller table on which gifts were placed was covered with an heirloom cloth of white linen and delicate insertion lace. A treasured possession, the Utley had received the cloth from her great-aunt, Mrs. Zeno Cox of Nacogdoches, Texas, who had received it as a wedding gift many years ago.

After the opening of the gifts by the honored guest, an evening of visiting was enjoyed. The hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Guests attending the delightful affair were Mrs. John O. Wilson, Mrs. C. G. Henderson, who are leaving for an extended vacation in New Hampshire with their daughter and family.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weatherly; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Johnston and family, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Weatherly; Mrs. Vince Stone and children, Portland; Miss T. E. Weatherly, Eugene; Mrs. Ralph Tunley and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Henderson and family. The guests of honor were pleasantly surprised with going away gifts from the family following the dinner.

Picnic Dinner Is Given At Melrose On Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conn entertained several relatives at a picnic dinner at their home in Melrose Tuesday.

Present to enjoy their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conn and son, Freddie; Mrs. Jeanne Blanchard and daughters, Crista and Patti; E. R. Fenn and Mrs. Fred Becker.

Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Fred Miller of Melrose entertained at a luncheon Wednesday having as guests members of the Friendly Hour Club.

Present were Mrs. D. O. Bly, Mrs. Clarence Coffelt, Mrs. Garnett Graves and David and Jonelle; Mrs. Mitchell Benedict and daughters, Donna, Vicki and Cindy; Mrs. Charles Bly and son, David.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society

8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Thur., July 13, 1961

Phoebe E. Pew Becomes Bride Of James G. Wales

The wedding of Phoebe E. Pew and James G. Wales, both of Yoncalla, was an event of Saturday, July 1, at 8 p.m. at the Yoncalla Methodist Church.

The Rev. Raymond Otto of the Harrisburg Methodist Church and recently pastor of the Yoncalla church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

Bouquets of pink and white summer flowers decorated the altar. Mrs. Felix Latham, organist, played wedding music and accompanied Clifford Emery, who sang "You Tell Me Your Dream."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Fred Reeves, was lovely in a beige lace and peau de soie sheath dress. She wore a pink carnation corsage, a small pink hat and a pink necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Merrill Pew, daughter of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a coral-colored sheath dress and carried a white carnation nosegay.

Best man was Gary Wales, grandson of the bridegroom. Ushers were Mervin Pew, the bride's son; Jerry Reeves, the bride's nephew; and Richard Wales, grandson of the bridegroom, all of Yoncalla.

Family Picnic Held At Tiller

The Riverside home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McGinnis at Tiller was the scene of a family picnic get-together Tuesday. Games for the children and visiting among their elders provided entertainment. A feast climaxed the occasion.

Present besides the hosts were their summer houseguest, Mrs. McGinnis' sister, Miss Doray Jane Layton, of Alturas, Calif.; their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith McGinnis and daughters, Carol and Linda, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert McGinnis and children, Mike and Terry, all of Canyonville; and Everett Dorrough and daughter, Holly, of West Point, Calif., who have been visiting at the Delbert McGinnis home. Mr. Dorrough is the father of Mrs. Delbert McGinnis.

The hall was beautifully decorated with pale green candles in white candelabra which were lighted by Sharon Smith, 11, daughter of Mrs. Pete Smith, the new worthy matron. Large white baskets of white, yellow, bronze and lavender chrysanthemums and greenery, brought up from Redwood City, Calif., by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown, parents of Mrs. Smith, were also used in the decoration scheme.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Benny Bennett, Sutherlin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Ann, to Jerry Ray Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Strong, also of Sutherlin. Both were graduated this spring from Sutherlin High School. The bride-elect is attending the Roseburg School of Business and the bridegroom-elect is serving in the U. S. Marine Corps in San Diego. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture courtesy Sutherlin Sun).

and her houseguest, Mrs. Mary Francis, visiting here from Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Bobby Murray, Mrs. Donald E. Koten, Mrs. Harry B. Carson, Mrs. Ira B. Poole, Mrs. Robert D. Clauson, Mrs. Del Godfrey, Mrs. Richard Clark, Mrs. Ray Looney, Mrs. Richard D. Williams, Mrs. William Oden, Mrs. John Loeblein, Mrs. Chet Haney, Mrs. Roger Williams, Mrs. Alfred G. Darrach, Mrs. V. L. McGinnis, Mrs. Wayne Peterman and Mrs. Walter Cook all of Tiller; Mrs. Don Olson and Mrs. Philip Jones of Canyonville; Mrs. Gene Carlson of Steamboat Ranger Station, formerly of Tiller, and her houseguest, her foster mother, Mrs. Henry Orwig of Dundee; and Mrs. Larry Hendrickson of Roseburg and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Glendale, both the latter former residents of Tiller.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Kiril Spiroff of Ishpeming, Mich., and Mrs. Jack Watson of Wenatchee, Wash., both former Tillerites; Mrs. Onstott's mother, Mrs. Helen Ballentine and her aunt, Mrs. Rose Dillon, both of Glasgow, Mo.; Mr. Onstott's mother, Mrs. J. A. Green, of Steilacoom, Wash.; Miss Ann Shirley, who left for her home in Louisiana the previous day after being a houseguest at the Onstott home, and Mrs. Glenna Rogers of Drew and Mrs. John Donovan of Tiller.

Lockwood Ranch Scene Of Picnic On Tuesday

Enjoying a picnic at Eldora Park on the Lockwood Ranch Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lockwood and Cathy and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lockwood and family of Fort Bragg, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stevenson, Jackie and Timmy, Little Valley; Mrs. Mildred Philpot of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lockwood and family, Mrs. Don Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Croy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Dwight, Mrs. Jack Hill and Susie, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Dowdy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fisher and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dwight and family.

Birthday Is Observed

R. A. Busenbark was honored on his birthday Sunday at a picnic dinner at his Melrose home.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Doyle and Denise; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark and Mrs. Lena Howland.

Pargeters Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pargeter entertained at a picnic dinner Tuesday at their home in Melrose. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Anderson and daughter, Ginger, and Mr. and Mrs. Eston Hurd.

The occasion marked the birthday of Mr. Anderson.

Farewell Dinner Given

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carlson were hosts at a farewell dinner at their home at El Camino Motel south of Yoncalla Saturday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Martin League and family of Drain who are leaving the community.

ROSE HOTEL'S ROSE ROOM

Entertainment with Music Open 10 A.M.—Close 2:30 A.M. Also Fine Dining All Day

Member ROSEBURG PARKING ASSOCIATION FREE PARKING

With $2 minimum purchase, PARK FREE at ADAIR's or Serv-Ur-Self Lot

Bridal Couple

MR. AND MRS. JAMES G. WALES, both of Yoncalla, pose for their wedding picture following their marriage July 1 at the Yoncalla Methodist Church. Before her marriage the bride was Phoebe E. Pew.

New Officers Are Installed At Glendale Friday Evening

The Glendale OES held an open candlelight installation at the Glendale Masonic Temple Friday evening at 8.

Installing officers were Mrs. Joe Payne, worthy matron; Joe Payne, worthy patron; Mrs. Life Edson, marshal; Mrs. Fred Kafer, chaplain and Mrs. Fred Beerli, organist.

New officers installed were Mrs. Pete Smith, worthy matron; Martin Brooks, worthy patron; Mrs. Howard Chiavari, associate matron; Howard Edson, associate patron; Mrs. Henry La Prath, treasurer; Mrs. Ed Bailey, conductress; Mrs. Dean Smith, associate conductress; Mrs. John Sether, chaplain; Mrs. Robert Thompson, marshal; Mrs. Fred Wright, organist; Mrs. Ralph Place, Adah; Mrs. Roy Williamson, Ruth; Mrs. Kenneth Brady, Esther; Mrs. Hollis Johnson, Martha; Mrs. Can Clara, Electa; Mrs. Martin Brooks, warder; Kenneth Brady, sentinel.

The hall was beautifully decorated with pale green candles in white candelabra which were lighted by Sharon Smith, 11, daughter of Mrs. Pete Smith, the new worthy matron. Large white baskets of white, yellow, bronze and lavender chrysanthemums and greenery, brought up from Redwood City, Calif., by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown, parents of Mrs. Smith, were also used in the decoration scheme.

The new officers also were honored by an addendum. Mrs. Pete Smith received a large and beautiful bouquet of red roses, a white scrapbook and a white guest book. The guest book was a gift from her husband and from her daughter, Mrs. John Sether. Mrs. George Major had charge of having the guest book signed earlier in the evening.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. Mrs. Oler Sether poured the coffee and Miss Sharon Smith served the punch.

The dining room was decorated with bouquets of sweet peas and pale green candles. Guests received as favors pale green nuts cups set on silver stars.

Dahacks Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dahack of Tiller were houseguests Tuesday of Mrs. Eve Prentice in Medford, who entertained at a dinner for them and for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neidmeyer of Central Point in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Prentice, a Medford music teacher with whom Mr. Dahack has studied accordion, entertained her guests with movies and slides depicting highlights of her four-month "round-the-world tour from which she returned in April. Of particular interest were the pictures from India.

Mother, Son Celebrate Birthday At Dixonville

A double birthday celebration was held at the Doug Devitt home in Dixonville Sunday, honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Devitt and son, Timmy. Besides family members, those present were Devitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Devitt of Corvallis, and Devitt's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Archie Devitt and Karen and Kathy of Loveland, Colo.

Mrs. Dunn Entertains British Brogue Members

The British Brogues met Wednesday evening at the home of Margaret Dunn. A gay social evening was enjoyed. Games were played and prizes given to the winners. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Amy Bauer, Peggy Svarverud, Eileen Herringes and Barbara Brubbin.

Karl's SHOES

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

CHILDREN'S CANVAS TENNIS OXFORDS

Size 6-3

$1.50 Per Pair

556 S. E. JACKSON

OPEN MONDAY EVE UNTIL 9 P.M.