

Green Wins Church Title

LDS Scuttled By 26-3 Count

Green won the YMCA Church League softball title Thursday night with a lopsided 26-3 victory over the Latter-Day Saints.

The victory gives the champs an 11-0 league mark with only one game remaining before the start of the best two-out-of-three playoff with Jackson Wholesale, the winner of the Twilight League crown. The first game of the playoff will be held Monday at 8 p.m. on the Veteran's Hospital Diamond. The winner of the three-game series will advance to the district softball tournament.

Lorentz Pitches Win
Gary Lorentz pitched Thursday's win for the new champs, limiting LDS to a single hit in the first inning. Lorentz struck out three and walked eight as he had the opponents hitting at the fielders.

After battling to a 3-3 deadlock at the end of the first inning, Green started the merry-go-round with five runs in the top of the second to move out in front. Green continued to add to the margin with two runs in the third and one in the fourth, then exploded for 15 counters in the top of the fifth.

The 15-run uprising came on 12 hits as the winners sent 19 batters to the plate.

Three Homers Hit
Home runs by Al Cummings, Don Olsen and Leonard Floth sparked the win. Other extra base hits included a triple by Don Wells and doubles by Jim Forney and Butch Richardson. Les Forney was 4-6 at the plate for the winners and Floth had a perfect 2-2 night. Jim Forney, Olsen and Richardson had identical 2-4 records at the plate, while Cummings was 2-3.

Don Lowe collected the lone hit for LDS in the three run rally in the first inning.

Saturday the Church League champs will clash with the Church of God in their final league game, then open the playoff with Jackson Wholesale Monday.

Light Heavyweight Title Goes On Block Aug. 29

SEATTLE (AP)—NBA champion Harold Johnson puts his light heavyweight crown on the line against Seattle's Eddie Cotton in a title fight here next month. Aug. 29 is the tentative date.

Johnson's manager, Pat Olivieri approved a contract in New York Thursday. The agreement gives Johnson a guarantee of $20,000 and the privilege of 40 per cent of the gate, whichever is bigger.

Beavers Lose Fourth Straight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Portland Beavers Thursday lost their fourth straight Pacific Coast League baseball game, bowing 10-6 to Vancouver.

The Mounties gained a total of 16 hits off three Portland pitchers. Beaver starter Glenn McMin gave up the first six runs. Carl Greene was credited with the victory.

Meanwhile, Seattle, battling to regain first place in the league, put on a one-game demonstration of "How To Get Fat in Baseball" with Spokane's luckless Indians.

The Rainiers, who sometimes couldn't buy a baseball while trying to halt Tacoma's recent successful drive to the top, got 18 of them en route to a 16-1 decision over the Indians.

Giants Win
But despite the barrage, the Seattle nine stayed two games behind the Giants who made it three straight over the San Diego Padres 2-1.

Vancouver swept a three-game series with Portland, dropping the Beavers 10-6 in the finale at Vancouver. Salt Lake City beat Hawaii 8-2.

Seattle's win made it two-out-of-three against Spokane, tied with San Diego in sixth place, but the schedule toughens again as the Rainiers move to Vancouver for three games with the Mounties.

Vancouver is in third place, only a game behind the Rainiers. Tacoma, meanwhile, will remain at San Diego to close out a seven-game stand. Hawaii stays at Salt Lake City but Portland moves to Spokane.

Homer Hit
Seattle started its attack with the first Spokane pitch, Dave Mann lifting it over the left field fence for a homer. Lou Clinton also homered, with a man aboard, before the inning ended. Mann hit his second round-tripper of the night in the fourth with one on.

Clinton and Harry Malmberg had four-for-five for the evening. Injuries forced Spokane to shuffle the lineup. Outfielder Dan Bowman played third and also pitched. Catcher Mike Napoli went to third when Bowman was sent to the mound.

Two of the league's leading hurlers, Ron Herbel for Tacoma and Joel Horlen for San Diego, matched six-hitters. Herbel struck out eight and Horlen seven. Two of the three runs were homers. Bill Hain circled the bases in the fourth and Joe Taylor hit one for the Padres' only tally in the seventh.

The first five innings. Portland Salt Lake City scored three runs in the third inning-featured by Max Alvis' lead-off homer-and that was the needed cushion. Bobby Balceca homered for Hawaii.

Oregon Coast Tourney To Draw 300 Golfers

ASTORIA (AP)—More than 300 golfers will compete in the 51st annual Oregon Coast Golf Tournament which will open here Sunday.

There will be three divisions in the six-day tourney—senior men, men and women.

Attendance Holds Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Attendance at minor league baseball games is running about even with last year's, despite a reduction of five cities and the loss of Minneapolis-St. Paul to the American League.

In a midseason survey of all games played through the fourth of July, 69 clubs report attendance dipped this year to 5,328,754 from 5,352,755 in 1960.

under contest by an 18-9 count. Mike Anderson was the winning pitcher, while Larry Flynn, Mike Doyle, Jim Myers, Keith Andes, Glen Ezard, Mike Anderson and John McWhorter set the pace at the plate. Andes had a perfect 4-4 game, and Doyle drove in three runs.

Fremont Claims Win

Fremont's 13-and-unders soared to an early lead, then held off Eastwood's late rallies to grab a 10-7 victory in Pee Wee play Thursday.

Bob Pureval handled the pitching for the winners, scattering five hits over the route. Casey suffered the loss as he was tagged for eight hits.

Denny Sporer and Jeff Guntner led the Fremont attack with identical 2-3 records at the plate. The big blow for Eastwood was a grand slam homer by catcher Kenny Cooper in the fourth inning.

Fremont took a 4-1 lead with a four-run uprising in the second inning, then went on to lead 7-1 at the end of three. Eastwood narrowed the gap on Cooper's round-tripper in the fourth, but Fremont led the win with three in the bottom of the inning.

A scheduled 11-and-under game was postponed, and will be made up today at 5:30 p.m.

Chiefs Commit Host Of Errors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Wenatchee Chiefs were holders Friday of a Northwest League baseball record—but one they are hardly proud of. The Chiefs committed 16 errors Thursday to exceed by one the mark held jointly by Lewiston and Yakima.

The bobbles benefited the Yakima Bears who took a 7-3 decision to pull a full game in front of second-place Lewiston. Tri-Cities made it two in a row over Lewiston, downing the Broncs 8-4 and Eugene took a 10-inning contest with Salem 4-3.

Wenatchee miscues led to four Yakima runs. Seven of the bobbles were made by infielders, with shortstop Ken Hubbs tagged with three of them. Kerry Buckner drove in two Bear runs with singles and Eddie Crawford bugged out a pair of doubles for the winners.

Bill Barraclough's three-run homer in the second gave Tri-Cities a 4-1 lead it never relinquished. Lewiston fought back with Jim Small's solo homer in the eighth and a two-run circuit clout by Bill Bryan in the ninth. Chico Heron also homered for Tri-Cities. Winner Fred Rick gave up six hits in winning his ninth in 20 outings.

Eugene came back from a 3-1 deficit to tie the game in the eighth and send it into overtime. Ron Phifer's solo homer that came when Jim Barberi missed a shoestring catch brought in the tying runner. The Emerald's won it with Jeff Koss's run-scoring double.

THE FAMOUS RALEIGH TIGERS, one of the top ranking teams of the Negro American League, will clash with the Roseburg White Sox in an exhibition game scheduled for Monday at Legion Field at 8 p.m. The Tigers are one of the top touring Negro ball clubs in America, offering a fast, aggressive brand of baseball for the fans. Composed mainly of young players the Tigers have sent many major league stars up the ladder of success since being organized in 1946. Mike Coen has been named as the starting pitcher for the local semi-pro team, while no starter has been named for the Tigers.

Packed Weekend Due For White Sox

Roseburg's White Sox are due to take the road for three days, then return to Legion Field for an exhibition game against the Raleigh Tigers, one of the top Negro touring teams in the nation.

Tonight the White Sox open the crowded agenda with a practice game against the Eugene Ducks. The clash with the league-leading Ducks is set for Bethel Park at 8 p.m. daylight time. Saturday, the Sox will travel to North Bend for a single outing against the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks in Oregon State League competition.

Saturday's game is scheduled for 8 p.m., while a doubleheader at North Bend is set for Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Monday the local semi-pros will be back in town to host the Tigers in a single game at 8 p.m.

The 1961 version of the Raleigh Tigers is managed by Ralph Fortson, hard-hitting first sacker from Newark, N.J. Fortson led the team in home runs last season with 33. Another top star for the invading Tigers is Robert Fowler, 21 year old catcher from Birmingham, Ala.

Paul Carson, the long-ball-hitting second baseman for the Tigers is 19 years old, while general manager James Austin recently signed Johnny Gilliam, three-letter athlete from Alcorn College in Mississippi.

The pitching staff for the Tigers is headed by a brother combination in the form of righthander Henry Garrett, and lefthander John Garrett from Greenville, S.C. James Drummond was the surprise of the 1960 club and is back serving as a pitcher and an outfielder again this year. Another top hurler for the Tigers is 19-year-old Billy Christmas, who was the ace hurler for the North Carolina high school champs this spring.

Last year the Tigers had a 92-28 record for the season, and, to date, have been even more impressive this year. The Tigers were founded in 1946 and played in the Negro Southern League at that time. During their stay in the Southern League, the Tigers sent such stars as Charlie Neal of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Wes Covington of the Kansas City Athletics, Milt Smith of the St. Louis Cardinals and "Mudcat" Grant of the Cleveland Indians up to the major leagues.

The Tigers are reported to be a colorful ball club specializing in fast action and spectacular baseball for the fans.

Against the Tigers, manager Mike Coen, ex-Sacramento hurler, will handle the pitching duties. Coen is also set to see some action tonight against the Ducks as scheduled starter Gene Wagner is out with an abscessed tooth.

Record 6-1
Coen currently has a 6-1 record for the Sox, and has an earned-run average of 1.32. Wagner should be ready for relief work in the weekend series at North Bend, as well as for Monday's outing. Wagner has the top ERA for the White Sox with a 1.12.

Starting assignments for the outings with the Lumberjacks will go to Steve Clark, Bob Whipple and either John Livingston or Ron Beamer.

The starting infield for the White Sox will find Terry Markham at first base, Dave Cellers at second, Rod Trask at third and Jim Dietz at short tonight against the Ducks. In the outfield, Coen will have Les Bogner in left, Livingston in center and Rick Summers in right.

Sharing the catching chores for the Roseburg nine will be ex-South Eugene star Tom Myers and ex-University of Oregon backstop Dick McClain. McClain is set to start tonight, then will handle one of Sunday's outings.

Top Hitters Named
McClain and Beamer are currently the top hitters for the local team, both swatting the ball at near a .450 clip. Dietz and Bogner are both over .300, while Livingston leads in RBI's with 15.

Beamer will miss tonight's game, but will be ready for the series with the Lumberjacks. Coen will not be able to attend the games at North Bend and will be replaced by George Sanders and Ken Ayres as head of the local team.

Fire Danger Now At Peak

The Oregon Game Commission reminded sportsmen that parts of the state now are in their most extreme fire peril at any time this year and that everyone going afield during the months ahead must exercise special care.

Phil Schneider, state game director, pointed out that the woods and range lands are especially dry following two winters of light snowfall and limited spring rains which have not been sufficient to penetrate the soil. Adding to the danger is a heavy growth of grass and annuals now in the drying stage. Eastern Oregon water holes and creeks are the lowest at any time in the past several years.

A fire of any kind cannot only mean the loss of vegetation on already critical watersheds, Schneider stressed, but also the loss of fishing, hunting, and recreational opportunities for many years to come.
