GV Family Home After Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hughes and daughters of Garden Valley and Flora Millenberger of Roseburg have returned from their vacation trip to Virginia City, Nev., and to Reedsport and Coos Bay, reports Addie Schneider, correspondent.

Back At Work

Lloyd Carlson has returned to his work at COPCO after his vacation. He and his family spent a few days at Sunset Bay camping and the remainder of the time at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilcox of Coquille visited Mrs. Walter Norris.

Mrs. Robert Byrd and Mrs. John Hodson of Grants Pass spent a few days with their father, Henry Hebard, and Mrs. Hebard.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Hebard and son of Eugene recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hebard.

Lewis Hedgepeth Jr., Dennis Lynch and John Spore of Coos Bay helped the former's grandfather, Harding Knapp, put in hay.

Visits At Lookout

Nancy Cross of Suffolk, Va., who has been spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, has returned from visiting Edna Hedgepeth at the Blue Ridge Lookout.

Clark Smith of North Hollywood, Calif., is visiting his mother, Betty Smith, and brother, Franklin Smith. Jim Branton motored up at the same time to visit at Umpqua.

Church Youth Plan Events

The youth group of the First Church of God of Roseburg has had a busy summer season and more events are planned.

The group participated in the Southern Oregon Youth Rally held recently in Medford and are now planning for the West Coast Youth Fellowship to be held Aug. 24-27 in Portland. Youth from the West Coast States, plus several foreign countries will gather on the campus of Warner Pacific College for the three-day conference. Some of the local youth also plan to attend a camp meeting at Clackamas Aug. 6-13.

Recent projects have included making and delivering scrapbooks to a local hospital for the children's ward; visiting various homes to invite the family to church; preparing programs for Sunday evening services; and holding various money making and social events.

Plans Planned

Plans for the future call for a visit to elderly people, shut-ins and invalids and completion of the worship center in the youth chapel. All youth in the group will participate in the chapel work under the guidance of experienced help. Fifty dollars has been voted to furnish the chapel with new lighting effects and provide for a permanent trophy case. Another project will be to relieve the church custodians of inside church cleaning for a week and to care for the church lawn and shrubs for the remainder of the summer.

A car wash will be held Saturday at Ross Miller's Flying "A" Service from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. That evening at 7, a "romper room" party will be held with all those attending wearing clothing of a child less than 6 years of age. They will bring a toy and submit a baby picture for admission.

President Jim Lamka reported that the nominating committee will be elected in August and elections will be held the last Sunday in September. Counselors for the group are Mr. and Mrs. Art Lamka and the Rev. Howard Leverett, church pastor.

Moose State Meeting Slated At Springfield

A number of members of Women of the Moose and Loyal Order of Moose will represent Roseburg at the Loyal Order of Moose state convention and the Women of the Moose summer conference held in conjunction with the convention at Springfield Aug. 4, 5 and 6.

A high point of the women's conference will be the coronation pageant at which May Luoto of Corvallis will be crowned queen of sponsors. Mrs. Walden Roulledge of Roseburg, grand council member, will speak at the coronation ceremony. Other events will include the Women of the Moose executive session and the ritual ceremony on Aug. 6 with the Roseburg chapter proceeding as one of the state's five honor chapters.
