

Has Birthday

BARRY BLYTHE of Santa Barbara, Calif., had his first birthday July 24 at the home of his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blythe, in Roseburg. Gifts were given to Barry and birthday refreshments were served to him and to his brother, Tommy Jr.; Valerie Backlund, Patti Coomes, Vance Backlund, Mrs. Elmer Coomes, Mrs. Paul Backlund, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blythe and the hostesses. Barry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blythe, who have been here from Santa Barbara for 12 days visiting Mr. Blythe's parents. Tom is a former resident and is now assistant manager of the J. J. Newberry store in Santa Barbara.

Three Men Complimented At Birthday Celebration

Birthday greetings were the order of the day recently when friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dahack of Tiller for the annual observance of the birthdays of Leonard B. Proefrock of Tiller, David Crisp of Milo and Alva C. Bowman of Myrtle Creek.

Guests arrived laden with covered dishes for the potluck buffet table which was arranged under the lovely ornamental and shade trees in the Dahacks' garden. Benches had been arranged near the bordering flowers and shrubs for the seating of guests.

Climax of the feast was the cutting and serving of the birthday cake honoring the celebrants. Leonard Proefrock had personally made and decorated the special cake for the occasion.

Adding to the enjoyment for the guests was the presence of their grandsons, Robert and Armand Crisp of Sprague River, who came especially for the celebration.

The pleasant afternoon and early evening were spent in visiting and admiring the Dahacks' lovely flowers and shrubs, as well as their interesting rock collections.

Of the many persons present to enjoy the hospitality of the Dahacks, those signing the guest register were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andre of Shady Cove; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Phelps of Azalea; Mr. and Mrs. Charley DeWalt and Mrs. Lela White of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanfield of Roseburg; Mrs. Myrtle M. Hiles and grandson of Riddle; Alva C. Bowman of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. George Schaeffer and children, Mrs. Elmer Stanley, Mrs. Howard Green and Oscar Williams, all of Canyonville; Robert and Armand Crisp of Sprague River; Mr. and Mrs. David Crisp and Mrs. Marie Archambeau of Milo; Mrs. Eula Rainville of Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard B. Proefrock, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Belcher, and Mrs. Mae Belle Zimmerman and Gary, all of Tiller.

Going-Away Party At Tiller Honors Donald Koten Family

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Koten and daughter of Tiller were the inspiration for a going-away picnic and party Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Clauson and children at the Tiller Ranger Station.

Forest Service personnel from the Tiller vicinity and their families, 78 in all, gathered for a potluck picnic in the Clauson yard. Rangers Hillard M. Lillgren and John O. Wilson presided as chefs at the portable barbecue grills. Covered dishes contributed by each family rounded out the delicious menu served buffet-style.

In the evening, guests enjoyed dancing and games in the rumpus room of the Clauson home.

Highlight of the evening was a pre-arranged series of questions asked by the Clausons, who are newly-arrived residents of the Ranger Station, and directed to the Kotens. The questions were for the purpose of acquainting the Clausons with their new environment.

The honored guests received a set of myrtlewood bookends as a going-away gift. The evening was concluded with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Out-of-town visitors coming especially for the event were Ranger and Mrs. Gene Carlson and two children of Steamboat Ranger Station, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hendrickson and two daughters of Roseburg, the latter family remaining overnight as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon R. Hille and family. Both visiting families formerly resided at the Tiller Ranger Station.

The Kotens plan to leave in mid-August for the East, making a leisurely trip in order to visit relatives. They plan to meet his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Koten, of Naperville, Ill., who will be vacationing at Three Lakes, Wis. They will also visit Mrs. Koten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schanabel, who live in Washington, D.C.

About September 5, they will arrive in Syracuse, N.Y., where Koten will attend State University of New York at Syracuse University, taking graduate study in forestry working toward a master's degree. They plan to return to Tiller next summer, and Koten will resume his work on the staff of the South Umpqua Ranger District.

Miss Carmen Cooper Wed In Pennsylvania On July 8

Miss Carmen Cooper, daughter of Roy T. Cooper of Winston, and Richard Rusnak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Rusnak of Johnston, Pa., were married July 8.

The double ring ceremony was performed in Holy Cross Lutheran Church of Johnston by the Rev. Paul Kishner, pastor. Attendants were Miss Edna Mae Steinke, cousin of the bridegroom, and George Johns of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and worked for two years as a student X-ray technician in Mercy Hospital at Roseburg. Upon his return to duty, he will be stationed at McCord Air Force Base in Tacoma, Wash. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

U. S. Navy Men, Families Enjoy Picnic Held At Park

The first local potluck picnic supper for retired U.S. Navy men and their families was held recently at Umpqua Park. The affair was arranged and organized by Chief Del Hockersmith and Chief Bob Lewis, Navy recruiters of Roseburg.

The event was termed a success. Attending were 24 retired Navy men and their wives and children, 80 in all, and all from Roseburg.

The many varieties of foods were arranged buffet-style on tables covered with white tablecloths. The two beautiful centerpiece were a large natural Cuban bamboo flower holder filled with colorful gladioli and an oblong mahogany dish from Haiti containing an exotic vegetable arrangement.

Following the supper, many gathered to watch interesting Navy movies shown by Chief Lewis, while others reminisced and exchanged sea stories.

It is anticipated that this will be a yearly affair.
