New Wheat Variety Announced Friday

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—Release of a new, short variety of wheat which resists lodging, smut and leaf and strip rust was announced Friday by agricultural experiment stations of Washington, Oregon and Idaho.
A limited amount of the seed will be available for commercial production in the fall of 1962. The new variety is a pastry-type white winter wheat with a common or long head and white chaff and beard.
The new wheat is expected to outyield Omar and Brevor wheat and can be grown in the same area.
It has a stem 6 to 18 inches shorter than either Omar or Brevor.

This feature is important in that there is less stalk to be cut. High wheat has a tendency to lop over and lodge and is difficult to harvest.
The wheat was developed by Dr. O. A. Vogel of the U.S. Department of Agriculture stationed at Washington State University.
A state allocations committee will meet in Pullman Aug. 24 to allocate the wheat to counties of the state on the basis of advance orders.
Growers will be asked to pay 10 per cent of the cost of the wheat, approximating 40 cents a bushel, with the balance to be paid when the seed is received in the fall of 1962.

They'll Be Off And Running In TV's Rating Race Soon

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—In just a few weeks they'll be off and running in the 1961-62 TV rating race.
Perhaps you couldn't care less, but up and down Madison Avenue they'll be a-tingle for the race to begin. You and I can tell at a glance whether a show is good or lousy. But the ad man never knows until the ratings tell him so.
As always, the main interest in the rating derby concerns the long-running, high-rated champions and whether they can be toppled from their thrones.

Here's how the races shape up: "Gunsmoke" is going double-barreled this season, expanding to an hour. That may or may not aid its chances of retaining CBS's Saturday night monopoly with "Have Gun, Will Travel." NBC is countering with an imaginative but potentially successful plan of offering old Fox movies. ABC is sticking with swinging Larry Welk and the fights.
Who can beat "The Untouchables"? Nobody, judging from the position: "CBS Reports" and NBC's "Sing Along with Mitch." Will the public continue to swing along with "Wagon Train"? Probably. CBS can muster only "Alvin and the Chipmunks" and "Father Knows Best" reruns. ABC is pitting Steve Allen against the Westerners; remember when he was NBC's choice to lick Ed Sullivan?

The unlikable Sullivan faces NBC's Walt Disney, who was earlier downed by "Wagon Train." This gets to be a round robin. ABC's sacrifice offering is "Follow the Sun," a South Sea adventure out of the 20th Century-Fox mill.
"The Rifleman" faces real trouble from Robert Young's new show on CBS, plus "The Price Is Right" on NBC.

Danny Thomas, the Satchel Paige of TV, seems to have easy going against ABC's potboiler, "Surfside 6" and something called "7th Precinct."
"The Real McCoys" faces some tough competition with the rejuvenation of "Dr. Kildare" on NBC and the third coming to TV of Robert Cummings on CBS.
Ratings, ratings, ratings. Everyone condemns them, but the television industry continues to live by them.
