

Pastor Asks Court To Oust Family From Congregation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Baptist minister, embroiled in a year-long feud with a family of three in his church, refuses to turn the other cheek. "I want them to leave," he says.

The Rev. Wayne A. Eurich, 41, pastor of the First Baptist church of Mar Vista, a Los Angeles suburb, went to court last week in an effort to oust the John H. Chapman family from his congregation.

He told Superior Court that the family had engaged in "unchristian conduct and abusive language" and had sung and read scriptures too loudly during services.

The court issued a preliminary injunction barring Chapman, 48, his wife, Betty, 38, and their daughter, Connie, 19, from using the church premises.

"We have nothing vindictive in mind," The Rev. Mr. Eurich said. "The affair began when Mrs. Chapman addressed the deacons of the church in an abusive manner concerning my denial to marry an underage couple until they had obtained a juvenile court order."

"Later, Mrs. Chapman sang during services at the top of her voice—off key. And she would read too loudly while the congregation was reciting the scriptures."

The Chapmans, represented by attorney Harvey N. Gedrich, denied the accusations.

"Mrs. Chapman says she did not use abusive language," Gedrich said. "We plan to appeal the injunction. We're going to fight to get the family back in the church."

"I think it's a perversion of Christianity to expel people from their church. The purpose of a church is not to chase people from it."

The Rev. Mr. Eurich contended in an affidavit that Mrs. Chapman's husband, who is a butcher, and her daughter joined in "disturbing the peace, tranquility and solemnity" of the services.

He said the congregation had expelled the Chapmans but they

Two Instructors Hired By Canyonville Board

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Routine pre-school matters occupied the Canyonville School Board at its regular meeting Monday night when two teachers and a head custodian were hired.

According to supt. Norman York, the board confirmed hiring of Ernest Defenbach to teach high school mathematics and science and Richard York, a recent graduate of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, to teach English. Robert Proctor was hired as head custodian.

The board accepted the bid of the Union Oil Co. for gas and rejected all bids for the old boiler. The board decided to give the boiler to a Winston party who will remove it.

In other business, the board inspected the newly-cleaned schools and the sewer installation as well as paying all routine bills.

Sutherland People Called To Wyoming

By BARBARA LIESINGER

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Terrel of Sutherland were called to Lander, Wyo., recently by the sudden death of a brother of Mrs. Terrel.

Parents Visited

Mrs. Richard Firman and daughters of Eugene are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith.

Mrs. Wayne Musgrove and children of Eugene are visiting at the John Musgrove home while Wayne chaperones the Eugene Soap Box Derby winner to Akron, Ohio, where he will compete in the national meet.

Overnight Visitors

Mrs. Walter Eichler and four children of Cave Junction visited overnight here at the Albert Jacobson home. One of the girls, Barbara, remained at the Jacobson home for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Willoughby and children, former residents of Sutherland and now of Eugene, spent a recent day here visiting friends. Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams were Mrs. James Lang and three children of Tacoma, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevenson and four children of San Jose, Calif. Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Stevenson are the Williams' daughters.

Mrs. Arta Terrel attended to business in Eugene last Friday.

Swimming Mishap Fatal To Portland Surgeon

PORTLAND (AP)—Dr. Frank E. McCaslin Jr., 33, a fracture and orthopedic surgeon, died in a swimming accident Friday night.

Witnesses said he dived into a private swimming pool at the home of a neighbor and did not come up.

Two sons, Frank, 9, and Robert, 6, jumped in and pulled him out. But he was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital. An autopsy was scheduled.

McCaslin is survived by the widow, Hazel; five sons; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. McCaslin Sr., of Portland.
