

READY FOR QUARTERING, and this man really knows how. Andy Landforce, wildlife management specialist from Oregon State University, is shown with one of his kills before he cut it up. He will be one of two featured speakers at a county Extension Service demonstration Friday at 8 p.m. in the county's Fairgrounds Community Building. He will tell hunters about field care of killed game, and Mary Fletcher, county home demonstration agent, will report on how to cook game.

Landforce Set To Show Field Care Of Venison

Fresh flavorful venison for the table starts with cool careful treatment in the field. With the opening of hunting season, Andrew Landforce, extension wildlife specialist at Oregon State University suggests correct procedure for caring for the meat.

Landforce will give helpful tips Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Community Building of the Fairgrounds.

Clean the animal as soon as possible and cool deer meat quickly—the faster the better. It's ideal, says Landforce, when the deer can be field dressed and hustled to nearby camp, home or a cold storage locker to be skinned. But for the many hunters who do not find themselves in such convenient surroundings Landforce continues his instructions.

Skin Animal

After cleaning the animal either skin it on the spot or move it back to camp and skin it—If the camp isn't too far away. If the dressed deer has to be dragged back to camp or the car, lace the carcass together with a heavy leather shoelace before dragging it over the ground. This helps keep sticks, weeds and dirt away from the meat. To skin, hang it in a tree, split carcass in half leaving the last neck vertebrae connected to help balance the halves while hanging. If no tree is available, remove the hide while the deer is on the ground.

Preferably let hang until meat is no longer sticky. Wipe with a dry cloth. This hastens formation

Maris' Homer Drive Stopped At 59 Mark

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Roger Maris' relentless assault on Babe Ruth's hallowed home run record ended in defeat Wednesday night, but in no way could it be interpreted as a failure.

The left-handed slugger, battling against almost impossible odds, missed matching the immortal Bambino's 60 homers in a 154-game season by the narrowest of margins—just one.

Trailing by two home runs with just one more game remaining, playing in a park which had throttled him in all 26 previous efforts, Maris not only walloped his 59th home run of the season but came breathlessly close to smashing two more.

Fortune And Flury Picked As Outstanding Prep Grid Stars

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press' Oregon high school football player of the week is Steve Geeren, 165-pound Eagle Point speedster who scored all of his team's points in a 33-0 rout of Cave Junction's Illinois Valley.

Geeren returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown, ran with an intercepted pass for another score and tallied from scrimmage on runs of 80, 20 and 3 yards. He made all of Eagle Point's conversions.

Fortune Listed

There were other heavy scorers during the weekend. Glenn Fortune registered 19 points for Glide, Don Elston 18 for Sweet Home, Marv Himmel 18 for Westfir, and Tim Casey made three touchdowns for Jesuit of Beaverton.

There also were some standout defensive performances.

Don Causey, an end, was in on 12 tackles, intercepted a pass, forced a fumble and blocked an extra point try as his North Salem team shaded Klamath Falls, 13-12.

Grants Pass coaches credited John Ripper of North Bend with preserving a 7-0 victory over their team. He batted down two passes that could have gone for touchdowns and tackled several Grants Pass runners who were about to score.

Flury Brilliant

Roseburg's Mike Flury was brilliant both ways in a 7-6 win over Springfield. He gained 95 yards on 23 carries, contributing some key runs in a touchdown drive. He also participated in 11 tackles and intercepted a pass.

Fullback Gary Collette was North Salem's offensive star in the Klamath Falls game. He cracked the line 29 times for 136 yards and scored one touchdown.

County's 'B' Gridders Set For Weekend

(See UVL Roundup, Pages 8 and 9)

A full slate of B games are on tap this weekend for the local teams — still only two of the six outings will be league affairs.

Camas Valley's Hornets and Canyonville's Tigers will be the only teams opening league play this weekend in B action when they host the Prospect Cougars and the Butte Falls Loggers in Southern Oregon B-eight man action. The Hornets and the Cougars will square off at 1:30 p.m. Friday, while the Tigers and the Loggers will clash at 3:15 p.m.

Other Friday games will find Yoncalla's Eagles traveling north to meet perennial power Harrisburg at 2 p.m., Elkton's Elks facing Crow at 1:30 p.m. before the home fans and the Powers Cruisers clashing with A-2 Pacific in an 8 p.m. game at Pacific. Saturday the Days Creek Wolves will battle the Westfir Loggers in a 1 p.m. outing at Canyonville.

Local Play

The Days Creek - Westfir game will be the only other eight-man game other than the two league outings to be played this weekend on the local scene.

The Hornets a strong favorite to repeat as league champs will be led by quarterbacks Ted and Terry Buel when they take on Prospect. Jim McGinnis, spint star at Camas Valley, will work from one halfback slot, while Terry Volkman will fill the other. In front of the experienced backs coach Bill Levins will have a veteran line which has helped the Hornets pick up a victory and a tie in two games this season.

Face Harrisburg

The Eagles of Yoncalla will have their work cut out for them as they face Harrisburg. The Eagles will be led by quarterback Dwight Pontius, who will be surrounded by a combination of backs chosen from Bill Thompson, Bill Wilson, Guy Palmer and Red Wiley. The Eagles currently have a 1-1 season mark, having lost to A-2 Riddle and beating Crow.

Elkton's Elks who battled to a 6-6 tie last week with Camas Valley will be out to get in the winners circle Friday at the expense of Crow. The Elks are stronger this year due to the return of many lettermen and the largest turnout in recent years. Leading the hard-running backs will be Tom Solein, Kenny Adams, Steve Madison, Darren McNeil, Chuck Swinehart and Joe Swinehart.

Third Try

Powers has had trouble at the hands of A-2 schools so far this year, but will try for a third time Friday at Pacific. The Cruisers, winners of the Bico-B 11 - man crown last year, will have Dennis Gretchell engineering the drives with his passing. Gretchell will have plenty of targets as the Cruisers are strong on veteran ends.

The home game in B action Saturday will be a non-league affair featuring the Wolves of Days Creek and the Westfir Loggers. Days Creek has some good running power in backs Danny Kinney, Fred Van Norman, Alan Helvey and Dick Bonney, but sports a green line which had trouble plugging the holes last week as the Days Creek squad opened on the short end of a 40-12 score.

Century's Feat

Had the two he barely missed been fair instead of foul, the crew - out blond from Raybonton, Mo., would have achieved the feat of the century.

Only two others had seriously threatened that mark — Jimmy Foxx and Hank Greenberg.

The crowd of 21,032, naturally devoted to Ruth, a native Baltimorean, gave Maris, 27, a standing ovation after he had sent a dribbler down the first base line on a checked swing in his last try.

Golf's Porky Oliver Succumbs To Cancer

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver, who started out as a caddy at the age of 11 and went on to become one of the leading professional golfers during the last two decades, died Wednesday of cancer. He was 46.

His wife, Clara, was at his bedside in Memorial Hospital when he died. Oliver had been in and out of the hospital since leaving the pro circuit nearly two years ago. He had undergone two operations.

FOOTBALL FOLLIES

Highlighting this week's "Football Follies" will be the guessperts' pick of the major collegiate games featuring west coast teams. The top games of local interest are the Syracuse-Oregon State and the Idaho-Oregon outings. Oregon seems to be a strong favorite, while Oregon State will go into its opener as an underdog. On the prep scene Roseburg is favored to down North Eugene, and Glide, Riddle, Sutherlin and Drain seem to be the favorite A-2's.

Cincinnati Edges Pittsburgh By Run

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Those amazing Cincinnati Reds, a questionable product in the National League race when the season began, have gone methodically about the business of trying to nail down their first pennant in 21 years with a potent patent on winning one-run games.

The Reds did it again Wednesday night, edging the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2 on Wally Post's two-run homer in the eighth inning for their eighth victory in the last nine games and a 34-14 won-loss record in one-run games.

The victory went to right-hander Joey Jay (21-8), the only NL pitcher with 20 wins, and reduced the Reds' magic pennant-clinching number to four over second-place Los Angeles. The Dodgers also won by a single run, nipping Chicago 3-2 in 13 innings.
