Farewell Dinner Honors Days Creek's Glenn Iszler

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Martin and family of Days Creek were hosts in their home for a farewell dinner for Glenn Iszler, who has since gone to Kansas City, Miss., to attend the Weaver Airline Personnel Training School.

The potluck dinner was held in the Martin yard with one long table which was set with many delicious foods. A beautiful cake with the inscription "God Bless You, Glenn" was served with ice cream by the hosts after the dinner. Games were played and visiting was enjoyed by all.

Glenn has taken a general correspondence course during the summer, to prepare for this training school, after receiving his diploma from the Days Creek High School for 1961. The training school will give a four-week practical course after which he will be eligible to work for an airline company. Glenn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Iszler of Days Creek.

Those attending the dinner to wish Glenn well were: Mr. and Mrs. James Lortie and Kathy and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and Carl and Ricky; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Matthews and grandsons, Marty and Gary Knight; Mr. and Mrs. Winston Smith and Shawn; the Rev. Alice May Woolley; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Quinn and Esther; Mr. and Mrs. Iszler and Sandra and Randy; Mrs. Lois DeWals and sons, Jerre and Don; Guy A. Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Art VanLeeuwen and daughters, Nanci, Sandra and Heidi; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hovey and daughters, Harriet, Helen and Doris; Mr. and Mrs. Durnin Swingley and Diane and Lyneve; Mrs. Ralph Martin and Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin and Marilyn, Linda, Colleen, Tim and Barry; and the host and hostess and Jerry and Karen.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Krell and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crume were unable to attend but contributed to gift which was presented to the honoree.

GLENN ISZLER, above, was honored at a farewell dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Martin and family of Days Creek, prior to his leaving for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the Weaver Airline Personnel Training School.

Bazaar Announced

One thing is certain in this unpredictable world and that is the annual Christmas bazaar to be held at St. George's Parish Hall by the Women of St. George's Episcopal Church. The theme of this year's event to which the public is invited is "Santa's Workshop."

Mrs. Harry Jacoby and Mrs. R. H. O'Neil are general chairmen for the affair. Mrs. O'Neil and Mrs. Laura Haugs are planning the morning coffee and noon luncheons. Menus for the latter will be announced soon. The hall will be decorated by Mrs. Floyd Warner and Mrs. Robert D. Spangler and their committee.

This year Mrs. Mike Gibbons is in charge of the neighborhood guilds, each to be represented at the bazaar with a booth displaying articles for sale. Let there be confusion due to the professional appearance of these items, let it be said that they are all handmade by the members of the nine guilds who have been as busy as Santa's proverbial elves for weeks and months.

The sale of delicacies and trifles will take place Thursday and Friday, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1st. More details will be announced.
