

Days Creek Boy Feted At Party

Larry Duncan observed his fifth birthday at a delightful party given by his mother, Mrs. Ralph Duncan, of Days Creek. Balloons decorated the room. A lovely birthday cake, decorated with "Happy Birthday, Larry" and pink candles was served the guests together with ice cream and punch.

Those present were: Randy, Ronnie and Roger Pritchett; Brad, Cheryl and Barbara Smith; Chris Cook, Camille Siebrecht, Cindy Lou, Pamela Holsclaw and the honoree.

Visting during the party were Mrs. Jimmie Pritchett, Mrs. Roy Duncan, Mrs. T. Smith, Mrs. Vernon Cook, Vera White and Mrs. Carl Siebrecht and the hostess.

Surprise Party Given

A group of friends from Days Creek surprised Mrs. Wallace Hovey at her home on her birthday. Cake and coffee were served and each presented the guest of honor a gift.

Those present were: Mrs. Parry Kline, Mrs. Bill Ward, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Don Rogers and Mrs. Jake Ast.

Harvest-Time Banquet Held For Youth In Melrose Area

A host of Melrose youth met at the Melrose Community Church Saturday night for a festive harvest-time banquet.

The room was gaily decorated in streamers of fall colors, and featured grapes, autumn leaves and a large illuminated harvest moon.

Glenn Goddard Jr. opened the evening's activities with the invocation. The first special number was an instrumental duet by Carol Isakson and Gerald Nickolaus who played "Shine On Harvest Moon" on their clarinet and trumpet. Rex Hutton followed with a bass solo, "Minstrel Boy." Judy Krohn played "Meet The Pilgrims" on the piano; Diane Gausnell did a pantomime as a harvest hobo; Jim Beecroft outlined the fall plans of the Melrose youth; a girls trio, the 3-Js, Jeanette and Joyce Niswonger and Jane Thompson, sang "Juana," and Harry Buckwalter sang a vocal solo entitled "Known Only To Him" prior to the devotional talk.

The young people sang several choruses and songs during the course of the evening. An American flag was spotlighted in the darkness during the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Curt Loewen, agricultural and shop teacher and assistant wrestling coach at Roseburg High School, was guest speaker. He spoke on the opportunities each youth has to harvest a full rich life by developing his latent abilities, his personality and his knowledge of God.

During the banquet, the young people contributed the cost of the National Youth for Christ magazine for one year as a gift for Joyce Morgan, who was ill and unable to attend the banquet. Tim Arensmeier was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Adults of the church and community furnished and served the ham dinner. Mrs. Don Isakson was in charge. Mrs. Ralph Arensmeier was head of the decorating committee and acted as hostess.

Adults at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Isakson, Pastor and Mrs. Glenn Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Loewen and Mrs. Arensmeier.

Pastor Davis closed the enjoyable program with a word of prayer.

Youth present for the affair were Glenn and Terry Goddard, Sandra Howard, Grant and Dianne Gausnell, Bob Wagon, Bob and Lori Manning, Bob McKnight, Jim Beecroft, Don and Victor Matson, Bill Miller, Cheryl and Connie Baleman, Donna Oliver, Karen, Norma and Charles Lash, Shirley Hughes, Bob Kinyon, Don Stringer, Pat Manning, John and Linda Wulf, Carol and Donnie Isakson, Mike and Jeffrey Johnson, Janice John, Jean Preschert, Teresa Hudson, Richy Eckley, Steve Sand, Harry Buckwalter, Jerry Bradford, Ronny Shipp, Bruce and Richard Rogers, Judy Krohn, Rodney Kinyon, Roberta Martin, Mary Hudson, Kevin Scott, Rex Hutton, Myrtle and Lyle Telgenhoff, Paul Hansen, Jane Thompson, Jeannette and Joyce Niswonger, Shirley Benliff, Cheryl Proctor, Tim Arensmeier, Ray Argo and Gerald and Richard Nickolaus.

Myrtle Creek Pair Recites Marriage Vows In October

The First Methodist Church of Myrtle Creek was the scene of the double ring marriage Saturday Oct. 28, of Sharon Kay Yarbber and Robert Francis Norton, both of Myrtle Creek. The Rev. Donald S. Campbell performed the 2 p.m. ceremony before close friends and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Yarbber, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned G. Norton, all of Myrtle Creek.

Large baskets of dahlias flanked the altar where the ceremony took place.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was charming in a white street-length dress styled with short sleeves and sweet-heart neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a coronet of nest pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white and pink carnation cascade bouquet with baby ivy streamers.

Nancy Ware, in a pink semi-sheer afternoon dress, was maid of honor. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

Roger Ware of Vandenberg AFB at Santa Maria, Calif., was best man.

After the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Yarbber were host and hostess at a reception held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The serving table was covered with ecru lace over a pink foundation.

Yoncalla Women Meet Thursday

A very interesting meeting of the Yoncalla Women's Club, which is affiliated with the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raphael Wise in Scotts Valley.

Mrs. Wise had charge of the devotions. Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey gave a very interesting talk on the "Origin of Music." Mrs. George LaGrandier was given birthday honors and received a beautiful plant from Mrs. Fred Merk.

Dr. Lydia Emery of Yoncalla gave a talk on "The Challenges of Life and Death in the Atomic Age."

Mrs. La Grandier invited the club to meet at the Drain City Hall for the next session.

Harvest Dinner Success

Between 60 and 70 were present for the Rebekah - IOOF Harvest Festival dinner held on Saturday evening at the Glendale IOOF Hall. A fund of $21 was raised for presentation to the state IOOF Home in Portland.

tion. Table decorations featured the three-tiered wedding cake which was ornamented with pink roses and silver leaves and topped with a bride and bridegroom under a heart-shaped arch. The gift table, covered with white linen, was lovely with its arrangement of white hollyhock candles, pink candles and pink roses.

Nancy Ware had charge of the gifts and Miss LaVern Ware presented the guest book. Mrs. Gary Spencer, cousin of the bride, laded the punch while Mrs. Leon Ashton, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake.

For going away, the bride wore a brown and white afternoon dress with white accessories. The newlyweds are now at home at 2907 Hilltop Drive, Napa, Calif.

Members of the Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club entertained their husbands at a most enjoyable potluck dinner party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey.

After the dinner, which was served at 6:30 p.m., the group enjoyed moving pictures shown by Bailey of his African safari and trips into Mexico and Canada. They also enjoyed viewing the many interesting items brought from the traveled areas.

Present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Decker, Mr. and Mrs. George Gluck, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Schneider, Mrs. H. P. Conn, Mrs. Martha Eskine, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell and Shirley and Steve and the host and hostess.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT LEWIS, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their impressive wedding solemnized Oct. 29 at Tri-City Presbyterian Church by the Rev. J. Elbert Nash. The bride, Florette Mary McGee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy McGee of Canyonville. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

Ceremony Unites Couple Oct. 29

The very lovely wedding of Miss Florette Mary McGee of Days Creek and Robert Garrett Lewis of Gardiner was solemnized Sunday, Oct. 29, at 2 p.m. Officiating at the double ring service in the Tri-City Presbyterian Church were the Rev. J. Elbert Nash, recently retired, of Myrtle Creek, assisted by the church's new pastor, the Rev. Richard Rohrbach.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy McGee, was a picture of radiance in a wedding gown of white tulle, which was fitted length with a chapel train. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline with appliques of embroidery and seed pearls reaching to waistline. The long sleeves ended in a V at the wrists. A large bow at the back of the gown was used to give a bustle effect. She wore a string of pearls which was a gift of the bridegroom.

Her full butterfly illusion bridal veil was white net held in place by a crown of seed pearls. Her slippers were of white satin. Her bouquet was a cascade of yellow roses, stephanotis and lilies of the valley carried over her mother's prayer book.

Maid of honor was Miss Ann Murray of Coquille, Delta Zeta sorority sister of the bride from Oregon State University, who was attired in a mint green street-length dress with lace bodice and tulle skirt with slippers to match. She wore a head band with veil matching the color of her dress. Her flowers were orange and yellow chrysanthemums tied with orange satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Preston of Riddle and Miss Joan Pierce of Portland. Their frocks, veils and flowers were identical to that worn by the maid of honor.

Miss Nancy McCoy of Riddle, sorority sister of the bride, was the candlelighter. Her street-length frock had an orange lace bodice and skirt of tulle with slippers to match. She wore a matching headband with veil.

The flower girl, Linda Pierce of Portland, was attired in a white organza dress with green sash. She carried a white basket filled with orange and yellow chrysanthemums.

Floral arrangements were two baskets of orange and yellow chrysanthemums, with a large arrangement of the same kind of flowers in the center of the window in the front of the sanctuary. Graceful yellow tapers were used in the candelabra. Burnt orange satin bows with a touch of green and yellow in the flowers on the bows were used as pew markers.

The bridegroom chose Dale Nelson of Reedsport to serve as his best man. Ushers were Harold Grubb, brother-in-law of the bride; Jerry Covault of Reedsport; Bill Skinner of Powers; and Floyd Rudy of Gold Beach.

As guests assembled in the church, Mrs. Dale Rushton played incidental selections on the organ. She also played the traditional wedding processional and recessional and accompanied the soloist, Howard Haymes of Canyonville, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because" after the bride's mother was seated and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service.

Preceded by her honor attendants, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage.

The bride's mother chose a jacket-sleeve dress of light beige brocade satin for her daughter's wedding, accented with a dusty rose hat, and a green orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a purple rayon jacket dress with matching hat and veil. Her corsage was a pink orchid. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Sabagard, was dressed in a navy blue afternoon frock with a white beaded hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.
