They were Arlee Stringer, Barbara Lee, Cheryl Hampton, Susie Mason, Dwayne Redwine, Barbara Roberts, Linda Swingen, Elaine Hornsby, Dian Fields, Donna Kinney, Sandie Theiss, Marianne Jones, Terry Butler, Linda Lee, Ginger McCauley, George Calahan and Allan Manual.

"Back to School" night was sponsored jointly by the Myrtle Creek High School and the Myrtle Creek Parent Teacher Association.

All girls entering the contest will receive a copy of "Betty Crocker's Guide to Homemaking," while the winner will receive a Homemaker of Tomorrow pin.

The state winner will receive a $500 scholarship and a trip to New York and one for her adviser. A $500 scholarship will be awarded to the state runnerup.

Sponsored by the FHA, Twirp Season included Clash Day, Blue and Gold Day, Sweat Shirt Day and girls carrying the boys' books to class and finally with a costume dance "Escape."

He also asked for any ideas on changes which should be made in the curriculum for next year. He pointed out several points to be considered in future adoption of a school budget for 1962-63.

Members completed a review of the School Board policy. At the next meeting they will consider additions to the policy in regard to policing of school properties and to matters pertaining to members of the teaching staff.

Members extended to high school and elementary teachers an opportunity to schedule a meeting with the Board. Each group is to set its own date and then invite the Board to attend. The evening will be spent in discussion between members and teachers, with none of the school administrators present.

Suzie Parker Is In Town To Make Her Fifth Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Suzy Parker is in town to make her fifth movie and her fourth comeback.

At least that's the way she sees it. But then, Suzy Parker sees everything in an offbeat, oddball kind of way, and who is to say that she is wrong and the rest of the world is right?

"I make pictures so seldom that they always say it's a comeback when I start a new one," she said over a champagne cocktail at Romanoff's.

"I can't help it if Fox wouldn't let me work. Do you realize that all I did for a year and two months was sit back in New York, doing my needlepoint and collecting a check every week? The money was getting to be rather ridiculous—$1,795 a week for doing needlepoint."

She bootlegged a copy of "The Interns" script and found the role of a fashion model who falls pregnant.

Restoration Of Girl's Sight Is Said A Miracle By Priest

SHERWOOD, Tenn. (AP) — "It was a miracle," said The Rev. Joseph Huske. "I know it."

That was his explanation of how 4-year-old Margaret Jackson suddenly found vision after three months of blindness in this Cumberland Valley town about 75 miles southeast of Nashville.

Doctors who handled the case were unavailable for comment. But Margaret could see again and laugh with the other children, her brown eyes sparkling, her pug nose full of tiny wrinkles.

The story came to light recently when a Nashville Tennessee staff writer, Rudy Abramson, learned of Margaret's recovery. He came to Sherwood to interview Margaret and Father Huske.

The little girl became ill and went blind two years ago. She was taken to Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville and examined for weeks. Several doctors thought the blindness was caused by lead poisoning. Few gave her parents, Johnny and Charlotte Jackson, any hope she would ever see again.

In time she returned to Sherwood and to the Epiphany Episcopal Mission where her father, a self-taught electrician, carpenter and mason, worked with Father Huske.

"Almost every time I went into the church, Johnny or Charlotte would be there," Father Huske said. "Sometimes both of them would be there with Margaret saying their prayers."

The Jacksons were still praying

23 New Pupils Arrive

Twenty-three new students have entered Roseburg High School since school opening.

One girl, Sirkka Helena Hanhineva, a senior is from Finland. She is living with her aunt and uncle for this school year.

Three girls enrolled since Monday, Nov. 20. Two are seniors and one is a junior. Thirty-two students have withdrawn since the beginning of school.

Club's Uniforms Arrive

Over 100 Roseburg High School pepsters received orange skirts and weskits Wednesday. The outfits were tailor-made in Portland and cost $21 each.

the following October when the leaves on the mountains around Sherwood started turning. Then one night Margaret became ill again, showing the same symptoms she had just before she lost her sight.

The girl was rushed to Vanderbilt Hospital a second time. But she was feeling better when she arrived and the doctors could find nothing wrong.

Back home once more, Johnny started to light a cigarette and Margaret grabbed for the match. The cigarette was forgotten. Johnny threw his arms around his small daughter and then began striking more matches.

"Every time, she would reach for them," he said. "After that, her sight gradually came back. Her left eye is a little weak now, but she doesn't even need glasses."

The three Jacksons have left Sherwood, Johnny was called into the Army and his wife and daughter recently went to join him at Ft. Polk, La.

But Margaret's "miracle" will never be forgotten by people in these parts.
