have purchased the Ferguson home. The couple came to the Ferguson ranch, near the R. L. Frame ranch, in October 1951, following their marriage in Roseburg. The new bridegroom had to carry his bride across the river when their car refused to run as he was lurching the river. There were no bridges in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Every and children have returned to their home at Myers Flat, Calif., after visiting at Days Creek with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burgin. Bill Moore is recuperating at his home at Days Creek after seriously injuring his right knee while hunting. He had been hospitalized for a few days at the Myrtle Creek Clinic and had used crutches when he returned home, but he is getting along without them now.

Christmas Programs, Services Planned By Canyonville Groups

Canyonville schools and churches are slating Christmas programs and services, reports Mrs. R. E. Proctor, correspondent.

The Methodist church school program will be held at 4:30 p.m., Dec. 17, with a nativity pageant and carols preceding a movie, "The Guiding Star." Refreshments will be served in the various rooms of the church school to the children, and to the adults in the large annex room.

Students of the Seventh-day Adventist School at Canyonville will feature their new band under the direction of Jim Church at their annual Christmas program to be held 7:30 p.m., Dec. 19. Mr. and Mrs. Merrier Crocker are directing the program.

Canyonville School's annual Christmas program will begin at 7 p.m., Dec. 21, and will include choruses and band as a background to four tableaux. Bill Johnson will direct the high school band and chorus and the elementary band while various teachers will direct their classes in the elementary chorus.

The assembly of God program will begin at 7:30 Christmas eve and will be directed by Mrs. C. J. Brent and the Sunday School teachers.

For those who enjoy midnight Christmas eve services, Canyonville Methodists extend an invitation to attend their annual candle-light service.
