

ROSEBURG FACES TWO TOUGH WEEKEND CAGE TESTS

North Bend Quint Invades Indianland In Play Tonight

Reaching the point where all their Midwestern League hoop games are crucial, the Roseburg Indians are set for a pair of weekend encounters.

Tonight the Indians will host the North Bend Bulldogs, then will travel to Eugene Saturday for an all-important outing against the North Eugene Highlanders. Game time both nights is 8, with the jayvee action set for 6:15.

KQEN will carry the play-by-play action of both varsity tilts this weekend.

The Indians, defending District 5-A-1 champs, are currently leading the league with an 8-2 record. However, Roseburg's lead is far from substantial. The Highlanders and the Marshfield Pirates rest only one-half game back with 8-3

Cocah Curt Jarvis has two of the best reserves in the state in Paul and Bill Brothers. Paul works under the basket, while Bill plays out in front giving Roseburg a trio of deadly guards.

Completing the list of reserves for the Indians are Jim Wasson, Don Lowe, Doug Lyda, Rich Bakala, Dick Burke, Bruce Long and Bob Manning.

North Bend will have Dick Krommings and John James at the forward positions, while veteran Larry Gregory will be at center. Chuck Seven and Dan Gebhardt will serve as the Bulldog guards. James is leading the Bulldog attack, and also gives them good height. He stands 6-3.

Leading reserves for North Bend include Mike Richardson, Ken Downer, Carl Albertson, Gale Holfert, Ralph Schriver and Sam Scavera.

North Eugene's attack is paced by 6-5 center John Franz. A veteran of two varsity seasons, Franz is a good shot as well as being a topflight rebounder. In the Highlanders win over the Indians, Franz pumped in 27 points and picked off 22 rebounds.

At the forward positions for the Highlanders will be Roger Lyman and Bill Thomas, while Wayne Allen and Ron Johnson work away from the hoop.

Top reserves for North Eugene are Bob Craven, Paul Michaels, Gary Schwieger, Jim Stedman, Jack Strayer and Ron Davies.

The tentative starting lineups for the weekend games:

records, followed by South Eugene with a 7-3 mark.

Eighth Place
 North Bend rests in eighth place in league standings with a 5-6 3-8 record. Still, the Bulldogs are capable of pulling surprises. They proved this by handing North Eugene its first loss. In an earlier game at North Bend the Indians posted a thrilling 53-51 victory.

North Eugene holds one of the two league wins over the Indians. It recorded a 59-55 triumph on the Roseburg boards Feb. 6. The Highlanders are rated as the No. 5 team in the state with a 13-3 record, while the Indians hold down the No. 7 spot with an overall mark of 10-6.

Starting at the guard positions for the Indians will be veteran play-maker Marv French and the team's leading scorer, Spike Moore. Moore is averaging 10.19 points-per-game for the season to hold a slim edge over forward Tom Hobbs. French ranks third in scoring with a 9.06 average.

Forward Slots
 Hobbs will be at one forward slot, while Ray Palm will be at the other one. Hobbs packs a 9.75 points-per-game average, while Palm has been hitting the bucket at an average of seven points-per-game. Palm and Hobbs also team up to give the Tribe a strong one-two punch on the boards.

Sophomore Pruce O'Neil is set to start at the post position. O'Neil has been improving with each game after returning to the lineup at the start of league play. O'Neil missed four practice games because of mononucleosis.

Indian Grapplers Face Lebanon On Saturday

Roseburg's Indians, fresh from a thrilling 23-21 wrestling victory over North Eugene, will take to the road Saturday to clash with the Lebanon Warriors.

Matches are scheduled to start at 6:30 p.m. at Lebanon.

The Indians boast a 7-3-1 record for the season, and have a respectable 6-1 mark in District 5-A-1 action. The Indians were undefeated in district matches until last week's 26-23 loss at the hands of the Marshfield Pirates. However, the Tribe bounced back Saturday to edge the North Eugene squad.

In District 5-A-1 action the Indians have notched wins over North Bend, Marshfield, South Eugene, Springfield and North Eugene, with the local defending district champs having beaten North Bend twice. In non-district battles the Indians lost to Grants Pass and Medford, tied Sweet Home and won over Crater.

Strong Team
 Lebanon is reported to be one of the stronger teams in District 5-A-1 and Saturday's dual meet promises to be a thriller from start to finish.

In the lightweight brackets the Indians will have Bill Weaver and Terry Hachler ready to go. The two lightweights have recorded nine wins between them, have lost 11 matches and Weaver has one 98-pound draw.

At 115-pounds the Indians will have their winningest boy in action — Steve Sand. Sand has won nine bouts, while losing only two. In the 123-pound tilt Ken Richman is ready to go for the Tribe as he

Terry Baker Chosen Oregon's Athlete Of Year During Bill Hayward Banquet Of Champions

PORTLAND (AP) — Terry Baker, Oregon State University's versatile and talented athlete, is Oregon's Athlete of the Year.

Baker was picked for the honor at the 14th annual Bill Hayward Banquet of Champions Thursday night. The reason — his performances as the Beavers' star football quarterback and as starting guard on the powerful OSU basketball squad.

He wasn't there to receive the award, which was accepted for him by his mother, Mrs. Laura B. Baker. Terry was with the basketball team, in Seattle for weekend games against the University of Washington and Seattle University.

Ranked 12th
 He was ranked 12th nationally in total football offense last season and holds 15 school football records. His prowess in the classroom makes him one of the top scholar-athletes in the country.

The Man of the Year in sports award went to Paul Durham, football coach at Linfield college, who guided his Wildcat footballers to the Camellia Bowl and a crack at the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship.

Linfield lost to Pittsburg (Kan.) State in that post-season game.

The main address at the banquet, at the University of Portland, was given by Woody Hayes, Ohio State University football coach. Barney Keep, president of the Oregon Sports Writers and Sportscasters Association, presented the awards.

CBS Scores Coup For Grid Telecasts In Next Season

NEW YORK (AP) — The Columbia Broadcasting System, pulling a coup unequalled in sports broadcasting history, owned the two biggest football plums available today — the exclusive television rights for the regular season games of the National Football League and the nation's colleges in 1962-63.

The network successfully bid a whopping $10.2 million Thursday for the Saturday games of the National Collegiate Athletic Association after last month agreeing to pay $9.3 million for NFL games. The network now will have a total expenditure of $19.5 million for regular season football games alone, during the next two years.

Biggest Package
 The college pact was the biggest single package ever paid on a per year basis, with the NFL pact second. The National Broadcasting Co., which made a losing bid of $8.8 million, is paying $20 million for a 3-year contract to present the World Series and All Star baseball games.

CBS was an absolute darkhorse in the bidding, with NBC figured to fight it out with the American Broadcasting Co. for the rights. ABC held the pact for the past two years, paying $6.12 million, and bid $8.7 Thursday.

The only other live football series is ABC's contract with the American Football League for its regular season and championship games. NBC, which lost two NFL teams when CBS signed its package deal with the pro league last month, owns the pro title game, and also has various post-season college games.

Surprised
 "We were surprised, thought not completely," a delighted Bill MacPhail, CBS' vice president in charge of sports, said afterward. "We thought the bid was a good one for we realize how popular the college games are. This makes us the top football network, and it's given us something we've always wanted."

Under terms of the NCAA television code, there will be 14 broadcast dates for each of the two years, an increase of one per year over the old contract. The first date this year is listed for Sept. 15. The series will conclude Dec. 8, the week after the Army-Navy game.

Bill Flynn, of Holy Cross, chairman of the NCAA television committee, made the announcement of the acceptance after each network submitted its price in a sealed envelope. The bids were one-shot affairs, and the committee debated several hours before announcing acceptance.

resting, winning play. Baker received the top award after a secret ballot of the judging committee at the banquet. He won over an outstanding list of finalist from various fields of sports: Steve Barnett, Oregon football; Pat Clock, Lewis and Clark, football and wrestling; Pat Conway, Oregon State, wrestling; Don Head, Portland, hockey; Jim Jarvis, Roseburg High School, basketball; Gene Oliver, Portland, professional baseball; Dale Story, Oregon State, distance runner; Jerry Tarr, Oregon, hurdler; Charlie Warren, Oregon, basketball.

Austrian Skiers Sweeping Titles In French Races

CHAMONIX, France (AP)—An amazing Austrian ski team that treats the Alps as a backyard playground is turning the World Ski championships into a private game of monopoly.

With four of the six races already run, the Austrians have claimed three gold medals, two silver and two bronze. France has won one first place and one second place. The best American showing has been a third place. No other nation has broken into the top three.

The Austrians showing continued in Thursday's giant slalom, sweeping the first three places. Buddy Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., led the four Americans, finishing fifth.

Egon Zimmerman swept down the twisting, 9,280-foot course in 1 minute, 38.97 seconds and finished just ahead of favored teammate Karl Schranz, who finished in 1:39.12. Werner was more than a full second back.

Jim Heuga of Tahoe City, Calif., was 12th. Billy Kidd of Stowe, Vt., was 15th and Bill Marolt of Aspen, Colo., 19th.

Only practice sessions are scheduled today.

The races went on as the World Ski Games. But Thursday night President Marc Hodler of the International Ski Federation announced the council had reversed itself and rescheduled the games at the world championships, subject to later approval by a special FIS council.

Lynch Ends Salary Dispute With Reds, Signs Contract

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Jerry Lynch, Cincinnati's most prized bench warmer and the acknowledged leader of baseball's pinch hitters, apparently struck a blow for the underpaid in his profession when he signed his 1962 contract.

The 31-year-old part-time outfielder signed Thursday, ending his salary dispute with the Reds that threatened to turn into a long siege when Lynch declared for equal rights among pinch hitters and relief pitchers.

He collected about $20,000 last season and although no salary terms were announced he likely received a fat raise. Lynch hit a fantastic .404 clip last year as a pinch hitter while appearing in 59 games.

Meanwhile, the New York Yankees lowered their unsigned list to four, including home run king Roger Maris, by signing pitcher Ralph Terry and infielder-outfielder Hector Lopez. Terry, 16-2 last year, got a $5,000 boost to $23,000.

The San Francisco Giants signed first baseman-outfielder Willie McCovey and pitcher Juan Marchal; the Milwaukee Braves lured pitcher Bob Hendley into the fold; the Baltimore Orioles linked rookie hurler Howie Stethers and infielder Jerry Adair; St. Louis signed pitcher Bob Gibson, outfielder Don Landrum and first baseman Jeff Long; Minnesota came to terms with first baseman Don Mincer, and Cleveland signed pitcher Gary Bell.
