Trailer Fire Causes Total Loss To Glendale Family

A family which lost its trailer home in a fire last weekend is staying temporarily with relatives this week.

The trailer house of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pinz of Glendale burned to the ground Friday, reports correspondent Mrs. G. B. Fox. The family is staying with Ted Dyer, a relative.

The blaze was discovered in a back room by one of the four Pinz children while the mother had stepped outside momentarily.

The oldest child, Buddy Lee, 3, carried out his 8½-month-old brother and with the other children, called his mother.

The Pinz family moved to Glendale a month ago and had the 48-foot trailer parked on property near the Cow Creek bridge just outside the city limits. Pinz is employed at a Roseburg service station.

Some insurance was carried on the trailer contents which were a total loss.
