

ANOTHER COOKIE EATER

MEMPHIS (AP) — The youngster squirmed and giggled so in his church pew that the whole family was embarrassed by his misbehavior. He defended staunchly that there was something dreadful wrong with his new coat.

And, by golly, he was right. A search conducted later in the privacy of home turned up a mouse in the lining nibbling on cookie crumbs left in the pocket.

the area in concert at Joseph Lane Junior High School.

The occasion is the second annual concert of the Roseburg Dramatic and Musical Art Association. Roseburg vocalist and instrumentalists predominate in the cast, with a sprinkling of arts from other localities.

Besides the display of musical talent, the audience will hear William Patton of Ashland, who will give the preface speech. Patton, general manager of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, has had much technical experience in theater, radio and television. His remarks promise to be among the highlights of the production.

Wayne Wagner is stage director and manager of the concert. Henry Alexander, another behind-the-scenes worker, will introduce Patton.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. The finale will be "The Stars and Stripes Ballet," directed by Ralph Patterson. The dance will be done to the music of John Philip Sousa.

Other performers will be Virginia Young, Faith DeBernardi, Ruth Ann Winston, Virginia Robinson, Georgiana Heup, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, Marshall Warner, Sharon Wagner, Leroy Hiatt, Carl Mollett, Jay Barrett and Wayne Wagner.

An art exhibit is scheduled, too, made up of paintings by members of the Roseburg Art Association.
