

OPENING the 1962 baseball season with the official toss Monday was President Kennedy who threw the ball out of D. C. Stadium. Ford Set To Start; JFK Retires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Kennedy has thrown his last pitch of the season, and Whitey Ford is set to fire his first today as the world champion New York Yankees start their campaign for a third consecutive American League pennant.

The President officially opened the baseball season Monday, throwing out the first ball amid the traditional pomp and circumstance in the national capital, then staying to watch Washington whip Detroit 4-1 behind Bennie Daniels' five-hitter.

Day Off

The two teams take the day off today while the remainder of the league raises the curtain with Baltimore at New York, Cleveland at Boston, Los Angeles at Chicago and Minnesota at Kansas City.

In the National League, Cincinnati is at Los Angeles, Chicago at Houston, New York at St. Louis in a night game, Milwaukee at San Francisco, and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh. The defending champion Reds held their traditional NL home opener Monday, losing to Philadelphia 12-4.

Daniels struck out seven and walked only two while driving in one of the Senators' runs. The Tigers scored when Al Kaline hit into a force play following singles by Jake Wood and Bill Bruton. Bob Johnson led a 13-hit attack with a two-run homer in the fourth inning off Don Mossi that put the Senators ahead for good, plus two singles.

Ford, the little southpaw who won the Cy Young Award as the outstanding pitcher in the majors last season after compiling a 25-4 record, will be backed by the powerful Yankee attack that numbers Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle among its home hitters. Shortstop Tom Tresh, filling the post vacated when Tony Kubek went into the Army, is the lone new face in the starting lineup. Left-hander Billy Hoelt (7-4) will start for the Orioles, who'll have rookie sensation John Boog Powell in left field, trade acquisition Johnny Temple at second and Jerry Adair at shortstop in place of Ron Hansen, like Kubek a member of Uncle Sam's forces.

Cleveland Rookies

New Cleveland skipper Mel McGaha will unveil rookies Ty Cline and Al Luplow in the outfield and send Dick Donovan (101-10 at Washington) to the mound against the Red Sox. Boston will go with Don Schwall (15-7), rookie of the year in 1961, and start newly acquired Ed Bressoud at shortstop. The White Sox, returning to the go-go formula that won the pennant in 1959, will have trade acquisitions Joe Cunningham and Charlie Smith at first and third base, respectively. Juan Pizarro (14-7) will handle the pitching, facing the Angels' Eli Grba (11-13).

Ed Rakow (2-8) is tapped for the A's starting assignment and will oppose Jack Kralick (13-11). The Twins, still counting on the potent bats of Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison and Jim Lemon, will go with an almost completely remade infield.

Beaver Nine Takes Ninth Straight Win

McMINNVILLE (AP) — Unde-feated Oregon State made it nine straight baseball victories Monday by beating Linfield, 5-4.

Harry Mendazonna's pop fly single scored the winning run in the ninth inning. It was the eighth loss in 10 games for Linfield, the 1961 Northwest Conference champion.
