Luis Molina May Tangle For Crown

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Undeclared lightweight boxer Luis Molina, who won notice and ranking with two victories in a week this year, figures he'll know Saturday night whether he's ready to challenge for the 135-pound title.

Home grown and home developed, the 23-year-old ex-Marine fighter veteran left-hander Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., at the San Jose Civic Auditorium in a nationally televised (ABC) 10-round.

"If I beat Lane, I'm going to Las Vegas and challenge the winner of the Joe Brown-Carlos Ortiz title fight," Molina declares.

He got his first chance before a video audience on short notice, Feb. 24, outpointing Texan Manuel Gonzales at Las Vegas as a substitute bout when the Brown-Ortiz match was postponed.

On Tuesday of the same week in San Jose, Molina had knocked out veteran Len Matthews in the first round. The victories were Nos. 18 and 19 for the little slugger who turned pro in 1959.

Ring Magazine lists Kenny No. 10 among lightweight challengers. The National Boxing Association has Molina ranked No. 4 among the junior welterweights although he can make the 135-pound lightweight limit.

Destruction Derbies Set For Portland

The sounds of crunching metal will be heard tonight at the Jantzen Arena in Portland as the first jalopy destruction derby of the 1962 season is scheduled for 7:30.

A field of over 75 junkers is expected to swing into action for the opener. Top drivers will include Johnny Chase, 1961 champ, and brother Jim, runner-up last year.

Sunday over 100 jalopies will be in action in a destruction derby at the Jantzen Arena. Time trials will be held at 1:30 p.m. and racing will get under way at 2:30. The events Sunday will include three trophy dashes, four heat races and two main events. The climax of the action will be the destruction finale, with the drivers mashing into one another until only one car is left running.
