Music Director Is Guest Of Beta Pi Chapter, ESA

Beta Pi Chapter 1991, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Leslie Heaton with Mrs. William Gildersleeve as co-hostess.

The educational program preceded the meeting and was presented by Richard Kaiser, music director at the Oakland High School.

Kaiser, who served with the 56th Army Band, was stationed at Camp Zama in Japan from 1955 to 1957. In addition to his many duties in the 56th Army Band he was also a leader of a Japanese choir. He showed a number of interesting slides taken at various places throughout Japan. Some were of the Pearl Farms south of Tokyo, some of the Neco Festival which is held in Neco, Japan in May of each year. A great many were of the Japanese temples and the colorful costumes worn by the Japanese. Some of the slides were taken in the homes of Japanese families. A very informative and interesting talk was given by Mr. Kaiser during the showing of the slides. Following the educational program refreshments were served on individual trays. Each tray contained a small Japanese parasol.

Chapter president, Mrs. Robert Stearns, conducted a short meeting following the educational program. The coming state convention to be held in La Grande in April was discussed. Also mentioned was the Founder's Day luncheon to be held May 5 at Ruth Bradley's Oak Tree Inn. The luncheon will be at 1 p.m. and is sponsored by the Douglas County Council. All chapter members in Douglas County are urged to attend.

Members present were: Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. Doris Neely, Mrs. Paul Schulze, Mrs. Donald Eickhoff, Mrs. Louise Stearns, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Don Ferguson, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Sam Henry, Mrs. James Runge, Mrs. Betty Adams, Mrs. William Gildersleeve and Mrs. Leslie Heaton.

Decorating Program Given For Junior Club Members

A very interesting evening was spent recently by the Roseburg Junior Woman's Club when Mrs. Harry Hanlon, program chairman and her committee, Mrs. Dennis Harman and Mrs. Larry Kvidera, presented a delightful program on interior decorating.

The film, "Your Home As You Like It," was shown. Dennis Harman from Carsten's Furniture spoke on "What to Look for when you Go Carpet Buying." Mr. Harman told of the different weaves and textures of carpeting and passed samples around for the members to examine. He also told about the various drapery materials and had samples of these to show. During the evening three lovely door prizes donated by Carsten's Furniture were given away. These were won by Mrs. Jack Snodgrass, Mrs. Don Cummins and Mrs. Paul Arrasmith.

The shadow boxes had been attractively decorated by Mrs. James Pratt and showed various accessories for the home.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served to members and guests by Mrs. George Grubb and Mrs. James Pratt.

Mrs. Wilson Long-Time "Umpqua Valley" Employee

Mrs. Howard Wilson, pictured here, has been employed in the housewares department of "Umpqua Valley" for 16 years. This dates back to the time the housewares department was added to Umpqua Valley Hardware in 1945.

To her many friends, Mrs. Wilson is known simply as "Bunny." She was born in Butte, Mont., and attended schools in that city. The family moved first to Couer D'lene, Idaho, then to Portland, Oregon and finally to Roseburg 17 years ago. Bunny was employed for one year by the J. C. Penney Co. before joining the housewares staff at "Umpqua Valley." Bunny says that she left Montana for the usual reason, winters that were too long and cold. Among her hobbies, she lists gardening, sewing and housekeeping. With her husband, Howard, who is a baker at Weber's Bakery, she resides at 2112 W. Foothill Drive. The couple has two daughters, both married and away from home. At present, Bunny is busy helping to move the entire housewares department into the "Umpqua Valley" Hardware location. This is a consolidation move that will offer new convenience to shoppers with all the hardware and housewares displays on one floor. Bunny invites you to stop in soon and let her help you with anything in housewares, gifts or small appliances. You'll find complete, high quality merchandise selections at "Umpqua Valley."
