Community News Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mandenhall have returned to their home in Roseburg, following a business trip to Spokane, Wash. over the weekend.

Elder and Mrs. H. S. Miller who came to Roseburg a few months ago to make their home, received word Sunday of the death of their daughter Myrtle (Mrs. Warren) Pierce in the Seventh-day Adventist mission hospital in Malumula, South Africa. The Pierces were married in 1927 and have worked as a team at teaching since 1933. Pierce was a teacher before that. He taught in the Adventists' Sutherland Academy in 1923. They were serving their third term as missionary-teachers in Adventist mission work in Nyassaland when Mrs. Pierce was taken ill and flown to the hospital in Malumula last week where she died Sunday morning of Cerebral thrombosis. She was the sister of Roseburg's Dr. William Miller, dentist.
