Riddle Teacher Is Delegate

By ERMA BEST

Mr. and Mrs. Guy McGee of Riddle were in Sacramento, Calif. the past weekend where Mrs. McGee, Riddle High School commerce instructor, was a delegate from the Oregon Business Education Association to the Western Business Association convention.

The association includes the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Oregon. Mrs. McGee was a panel participant for the Small High School Caucus, with the topic, "How Do We Improve Our Image of Business Education to the Public." The theme of the convention was "Progress, Politics, and Prediction."

Mrs. Fricke of Glendale substituted for Mrs. McGee on Monday.

Former Residents Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Worsham and son, Billy, former Riddle residents, now living in Santa Maria, Calif., accompanied by Mrs. Worsham's father, Walter Stokes, are guests this week at the J. L. Aikins home and visiting other Riddle friends.

Mrs. John Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dawson, and son, Scott, arrived recently from Bamberg, Germany, where they spent the past ten months with Hughes, who is stationed there with the Army. Mrs. Hughes and son traveled from Brammerhaven, Germany, to New York on the Alexander Patch, then flew from New York to Roseburg. Hughes is to be discharged from the service within the next month.
