Glide High Girls League Gives Tea, Fashion Show

A charming affair of the social season, was the annual Mothers Tea given by the Glide High Girls League Friday from 2:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.

The 150 guests were greeted at the entrance by hostesses, Diane Huseby, chairman; Glenda Anderson, Vicki Chandler, Jacklyn Keys, Carol James, Pam Holm, Donna Blane, Mardell Teter, Sherry James, Cheryl Huseby, Grace Ruhn and Jill Cunningham, all gowned in lovely spring frocks.

The theme this year was "Follow the Sun," depicting an average day in a girl's life. The tables were centered with unusual driftwood arrangements filled with lilacs. The hostesses served fancy cookies made by the home economics class.

The program opened with a well-coming address by Alda Brumbach. Music was provided by Terry Anderson and Donna Thompson, singers, accompanied by guitarist, David Scoville. An interesting skit was given by Tonya Wright, Judy Boone, Sherry James, Patrice Brown, Christie Wadsworth, Barbara Humphreys, Bonnie Coplin, Jeannette Spurgeon and Inez Long.

Highlight of the afternoon was the fashion show. Parading down the long ramp, a bevy of beautiful Glide High girls modeled lingerie, afternoon and evening dresses and sports wear, some made by home economics students and others from Miller's, Lowell's, Laverne's and the Style Shop in Roseburg. Shoes were by Sanders'.

Narrators were Judy Spurgeon and Virginia Gaylor. Models were Carol Wilson, Betty Stuart, Bev Bognar, Donna Weaver, Shirley Zeigler, Julie Morberg, Jeanne Hatfield, Joyce Hatfield, Norma Haas, Sharon Haas, Betty Ann Collins, Judy Frazier, Jeannette Spurgeon, Barbara Gaylor, Donna Thompson, Priscilla Evanoff, Claudia Melton, Zita Gilbreath, Melody Peckham and Alda Brumbach.

Over-all chairman of the successful event were Donna Weaver and Alda Brumbach. Advisors to the Girls League are Miss Patricia Mayo, Dean of Girls and Mrs. Helen Neal, home economics instructor.

Xi Omicron Members Enjoy Lumber, Welfare Reports

Xi Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi recently held two very interesting meetings. At the home of Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, the program on "The Lumber Industry" was given by Mrs. Florence Powell. She told of interviews with Fred Sohn, Bob Norton and Gene Krewson and their relationship to lumbering. Some of their experiences of the past were noted, along with their predictions for the future.

Mrs. W. George Krueger and Mrs. James Daugherty presented the program "Welfare" when the group was entertained at the home of Mrs. Powell. They spoke of their talk with Jack Summerfield of the local welfare office. Statistics on caseworkers, caseworker loads, and money spent for various types of assistance were cited.

During the business meeting plans were announced for the Founder's Day dinner at the Riverside Grange Hall.

The social committee announced plans for a luncheon honoring mothers to be held on May 12. The group voted to send Mrs. R. L. Wiley and Mrs. Neil Christian to the Beta Sigma Phi state convention in Eugene in May. Other chapter members are also planning to attend.

Refreshments were served following these meetings to Mrs. Don Metzger, a guest, and Mrs. Florence Powell, Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, Miss Joan Harper, Mrs. Harry Hill, Mrs. C. V. DeCamp, Mrs. Neil Christian, Mrs. Sid Domenech, Mrs. Craig Short, Mrs. John Horn, Mrs. Roy Holbrook, Mrs. Marcus Brown, Mrs. W. G. Krueger, Mrs. James Daugherty, Mrs. R. L. Wiley, Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mrs. Meredith Wilson and Mrs. Robert Triplett.

Women Of Moose Enjoy Program
