Benefit Parties To Be May 9th

Those planning to enjoy the Who's Your Hostess parties to be sponsored May 9 by members of the Douglas Community Hospital Auxiliary must have their reservations made (whether they have purchased tickets or not) in by Thursday, May 3, by calling either Mrs. George Luoma at OR 3-7020 or Mrs. Philip Johnson at OS 9-5553. Fourteen of the loveliest homes in the area have been opened for these charming parties.

Those planning to attend the luncheon only may do so, while those planning to play cards will remain during the afternoon social hours. May 7 is the date the guests lists will be published in the News-Review society, so that guests will

Surprise Shower Given

A surprise shower honored Mrs. Frank Richey at her home West of Canyonville Thursday. Friends gathering to surprise Mrs. Richey included Mrs. Jess Wilbanks, Mrs. Bud Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Duane Zufelt, Mrs. Darrell Neet, Mrs. Roy Morris, Mrs. Bill Dye, Mrs. John Terry, Mrs. Margaret Pack and Mrs. E. L. Naylor. Others sent gifts.

Following games and opening of gifts, refreshments were served.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES ALLEN PAGE, above, were quietly married by Judge Ward Watson at his home in Sutherlin April 14. The bride, Donna Dale Snyder, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Snyder, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Parker, all of Roseburg. Only members of the family of the couple attended the ceremony. Following a honeymoon to the coast through the Redwoods, Mr. and Mrs. Page are now residing at Westvue Court apartments in this city.

Afternoon Party Enjoyable Affair

Thursday afternoon the Camas Valley Knitting Club met at the home of Mrs. Orin Standley for a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Bill Battles. Mrs. Jack Hill had baked the birthday cake in the form of a rabbit. Mrs. Standley served refreshments to Mrs. Phil Standley and Mrs. Vic Standley, Mrs. Ormand Standley, Mrs. John Standley, Mrs. Frank Kinnan, Kathy, Keith and Kim; Mrs. Willie Knebel and daughter; Mrs. Irwin Knebel and Denny; Mrs. Jess McMaster, Mrs. Robert Cummings and Marcie; Mrs. Artie Amos and the honoree, Mrs. Bill Battles. Mrs. Battles received many lovely gifts.

Public Invited To Enjoy Fashion Show-Card Party

An interesting affair of May 1 will be the fashion show and benefit card party to be sponsored by St. Joseph's Altar Society at 7:30 p.m. at the Elks Terrace Ballroom. The public is invited and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Lonnie Denn at OR 3-8256 or Mrs. Robert Triplett, OR 2-3658. Miller's Department store will furnish the fashions.

Those playing cards are requested to bring their own playing cards. A special feature of the evening will be a Maypole dance by the first grades of St. Joseph's School.

Mrs. Duane Roles is general chairman of the affair with Mrs. Paul Jenkins in charge of decorations. Other chairmen include Mrs. Fred Hargis, refreshments; Mrs. Joe Taucher, publicity; and the following assisting ladies: Mrs. Robert Riehle, Mrs. David Tomashek, Mrs. Odella Jennings, Mrs. Agnes Jordan, Mrs. Paul Flood, Mrs. Rod Nevue and Miss Mary Recla.

Rebekah Lodge Has Initiation

At the recent meeting of Roseburg Rebekah Lodge 41, Bertha Bayliss, noble grand, presided at initiation ceremonies for four new members: Katherine Conn, Mabel Fanning, Katherine Berry and Vera Crowley.

Fifty-seven members and seven visitors were present for the beautiful ceremony. Elva Chambers of Camas, Wash., was one of the visitors.

Katherine Conn received a Rebekah emblem pin as a gift from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson. Alice Goff made the presentation.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall where the tables were decorated with arrangements of white and lavender lilacs.

Hostesses for the occasion were Nellie Siples, Mattie Gosnell, Alice Larson, Elsie Mills and Ella Lane.

Coles Of Umpqua Married 44 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cole of Umpqua were honored at a lovely dinner party to celebrate their 44th wedding anniversary Saturday at the Carver Hamilton home. It was also the birthday of Mrs. Cole.

The table, with its gay floral centerpiece, had places set for Mr. and Mrs. Victor Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eggleston, the guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. Carver Hamilton.
