6 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Tues., May 1, 1962

Kathleen Rogers Now Mrs. Deedon

Large baskets filled with white carnations and iris and decorated with blue bows were used with the traditional candelabra for the wedding March 28 of Kathleen Rogers and Gordon Larry Deedon, both of this city. The double ring ceremony took place at 3 p.m. at the First Christian Church, James C. Smith, minister, officiating. The bride is the daughter of John and Laura Rogers of St. Helens. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. Deedon of Roseburg. The bride was given in marriage by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bridgess. She was charming in her wedding gown of embroidered nylon organza. The dress was styled with a wide square neckline, long tapered sleeves with button closures at the wrists and empire waistline set off with a wide satin ribbon forming a bow in the back and streamers the length of the chapel train. The back of the bodice was designed with a V-neckline with small buttons down to the hipline. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion tulle was held in place by a small pearl crown. Her flowers were three white phalaenopsis orchids with velvet leaves, net and white satin knotted ribbons making a cascade from a white Bible given to the bride as a gift from the bridegroom. Sharon Bridgess was maid of honor, wearing blue lace over chrome-spun, fashioned with a scoop neckline, short sleeves and pleated wrap-around skirt. She wore a matching blue picture hat and white accessories. Her bouquet was a cluster of white carnations and blue lace. William True was best man. Roger Boucock acted as usher. John Stewart was ring bearer. Monica Cave was flower girl, wearing a full-skirted frock of blue nylon with seed pearl smocking. Her basket, styled as a partially opened umbrella, contained white carnations. Mrs. Deedon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold brocade jacket dress with black accessories and a corsage of gold cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Bridgess, acting for the bride's mother, wore a magenta sheath, pink hat and cymbidium orchid corsage. Her accessories were black. Mrs. S. Clarence Trued played the organ and accompanied vocalist Wayne Mosher, who sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "Wedding Prayer." Mr. and Mrs. Bridgess were host and hostess at a reception catered by Mrs. Irene Jackson and held at the church hall following the ceremony. The table was covered with a white satin cloth and had appointments of crystal. The two-tiered colonnade cake was white with blue trim. The cake was cut by Mrs. Coral Hamm and Mrs. Veloris Baxter.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON LARRY DEEDON pose for their wedding picture following their marriage March 29 at the First Christian Church. The bride, Kathleen Rogers, is the daughter of John S. and Laura Rogers of St. Helens, Ore. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. Deedon of this city.
