

Yoncalla Women's Club Has Progressive Dinner

The outstanding social event for members of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club took place Thursday afternoon, when the club entertained the girls of the senior class of Yoncalla High School and their mothers at a luncheon, held in the fireplace room of the Methodist Church.

The large room was artistically decorated with large bouquets of purple Japanese iris and bridal wreath. The dining tables held low bouquets of purple iris and bridal wreath and tall lighted tapers. Mrs. Harold Boucek, chairman of the entertainment committee, did the decorating and made beautiful corsages for each senior in the school colors, purple iris and yellow satin ribbon.

Mrs. Dan Russell, president of the club, in a few chosen words welcomed the guests, and Mrs. Ruby Thomas, school teacher, responded. Mrs. W. E. Cabaness had charge of the devotions.

Following the luncheon a group of high school boys played several instrumental numbers. Boys performing were Guy Palmer, Roger Russell, Dennis Carney, Terry Edin, Mike Latham, with music instructor M. McGuire directing. Roger Russell played a fine trombone solo accompanied on the piano by Mary Thompson.

Mrs. William Carlson introduced the guest speaker Mrs. H. G. Eckman of Roseburg, vice president of the A.A.U.W.; vice president of the league of Roseburg Women voters, and a graduate of Chicago University. She gave an inspiring talk on "The Intellectual Challenge of Young Women Today."

The senior girls introduced their mothers and told of their plans for the future. Misses Donna Rogers plans on entering the Civil service work; Earlene Lee expects to be married this summer; Donna Churchill expects to attend Linfield College this fall; Cheryl

Bjork will attend Bible College; Francis Huntington plans on entering the U. of O. this fall; Waneta Woolman will be married in June; Mary Nuckles plans on going to college; Jan Herring will enter the Service; Darlene Sheldon's plans are uncertain; Delphia Gardner will enter the Service; Mary Thompson will attend U. of O.; Pat Boling plans on marriage; Pat Cogswell will attend Southern Oregon College at Ashland; Merrill Emery was married in January and will be a home maker; Vivian Payne will be married June 2nd.

Mrs. Harold Boucek, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. George Langrand, Mrs. William Cool, Mrs. Irene Sparks, Mrs. Clarence Luce, Mrs. June Dodd, Mrs. Tobbiason, Mrs. Jerry Everley, Mrs. Paul Woodcock and Mrs. Paul Woodcock Jr.

Guests enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. H. G. Eckman of Roseburg; Darlene Sheldon, Mrs. Jan Herring, Opal Herring, Mrs. Vern Williams, Cheryl Bjork, Mrs. Arne Bjork, Donna Church, Mrs. Emmitt Churchill, Donna Rogers, Mrs. Susan Matson, Waneta Woolman, Mrs. Worth Woolman, Pat Cogswell, Mrs. Leonard Cogswell, Mrs. Ruby Thomas, Vivian Payne, Mrs. John Payne, Delphia Gardner, Mrs. Owen Gardner, Merrill Emery, Mrs. Phoebe Wales; Francis Huntington, Mrs. Collis Huntington, Mary Thompson, Mrs. Marvin Thompson, Pat Boling, Mrs. Mildred Boling, Earlene Lee, Lorene Jo Lee and twenty members.

Mrs. Fred Merk incoming new president invited the club to meet at her home at a potluck picnic dinner in her beautiful patio. Students from the eighth grade will be present and give a report on their recent educational tour. The new officers will be installed at that time.

Memories Are Recalled At Club's May Luncheon

Memories of 47 years were recalled Thursday as members of the Garden Valley Women's Club met for their annual May luncheon. Mrs. Lyle Bostwick presented a review based on the contents of minute books and an old scrapbook. The club was organized May 14, 1915 by Mrs. John Sinclair. In the early days, as it is now, the club's main purpose was for the betterment of the community and the members.

The Riverside Happy Hour club gave two readings of original poems by Mrs. W. C. Bailey. One was a tribute to the charter members of the Garden Valley Women's Club while the second was a tribute to Mrs. Kittie Winniford. Mrs. Winniford always makes a pint carton of homemade candy for everyone attending.

Another highlight of the luncheon was Mrs. Dan Blehm of Cloverdale who sang "Trees" and "God Bless America."

Table settings of mixed spring flowers were arranged by Mrs. Clem Schneider, president of the club. The program was also arranged by Mrs. Schneider. Among those attending were two of the four remaining charter members, Mrs. W. D. Hess and Mrs. Peter Sinclair. Others attending

Shower Party Given On Friday

Mrs. Bruce Manning of Glendale was honored at a pink and blue shower held Friday evening in the Chapel of the Glendale Assembly of God Church.

The room was appropriately decorated with streamers of pink and blue strung from the center fixtures to the corners of the room and hung with miniature pink and blue crepe paper diaphanous.

The serving table was decorated to represent a garden scene. The table was edged with a dainty white picket fence, and pink and blue flowers bloomed on the white table cloth. Several cakes were served, including one made and decorated by Mrs. J. D. Shepherd, which was topped by a baby rattle of frosting and by tiny rosebuds, all carried out in the pink and blue color scheme.

The shower was sponsored by the ladies of the Assembly of God Church. Mrs. Norval Sheppard had charge of the decorations.

Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Al Fotheringham, Mrs. Lee Pate, and Miss Alma Grace Hutto of Canyonville.

Those present included Mrs. Clyde Lott, Mrs. Norval Sheppard, Miss Kay Hubler, Mrs. Lucy Perry, Mrs. Chester Saltee, Mrs. C. D. O'Roke, Mrs. Tom Tomerlin Sr., and Rita; Mrs. J. D.
