

Two Negro Mothers, 20 Children Aboard Buses For Hyannis Port

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Negro mothers and their 20 children were aboard buses today on the way from Little Rock, Ark., to Hyannis, Mass., where a selectman termed such "reverse freedom rides" a cruel hoax on trusting people.

It was the largest Negro group sent to Cape Cod by the segregationist capital Citizens Council since the start of the one-way ticket north campaign.

Mrs. Victoria Bell, 36, and her 11 youngsters were put aboard a bus Sunday by Amis Guthridge, president of the sponsoring Citizens Council. In addition to providing tickets costing $307, he gave her $60 for spending money.

Mrs. Bell said she was separated from her husband and unable to find steady work in Little Rock. She hoped to obtain a job as a presser for a commercial laundry in Massachusetts. The children with her ranged in age from 2 to 14 and included 3-year-old twins.

About five hours later Lela Mae Williams of Huttig, Ark., and her nine children were escorted to a bus. Guthridge paid the $206 fare and also presented her with $60 for expenses.

Mrs. Williams said she applied for the free passage because she was out of work as a domestic helper and wanted to find a full-time job.

At Hyannis, Selectman E. Thomas Murphy said, "We'll do our best to care for them. But if this keeps up and we have to put people on welfare, the state will have to take some sort of action. We just can't keep on this way."

Three Negro men reached Hyannis earlier from Little Rock. Two Negro couples and their five small children arrived Saturday on one-way tickets provided by the White Citizens Council at Shreveport, La.

Murphy said the White Citizens Council program which sent Negroes to Hyannis was "a cruel hoax on these trusting people."

The Rev. Kenneth R. Warren, minister of the Barnstable (Mass.) Unitarian church, said, "The people who saw the group arrive Saturday were shocked. They are being used in a heartless way and this word has got to get back to the people of the South so they won't allow themselves to be used in this way."

The minister said the couples had been led to believe housing and jobs were waiting for them because "of the lies told by the White Citizens Council. It was an awful blow to them to find Hyannis is just a small resort town without manufacturing or facilities to provide for them."

MATT B. SOARES, Wilmington, Calif., holds his first-prize winning frog, "Native," as he is awarded the prize and $300 by Miss Calaveras County, Pat Steffen. Native won the annual Calaveras County Fair frog jump here Sunday with a jump of 11 feet 9 1/2 inches. Poster at left is that of author Mark Twain, who first wrote of a frog jump. Oregon's frog failed to qualify for the finals with a leap of only 6 feet, 11 1/2 inches. (UPI Telephoto)

Man Who Quit U. S. For Russia Back Home Tired, Disillusioned

ZELIENOPLE, Pa. (AP)—Robert Webster, who gave up his American citizenship in the Soviet Union in 1959, has returned home disillusioned and tired but with hopes of undoing "the wrong I did."

Webster, 33, a former plastic technician in Cleveland, Ohio, arrived at Greater Pittsburgh Airport from New York Sunday night. He rode some 20 miles by taxicab to Zelenople where he went into seclusion at his father's home.

Webster, who left his wife and two children behind when he defected after going to the Soviet Union in 1959 to set up a Rand Corp. plastics exhibit in Moscow, said he would take any job he can get.

James Rand III, president of the Rand Corp., has said he felt a responsibility for Webster and would attempt to get him a job, though not with Rand's own firm.

Webster, wearing the same blue suit he bought in Cleveland and wore to the U.S.S.R., said he had no immediate plans except that he wanted "to rest a little." He told newsmen he was confused and tired. He also appeared nervous.

In New York he told newsmen he hoped for a reconciliation with his former wife, Martha, who has divorced him.

The U.S. Embassy in Moscow said it was informed Webster left behind a Russian girl and her baby in Leningrad when he returned to this country.

Webster said he is in America to stay.

"I missed my children and family and wife, of course," he said. "They treated me well in Russia but I don't want to go back."

Webster, who worked as a plastics technician in the Soviet Union with a salary he termed equivalent to $500 a month, said he had made a big mistake and wanted to rectify it.

Webster turned in his passport and renounced his U.S. citizenship in October 1959. Three months later he applied for a permit to re-enter the United States but was refused.

He is here on a Soviet passport which, he said, is for an indefinite period. Webster must seek American citizenship in the same manner as foreign-born immigrants.

Kennedy Boosts Demo Treasury In Appearances

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy filled Madison Square Garden twice in a weekend visit to the Democratic party and a still undetermined amount of support for his medical care for the aged plan.

He also dedicated a $40-million dollar housing project, and visited five times with his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, who is recovering from a stroke at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Heat waves from the city's hottest day of the year thus far reached 99 degrees — were still rising when Marilyn Monroe gave her sultry rendition "Happy Birthday" at a "birthday salute" to the President in the Garden Saturday night. He becomes 45 on May 29.

Miss Monroe was among the array of theatrical talent that participated in the 2 1/2-hour show for the celebration.

Kennedy threw away most of a prepared speech to join in the birthday party spirit. He stayed until 2 a.m. at a private reception attended by many of the performers.

Persons attending the Garden celebration paid from $10 to $1,000 a seat, with the proceeds going to the Democratic party.

Kennedy attended a private Mass on Sunday morning with his 73-year-old father and his oldest sister, Mrs. Sargent Shriver. The mass was said in the living room of "Horizon House," a cottage on the grounds of the institute.

A cheering crowd estimated at 20,000 attended the dedication Saturday of the West Side housing project, which was sponsored chiefly by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Military Service Set Wednesday For Hintz

SALEM (AP) — Military funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. PST Wednesday for Maj. Gen. Alfred E. Hintz, the commander of the National Guard's 41st Infantry Division and adjutant general of Oregon.

Hintz, 56, died in an Oregon City Hospital Saturday shortly after being stricken at Camp Withycombe, Clackamas, where he had just delivered the commencement address to the Oregon Officers Candidate School's graduating class. He suffered a heart attack.

Earlier in the day he had reviewed the Armed Forces Day Parade through downtown Portland.

After the military funeral in the Salem Armory auditorium there will be private burial services at Willamette National Cemetery.

At all National Guard installations in Oregon flags will be flown at half-mast.

Gov. Mark Hatfield, who appointed Hintz adjutant general in June, 1959, said, after his death: "General Hintz gave totally of himself in war and peace. His leadership of the Oregon National Guard and the 41st Infantry Division during the past three years has earned high recognition for Oregon. He was a soldier's soldier. A grateful state extends deepest sympathy to his family."

Oregon and Washington National Guard units made up the 41st Division, of which Hintz took command Oct. 1, 1959 under the arrangement that rotates the command between the states every four years. Since then he has lived at Camp Withycombe. The widow, a son and four grandchildren survive.

It is the second time in less than four years that an Oregon adjutant general has died in office. Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Rilea, his predecessor, died in February, 1959.

Hintz joined the Wisconsin National Guard in 1929, beginning his military career.

In 1933 he enlisted as a private at Portland in the Oregon National Guard's 218th Field Artillery. He was promoted to second lieutenant in 1938.

By the time the 41st Division was called into active service in 1940 he had become a first lieutenant.

During World War II he served in the regular Army as a captain. After that war he returned to the Oregon National Guard. He was promoted to brigadier general in 1958, and the major general in 1960.

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (X-ray) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.
