

Education Chancellor To Address Seniors

Roy E. Lueallen, chancellor of the Oregon State System of Higher Education, will address 280 graduating seniors of Roseburg High School at commencement exercises June 4.

RHS Sophs Hold Show Of Talent

Members of the Roseburg High School Sophomore Class held a talent show last week in the school auditorium.

The show was in competition with previous shows put on by the Junior and Senior Classes to earn points for a Class Cup to be given at the end of the year, according to the high school.

John Burnham played the part of an astronaut who was the guest of a queen, Kathy Kieth, and princesses Ann Walton, Jo Van Krevelen, Barbara Butler, Beth Orjala, Lynn Andes, Jennifer Babbitt, and Nancy Monk.

Dennis Frank played the part of a greeter announcing the names of each participant. One of the highlights of the performance was an instrumental duet with Dwight Anderson playing the guitar and Rick Keasey on the drums.

Andy Chitwood, Jim Roemer, John Erickson, and John Cox did a pantomime of the "Twist." Mario Savage sang "Soldier Boy" and Barbara Martin sang "Getting to Know You."

Toni Perkins New Pepster President

Toni Perkins, a junior, is new president of the Roseburg High School Pepsters.

Other new officers elected in a recent club ballot were Marilyn Fisher, sophomore, vice president; Mona Lyons, junior, point chairman; Lois Horton, junior, secretary; Nancy Randow, junior, treasurer; Louise DeMoisy, junior, roll chairman and Linda Langley, junior, sergeant-at-arms.

Adviser of the club is Susan Borders, RHS physical education teacher.

Sewing Lessons Ready For Summer Locally

Sewing lessons will be given beginning June 12, to approximately 30 girls, in the Roseburg High School Homemaking Department.

The lessons will be sponsored by the Roseburg Singer Sewing Machine Co., and will be open to Douglas County girls in the age group of 10 to 21 years.

Several sessions will be held during the summer consisting of eight 2½-hour lessons, twice a week for a month.

During this time, those taking the lessons will complete a garment and then have a chance to enter a local contest. They will model their garment and one person from each age group will be chosen to compete in a regional contest in Seattle.

CUP AWARDED — Elisa Thomas, junior at the University of Oregon, received the Gerlinger Cup for 1961-62 at an all-campus sing May 22, during the annual junior weekend. The award is given annually to the outstanding man and woman in the third-year class.

was temporarily interrupted by the war when he served two years destroyer duty in the Navy.

Between 1946-55 he held several positions at Oregon College of Education. In 1955 he became OCE president and held that post until recently when he was named to his present post.

Four graduation activities head the final week for seniors. The senior banquet May 31 is followed by Honors Night June 1. These events are followed by baccalaureate on June 3 and commencement on June 4.

Commencement program will also include talks by co-valedictorians Terry Watters and Carol Hetrick and salutatorian Marvin French.

Many local churches will be represented at baccalaureate services on June 3. Ministers taking part include The Rev. Allen G. Ingerbraten of Faith Lutheran Church, The Rev. H. James Jenkins of First Methodist Church, The Rev. James C. Smith, of First Christian Church, The Rev. Glen Davis of Melrose Community Church, The Rev. Robert D. Hempel of the First Church of the Nazarene, and The Rev. Alfred S. Tyson of St. George's Episcopal Church.

Music for commencement and baccalaureate exercises will be supplied by the vocal music department and instrumental selections will be given by members of the RHS band.

Wed., May 23, 1962

Oakland President Is Valedictorian

The valedictorian at Oakland High School this year will be Norman Baird, who is graduating with a 1.08 over-all grade point.

During his four years at Oakland High, Norman has been active in Science Club, Nu Delta and National Honor Society. He was student body president this year.

Sharing the roles as co-salutatorians are Cheryl Petersen and Patsy Wilson.

Cheryl is a transfer this year from Centennial Union High School. She has been active at Oakland as a member of Nu Delta, Student Council, triple trio, National Thespian Society, chorus, National Honor Society and Oakland Honor Society. She was girl of the month in October.

Patsy, girl of the month in December, has been active in Nu Delta, Science Club, chorus, triple trio, National and Oakland honor societies. She won an acting award of merit from Pacific University and has appeared in several dramatic productions during her senior year. She is editor of the school year book.

Play School Set At Roseburg High

Roseburg High School sophomore girls, under the direction of Mrs. Corinne McTaggart, homemaking instructor, will conduct an annual play school for children between the ages of 3 and 5 which began Tuesday.

There will be two sessions with different dates and times. Tentative dates for the sessions are:

Session I, from 8:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. Tuesday, Thursday and May 29 and 31.

Session II, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. today, Friday, Monday and June 1.

According to Mrs. McTaggart, no charge will be made for the classes.

Douglas Drill Team To Become Separate Unit

The Douglas High Student Council recently passed a petition allowing the Drill Team to become a separate organization from the Pep Club.

In the previous two years, in order to be in the Drill Team, each girl also had to be a member of the Pep Club. The members of Drill Team decided this year that they preferred a separate organization with its own constitution and by-laws.
