

World's Fair is Bustling, But It Has Its Quiet Spots

The Seattle World's Fair, a busy and bustling city within a city, also has its quiet spots.

Dotted around the Fair grounds are retreats where one can commune, philosophize, read, soul search or just escape from the modern world.

If you would like to commune with nature, there is a small mountain lake amidst the aroma of a cedar forest with a running stream, alpine firs, ferns and sculpture.

Oregon Stresses Quiet

It is the exhibit of the State of Oregon.

If you want to meditate, there is a black, white and gold chapel where one can find religious communion.

It is at the Christian Witness Pavilion.

If you would just like to sit in complete peace surrounded by fresh flowers and a bubbling brook, go to the Christian Science Pavilion.

If you want to listen quietly to music, it's at the R.C.A. exhibit in a display room where the latest classical and high grade popular music is played on a hi-fi in a silent atmosphere of red carpets, white modernistic furniture and cool green plants.

Escape Possible

If you would like to escape in the dark through movies, you can go to Hawaii via the C & H Sugar Exhibit; on a tour of the scenic Northwest via Nalley's Food Exhibit; to the forests of America through the Forest Products Industries Exhibit and to life in the year 2000 through the courtesy of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

If you just want to browse, try the library of the future—Library 21—in the Washington State Coliseum. It has a complete selection of books of all types.

In a soft yellow room across from Library 21, you can relax and read up on the latest business, trade and government publications.

It is the Business Service Center of the Department of Commerce.

Try The Lounge

If you just want to sit and talk, try the lounge on top of the Carnation exhibit. It is colorful with its white wire furniture and modernistic display of the Carnation products.

If you want to sit and watch the world go by, in the middle of the Fair by the Plaza of the States is the lounge of the Canadian Pacific Airways. One can sit there and see the international flavor of the Fair.

But, if you really want to "get out of this world," try the Boeing Cinemas Spacearium in the U. S. Science Exhibit. It takes you into other galaxies.

Coordinating Council Meets In Sutherlin

The Sutherlin Coordinating Council of Sutherlin Parent-Teacher groups held its first annual meeting at the West Elementary School Monday and elected officers for the school year of 1962-63. Representatives from all five parent groups were present, according to Mrs. Jerry DeMuth, correspondent.

Mrs. Alma Lou Stubbert, president of the junior high P.T.A., was elected president of the council. The Rev. Harold Robbins, president of the high school P.T.A. will serve as her assistant. Secretary of the group will be Nancy Laswell, president of the West Elementary P.T.A.

Meetings are held at the beginning and near the end of each school year. The group was organized to assist in communication, standardization of policy recommendations and scheduling of activities for each of the member parent-teacher groups in the Sutherlin school system. Members of the committee are local P.T.A. presidents, or their appointed representatives, and administrative personnel within the school district.

The initial activity of the group will center around coordinating the reception held for the teachers early in the school year. Dale Cannon, principal of the West Elementary School is to act as the general chairman for the event.

Mrs. W. K. Osborn, of Rosalia, Washington, has been nominated for the office of vice president from Region VII of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers—for election at its convention May 20-23 in Portland, Oregon. Region VII covers Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming. If elected, Mrs. Osborn will succeed Mrs. George Tonkin, Jr., of Boise, Idaho.

Soil Stewardship Week Set By Gov. Hatfield

SALEM (AP)—Gov. Mark Hatfield called attention Wednesday to May 23-June 3 as soil stewardship week which has as its theme, "Water—the stream of life."

"Water is the universal liquid of life and a part of our very being," Hatfield said. "It is everywhere around us, in the air and earth."

"Our future depends upon our wise use of water and other God-given natural bounties."

Davis Family Of Tillier Attends Family Reunion And Visits Fair

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERLY

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and children have returned to their home at Tillier following a week's trip to Washington, where they visited the Seattle Fair and spent some time with relatives.

Principal At Sutherlin Honored By Selection

Because of the outstanding science exhibits from the Douglas County Regional Science Fair, Dale Cannon, principal of the West Sutherlin Elementary School, has been selected to make the state awards in the intermediate physical division, according to Sutherlin Supt. Raymond Mullen. Awards will be made at a banquet to be held later in the year at Portland.

Trail Ride Taken

A Sunday trail ride was undertaken recently by the Doug-Etts at the Bob Murray ranch at Glendale. Taking the ride were Bette Murray, Louise Kring, Elizabeth Arthur, Gertrude Sherlock and Hazel Jameson. Allen Sherlock was guest rider.

More Out-Of-State Tourists At Capitol

Nearly four times more out-of-state tourists visited the Oregon State Capitol in April than in the same month last year, a report from the Oregon State Highway Department said today.
