Kennedy Opens U.S. Doors To Many Chinese Refugees

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has cleared the way for the admission to the United States of thousands of refugees from Communist China. Their exodus from Hong Kong is expected to start within two weeks.

Kennedy invoked emergency powers Wednesday to lower the normal immigration barrier to Chinese. The move, said U. S. officials, should help ease pressures in the British crown colony and also might encourage other countries to take similar action.

British authorities have turned back more than 50,000 hungry refugees since May 1. From 4,000 to 5,000 crossed over early today and were detained.

Another estimated 8,000 to 10,000 have slipped by the British, further crowding conditions in the colony, and the British say they cannot absorb any more.

There was no sign today that Communist border guards were attempting to stem the flow, although frontier residents reported Wednesday that Chinese guards had fired warning shots after shouting orders to waiting Chinese to return to their homes.

W. L. Harden, an assistant U. S. immigration commissioner, is on his way to Hong Kong to supervise handling of the refugees in cooperation with American consular officers in the city.

Kennedy told a news conference that "there are several thousand refugees in Hong Kong and surrounding areas who have been cleared by our consular people for admission to the United States." The normal quota for Chinese immigration is 105 a year. Thus, some of those who have been cleared have, in effect, been standing in line for years.

"We are attempting to expedite their admission to the United States under the power given to the attorney general by the (immigration) legislation, the same legislation which has permitted us to bring in Hungarian refugees (in 1956-57) and Cuban refugees," Kennedy said.

The first group to be admitted according to present plans, will be relatives of Chinese already in the United States.

The President said his action will not "get at the basic problem" of refugees pouring into Hong Kong. He noted that Communist China is a nation of 650 million and that its food supplies are inadequate.

Kennedy said the United States has been providing food for about half a million refugees in Hong Kong for several years.

Asked why he thought the mass outpouring of the last few weeks had developed, Kennedy cited a combination of factors, including a severe food shortage and possibly political considerations.

Kennedy said the Chinese Communists have not given any indication that they would like to receive food supplies from the United States. Should the issue of supplying food to Red China arise, he said, "We would certainly have to have some idea as to whether the food was needed and under what conditions it might be distributed."

Administration officials said they did not know how many refugees from Communist China may eventually be brought into the United States. The general estimate ran into thousands.

Kennedy Takes No Compromise Stand On Care

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has made his no-compromise stand on medical care for the aged more emphatic than ever. He insists on weaving it into the Social Security system. He says the public wants it that way.

Firing another broadside at the American Medical Association Wednesday, Kennedy repeated his prediction that Congress will adopt his plan this year if it reaches the House and Senate floors. And he contended that despite AMA opposition, "more and more doctors are supporting it."

Kennedy heatedly attacked the AMA and Republican critics of his medical care program at his news conference—a conference dominated by his strong views on the big legislative controversy of 1962. The questioning elicited these comments and charges:

Kennedy said he does not plan to follow up his current proposal for payment of hospital, nursing home and outpatient bills with a plan to cover doctors' bills. He accused critics of talking through both sides of the mouth. They criticized it one day, he said, for "going too far in limiting the relationship between doctors and their patients, and on another day attacked it for not including doctors."

AMA spokesmen have denounced the plan as "a cruel hoax," Kennedy said the association used the same words in unsuccessfully opposing Social Security in the 1930s. The AMA may not support this bill, he said, "but I think the American people will, and I think more and more doctors are supporting it."

Would he accept a compromise that omitted Social Security financing?

No, he replied, Social Security is the heart of the bill.

"That isn't a compromise. That would be just giving up on the bill and we don't plan to do that."

Solon Lumber Meet Is Set For Portland

PORTLAND (AP)—The Senate Commerce Committee has decided not to switch the location of a June 4 hearing on lumber market problems from Portland to Eugene, Ore.

The Lumbermen's Economic Survival Committee said Wednesday it had asked the committee to switch the location, but Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., told them it would not be done. "We are greatly disappointed that with two weeks remaining before the hearing, the committee will not shift the location," said Dave James, chairman of the lumbermen's committee.

"The June 4 hearing," he said, "should be at a location where those people and communities who are most affected by the loss of their markets and income to Canadian lumber manufacturers will be able to appear."

Timber operators in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and California are represented by the survival committee.

California Man Resumes Walk To World Fair

As long as a man can be grateful he never will be unhappy.

That is the philosophy of Ruby Erickson, Californian who early today resumed his trip, on three legs to the Seattle World's Fair.

Erickson, who lost one leg in World War II in 1944, has been staying in Roseburg at a local hotel since Sunday, enjoying the comforts of a modern bed, bath facilities and good food.

But he was off again on his journey today, ready to endure the hardship of walking and sleeping along the highway whenever he feels the mood.

But Erickson doesn't consider such life as a hardship. He started out from Sacramento and has averaged about 10 miles every 24 hours, taking breaks for roadside naps and to eat as he chooses.

"It's a bit difficult traveling against traffic at night," he said. "Worry to Police."

Erickson laughingly remarked that he has been a source of worry to passing motorists and officers, seeing the one-legged man lying along side the highway. They think he has been struck by a car and injured.

He stated that he has been offered many rides but has rejected them all, preferring to complete his journey the way he started, on one foot and two canes, with metal straps that hold the canes to his arms.

Erickson is a veteran of both world wars, and has traveled over much of the world. He came to the United States from his native Sweden at the age of 18 years and is a graduate of Northwestern University. He excelled in sports and was in the 1912 Olympics. He is impressed with Oregon and its absence of "nuisance" sales tax.

Sutherland School Sets Rhythmic Fete

Sutherland East Elementary School will present its annual Rhythm Festival on the outdoor blacktop area between wings of the school Friday at 12:30 p.m. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Georgia Clarke.

The program with the theme, "Rhythm, U.S.A.," will feature each of the rooms in various dances and rhythms symbolic of the past and present in areas of the United States.

All parents and friends of the school are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Jerry DeMuth, correspondent.

In the event of rain, the Rhythm Festival will be held in the high school gym.

Awards Due
Award assemblies for East Elementary and Sutherland Junior High schools have been scheduled for Friday and Monday, respectively, according to Richard Scott, principal of the schools.

A number of awards including honors for scholastic, athletic, music, writing, and special achievement will be given to students from grades one through six on Friday at 10:30 a.m. in the high school gym.

Letter awards in track and baseball will be presented by Coaches Don Fenn and Tony Brown in the junior high assembly, which will begin at 12:05 on Monday. There will also be awards of trophies and certificates in the annual scholastic contests, music awards, and the presentation of the trophy for the most improved student.

John Glenn Is Named 'Father Of Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—A man acclaimed for doing a good job above the earth today was honored for doing a good job on it. Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. was named the nation's "Father of the Year."

Although Glenn, as the first American to orbit this planet, has been as far away from his family as any man ever had been, he was rated tops as a family man by the National Father's Day Committee.

It also praised his courageous performance in his orbital flight last Feb. 20, and "his modesty in insisting that the honors heaped upon him belong to the space program itself and not to him personally."

The committee cited Glenn's "rare gifts of intellect, charm and daring" and called him "America's newest hero in its quest for peace and universal freedom."

He and his wife, Anna Margaret, have two children, John David, 14, and Carolyn Ann, 13.
