BEVERLY BROOKE

Wedding Of Interest

The marriage of Miss Nancy Bodin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bodin, former residents of Roseburg, and Jerry Schear of Cameron, Mo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Schear of Hampton, Iowa, took place New Year's Eve in Portland at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheetz.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gale Hency, pastor of The Church of God. The traditional wedding music was played by Miss Ida May Howatt, George Bishop was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown styled with scoop neckline, elbow-length sleeves and bell skirt. Her short veil was of French illusion. She carried a shower bouquet designed by the bridegroom, of white chrysanthemums, white carnations and red roses. She was attended by her mother, and the bridegroom's father served as his best man.

A bridal dinner was served by the hosts following the ceremony which was planned as a surprise to the 60 invited guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Henninger of Roseburg.

The bride and bridegroom honeymooned in California before returning to Cameron, Mo., where Jerry owns and operates the Cameron Greenhouses at 615 S. Walnut.
