WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today takes up a compromise $1.5-billion public works bill while attention in the House focuses on the opening of a subcommittee's hearings on the Billie Sol Estes case.

The start of a House Government Operations subcommittee's hearings into Estes' tangled affairs provides the major committee activity of the week. The probe seeks to determine if influence in government helped the financier erect a large financial empire.

Major Senate committee activity includes continuation of Finance Committee hearings on an omnibus tax bill.

Three Persons Die In Oregon Crashes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three persons were killed in weekend automobile crashes in Oregon.

A Saturday accident killed Raymond Ellis Shull, 27, Coquille.

Sunday crashes killed Mrs. Laurel Virginia Strandholm, 35, Milwaukie, and Earl Paul Green, 21, Newberg.

State police said Mrs. Strandholm was killed when the small car she was driving careened out of control three miles south of Salem and plunged into a ditch off the Salem bypass.

Green was drowned or suffered fatal injuries when the car he was driving plunged off state Highway 240 and into a shallow creek just west of Newberg.

The Saturday crash occurred on state Highway 42, a mile north of Coquille. A car driven by E. N. Tams of Coos Bay overturned and threw Shull, a passenger, to his death. Tams escaped injury.

That increased the traffic death toll in Oregon to 151 for the year and 31 for May in the Associated Press tabulation.

NLRB Tells Stand On Election Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board ruled 3-2 today it will deny from now on a bargaining rights election bid by either party to a labor contract no matter how long the contract runs.

The decision amends the board's general rule that labor contracts serve to bar new bargaining rights election petitions for only two years.

The new rule was made in a case involving the Montgomery Ward & Co., Inc., catalog store at Covington, Ky. The company filed a petition for an election, contending Retail Clerks Local 1099, AFL-CIO, no longer represented a majority of employees.

The petition was filed in the third year of a five-year contract agreement. The board last November had granted the Montgomery Ward election petition, but today's split decision reversed the earlier ruling and established the new rule.

The board majority ruled: "We cannot interpret our contract bar rules in such a way as to permit employers or certified unions to take advantage of whatever benefits may accrue from the long-term contract with the knowledge they have an option to avoid their contractual obligations and commitments through the device of a petition for an election."

Millionaire Is Walking To The Fair In Seattle

Walking to the World's Fair at Seattle is getting to be quite the thing, and several persons are out to prove that the fair is within walking distance of anyone.

The latest walker to visit Roseburg is Herbert H. Hasche, 62-year-old millionaire, who is walking from San Francisco. He started May 9 and hopes to arrive at his destination by July 4.

Hasche is one of four men selected from 700 applicants who accepted an invitation to qualify for a $1,000 prize with all expenses paid to make the 1000-mile trek to Century 21. A Seattle business concern, Sick's Raintier Brewing Co., is sponsoring the walkers.

TAKING members of the crew of the Everyman, a pacifist sailing trimaran, into custody Saturday on the high seas were U. S. Marshals armed with warrants. The U. S. Coast Guard overtook the boat as it sailed toward the Christmas Island nuclear testing site used by the United States. Three crewmembers were sailing in defiance of a Federal Court order. They are Hal Stallings, Dick Yoes and Ed Lazar. Lazar resisted and was lifted bodily into the longboat. (UPI Telephoto)

Big Cake Baker, Daughter Will Graduate Next Month

NEW YORK (AP) — John D'Amico, 29, and his 5-year-old daughter, Michele, are both graduating next month—from college and from kindergarten—so he is going to bake a cake to celebrate.

When D'Amico bakes a cake, it's liable to be a weighty celebration. One cake he baked some years ago weighed 2,000 pounds.

The cake-baking will be on the order of a last fling for D'Amico, who is shifting his interest from one kind of dough to another.

A former pastry chef, he is graduating from Long Island University with a degree in business administration.

Michele will be graduating from the St. Joseph's parochial school kindergarten.

The darkly handsome D'Amico, a former student at Food Trades High School, worked as a pastry chef in the Navy. On his discharge in 1954, he opened his own bakery but sold it a year later when he decided to seek a higher education.

To support himself, his wife and their two children while attending college during the day, D'Amico worked nights as a bookkeeper.

He said he hasn't yet decided on a design for the cake he and his daughter will share, "but for an occasion like this, you can be sure it'll be a beauty."

The last time D'Amico took really special pains on a cake-baking project was when he was aboard the aircraft carrier USS Leyte. The captain asked for a big cake to mark the 12th anniversary of the Waves, and D'Amico obliged.

He came up with a 9-foot cake in the shape of an anti-aircraft carrier that weighed 2,000 pounds.

'Everyman' Crew Member Arraigned

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pacifist Ed Lazar, charged with resisting arrest for his refusing to voluntarily leave the ban-the-bomb vessel, the "Everyman," was arraigned Sunday before U.S. Commissioner Donald B. Constance.

The pacifist was wheeled into court in a wheel chair. He refused to walk from his jail cell into the hearing room.

Lazar, 27, and two other crewmen set sail Saturday aboard the 30-foot triple-hulled vessel on a proposed protest voyage to the Pacific where the United States is conducting nuclear tests.

A federal judge had issued an injunction against the sailing.

A Coast Guard cutter overtook the craft 18 miles at sea and ordered its crewmen to return to San Francisco. Skipper Harold Stallings and radio engineer Even Yoes, both 30, protested the order but left the vessel.

Lazar refused to leave and marshals hauled him bodily aboard the cutter.

Two Americans From Red China Report Quiet On Communist Side Of Border

HONG KONG (AP)—Two Americans arrived from Red China today and reported complete quiet on the Communist side of the border across which thousands of Chinese refugees have swarmed in recent weeks.

Mary Downey and her son William of New Britain, Conn., came from Peiping where they had visited Mrs. Downey's other son, John. He has spent 10 years in a Red Chinese jail serving a life sentence on spy charges.

William Downey said they saw no sign of any refugees during the 95-mile train ride from Canton to Hong Kong. Thousands of refugees rode the train to the frontier between May 1, and last Friday when Communist guards tightened border control.

"Everything looked normal to me," William said.

He added that the train they rode was not crowded.

Downey said during his 1,200-mile, 13-day trip he saw no evidence of starvation or political unrest that might have touched off the refugee exodus.

He said Peiping's residents appeared adequately fed and clothed. The refugee flight caused no political disturbance that he could discern.

"No one looked shabby in Peiping," he said. "They are not dressed as stylish as in a large Western city, but no one is in rags and tatters."

Downey said there was no immediate prospect of John Downey being released, but that he had appeared in good spirits. He requested only that he be sent more magazines.

"He looked very well," said Mrs. Downey, who has made four trips since 1958 to see John, who the U.S. government maintains was convicted of trumped-up charges.

Downey, an Army civilian employee, disappeared during the Korean War on what the Army said was a routine flight from Seoul to Japan.

The Peiping government charged that Downey and Richard Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., were shot down Nov. 29, 1952, while flying over Manchuria to drop supplies to anti-Communist agents.

Fecteau was sentenced to 20 years.

Khrushchev Praises Carpenter During Opening Of Italian Fair

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev, opening an Italian industrial fair, today praised American astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter and said the Soviet Union now is not alone in the cosmos.

Khrushchev said Carpenter displayed great courage and fortitude in government helped the financier erect a large financial empire.

Major Senate committee activity includes continuation of Finance Committee hearings on an omnibus tax bill.

The Italian fair was held in the pavilion built by the United States for its big exhibition and bought afterward by the Soviets.

Khrushchev severely criticized the American fair, which he said had made the worst possible impression on the Russian people "because there was nothing but propaganda in it."

He complained that the kitchen in which he debated with Vice President Richard M. Nixon was a propaganda fake.

"The kitchen was created to surprise Russians," he said. "But it did not."

He scoffed at the scientists who directed the latest flight for the incident when Carpenter's space suit heated up.

"They couldn't give him any better advice than 'Drink as much water as possible,'" he said.

Orbiting of the new unmanned satellite—Cosmos 5 — was announced by Tass, the Soviet news agency. Tass said it is a routine device and functioning normally, the fifth in the Cosmos series which the Soviet Union started March 16.

Bob Delorme, a junior, designed a plaque to show the amount of points accumulated by each class during the year. This is on display in the front hall of the main building.

This competition is an annual event. Last year's winner was the freshman class.
