

MISS HELEN CASEY and Mrs. Paul Jenkins, pictured above, presided at the beautifully appointed table at the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary annual membership coffee held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Forrest on SE Kane Street. Pictured below attending the affair were Mrs. John L. Hurrell, standing with Pink Lady Mrs. Roy Casebeer, and seated Mrs. Dudley Walton and Mrs. Thomas Scholl. (News-Review Photos).

Timber Town Winners Told

Timber Town Duplicate Bridge Club met Monday evening. Winners for North-South players were Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. H. N. Butler, first; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Molschenbacher, second; William Pritchett and Verden L. Hockett, third, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bevans, fourth.

East-West winners were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, first; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, second; Dr. Robert Goulding and Walter Ulrich, third, and Mrs. Walter Fisher and Raymond Borden, fourth.

The club meets every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. Those desiring more information or assistance in securing partnerships are asked to call either Mrs. Walter Ulrich or Mrs. John Davenport.

Teacher Hostess At Lovely Party

Thursday afternoon Miss Mara Barrow, a Camas Valley second grade teacher, had the children from the first grade room as guests for a little party. First they were shown slides that were taken throughout the year of the different children and others she took at the World's Fair in Seattle.

After seeing the slides they went to the cafeteria, where the first and second grade students presented Mrs. Markham with a lovely potted azalea. Mrs. Markham is retiring after serving as cook in the Camas Valley school for the past nine years.

Refreshments were served by the hosting second grade students and their mothers and their teacher, Mrs. Pearl Qualey.

Engagement Announced

— Mrs. Jerry Mottox, Glide, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marilyn J. Thompson, Glide, to Gregory G. Jenkins, Rt. 4 Box 750, Roseburg, son of Carl Jenkins, Sacramento, Calif. The bride-elect, who was graduated from Glide High School in 1961, is employed as a receptionist and bookkeeper by Suiter's Building Supply. The bridegroom-elect, who was graduated from Douglas High in 1960, is with the Bureau of Land Management. The wedding has been planned for July. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

Winners Reported For Sunday Play

The Roseburg unit of the American Contract Bridge League had nine full tables in play at the winners game held Sunday at the Umpqua Hotel.

First place winners were Dr. and Mrs. James Harris; second, Leon McClintock and R. A. Jones; tying for third were Mrs. Ray Carrio and Mrs. W. B. Herriott and Mrs. Walter Ulrich and Mrs. John Davenport; and fifth, Mrs. R. A. Jones and Mrs. L. E. McClintock.

Society

Golden Wedding Observed Sunday

One of the loveliest events of the month was the open house held for Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ekstrom, when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home Sunday. Friends and relatives called between the hours of 1 and 5 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Deckert, with the assistance of several women, had made arrangements for the affair.

For the honored couple, festivities began with a breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aamot, followed by attendance at the early worship services at Faith Lutheran Church. Mrs. Aamot had baked a special wedding cake that formed the centerpiece for the serving table. The cake, decorated with pink roses and gold leaves, was flanked by two crystal candelabra holding six gold candles. Another cake was decorated in corresponding colors. Both cakes were topped with the numerals, "50," in gold. Punch was served from a crystal bowl placed on a gold and glass serving cart. On the serving table were a few conversation pieces, gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson and Mr. John LaBrenz and Mrs. Marvin Quist were in charge of the kitchen.

The bride of 50 years was radiant in a pale green dress of lace over taffeta; her corsage was of yellow carnations. Mrs. Ekstrom is a native of Astoria and the couple was married there on May 18, 1912.

Born in Sweden, Ekstrom began an adventuresome life, when at the age of 14, he signed on a sailing vessel as a cabin boy. Eventually he landed in Portland, and after his marriage worked in the Astoria area until he and his wife came to Roseburg to retire in 1955.

Many items resulting from half a century's union as husband and wife had been placed about the rooms. Framed photos, a green plush family album, Mrs. Ekstrom's baptismal gown, a hand-drawn profile of Mr. Ekstrom and some precious glassware were among the items admired.

Signing the guest book and bidding the couple happy returns of the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aamot and Vicki, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Deckert, Mr. and Mrs. John LaBrenz and Carole, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Samuelson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Quist, Mrs. Bertha Ault, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Springer and Bruce, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Michalek, Tom and Bill Michalek, Mrs. Allen Ingebritsen, Mrs. Sadie Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Salmonson, Sharon, Linda and Mary Salmonson, Sherman Mowery and Eugene.

Victor Backlund, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Quist, Mrs. C. W. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson and Mary, Mrs. Ruth Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hukari and Becky, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Huston, Mrs. Lela Trumble, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Olivant, Mrs. Warren Schwartz and Cheryl, Mrs. Robert Kent and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brenden, Patty and Mary Ann Waterfield, Mrs. Vernon Graham and Douglas of North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Petersen of Eugene and Mrs. H. B. Abbott and Mary and Mrs. J. H. Schosso, all of Yoncalla.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne, Tenable, announce the engagement of their daughter, Wilma Ruth, to Charles Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rhodes, Roseburg. Miss Payne is a student at Douglas High School and Mr. Rhodes was graduated from Roseburg High School and is employed by South Stephens Emco Service Station. The wedding is planned for the summer of 1964.

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary Membership Coffee Enjoyed

One of the loveliest affairs of the week took place at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Forrest on SE Kane Street, when the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary annual membership coffee took place.

Mrs. Porter Linnhart and Mrs. Joseph Linspa were co-chairmen of the enjoyable and successful event. Gorgeous arrangements of pansies, calla lilies and other spring blossoms formed the spacious room decorations, while the serving table was covered by an exquisite Italian hand-made cloth and centered by an elaborate arrangement of iris and daylilies.

Mrs. Paul Jenkins had charge of the decorations and was assisted by Mrs. Linnhart.

Pink Lady cart was in charge of Mrs. William Norris, who was assisted by Mrs. David Tomashak and Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid. The refreshment committee included Mrs. A. A. St. Onge, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Stanley Long, Mrs. R. J. Raade, Mrs. Russell Parsons and Miss Parnardine Prince. Mrs. John Unruh was chairman of the gift shop and assisting in serving were Mrs. Irvin Beattie, chairman, and Mrs. John Longfellow Jr. and Mrs. Ray Casebeer. Mrs. H. J. Bauer was chairman of the calling committee and Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. John Longfellow, Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter were in charge of publicity.

Baby alumni was in charge of Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Robert Murphy.

Pouring were Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Anna Link, Mrs. Keith Bryant, Mrs. H. F. LeBeau and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. About 100 attended the delightful affair.

Shirlee Green Speaker Dated For Luncheon Here

Shirlee Green from Eugene is to be the speaker for the Christian Women's Club luncheon June 6 at 12:15 p.m. in the Gold Room of the Umpqua Hotel. She is well known in this area having been a speaker for several women's groups. She also has spoken at a number of CWC luncheons throughout the state.

She and her husband, Bill, have a navigators home in Eugene where a number of young men working in that area live. They also work with young people in high school as well as at the University of Oregon.

Bill Green travels across the U.S. working with the various state leaders in setting up the Governor's Breakfast.

The Lewis Travel Service is sponsoring the special feature, which will be slides and interesting information concerning travel by the West Coast Airlines to be shown by Rusty Rostad.

Music for the luncheon will be soloist Georgianna Heup, president of Roseburg Dramatic Music and Art Association, accompanied by Paul Coates. The Rev. Don Smith will be playing the organ which will be loaned for the occasion by Ricketts Music Store.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made by Tuesday noon by calling OR 2-1110 or OR 3-5413. Baby sitting is provided at the Presbyterian Church.

Noon Luncheon Given On Friday

Friday, Mrs. Edgar Markham entertained at a noon luncheon in the Camas Valley school cafeteria honoring the school staff and faculty.

This is an annual last day of school event which Mrs. Markham has given each year.

The school staff and faculty presented Mrs. Markham with a gift of money to be used for dishes to match her set. Mrs. Markham is retiring her job as school cook after serving 2 years.

Mrs. Catchpole served refreshments to Mrs. Edgar Markham, Mrs. Pearl Qualey, Miss Marg Barrow, Mrs. Russell Harwood, Mrs. D. D. Hartrick and the honoree, Mrs. Spurlock. The women presented her with a beautiful potted azalea.

THE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ekstrom was celebrated at an open house Sunday at their home when a large number of relatives and friends called in observance of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Ekstrom are pictured above at the reception. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Bridge Club Is Entertained

Priscilla Currier entertained her bridge club at her beautiful home on W. Elizabeth Street last week. The group meets at 10 a.m. and plays bridge until noon, at which time the hostess serves luncheon, followed by bridge again for an hour in the afternoon.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Ron Noel, a guest, and Mrs. William Carstens, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. Donald Gersetsen, Mrs. Elliott Molschenbacher, Mrs. John Loosley, Mrs. Barton Feldkamp and the hostess.

Prizes for the bridge play went to Mrs. Carstens, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Noel.

Mothers Hosted At Canyonville

Using the gymnasium decorated in the "Evening in Paris" theme for Saturday's junior-senior prom, Canyonville High School home-making girls entertained their mothers at a fashion tea Monday afternoon.

The junior girls were hostesses for the afternoon. Rita Morgan acted as narrator for the fashion show while other juniors served refreshments. Mrs. Mary Kincaid, Canyonville High School home-making teacher, was in charge.

Fifteen girls modeled clothes they had made during the spring, suits, afternoon dresses, sports dresses and beach attire. Following the fashion parade, Andrea Gill, Rita Morgan and Bud Olsen sang, after which the freshmen girls gave a comic fashion show with Roxanne Dixon, narrator.

New Methodists Feted At Dinner

Ruth Bradley's Oak Tree Inn was the scene of the dinner Friday evening honoring all new members who have been received in the Methodist Church during the past year. Several of the regular members attended in an effort to get better acquainted with the new people. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Powell were in charge of the affair.

Ernest Buell, Earl Kelley, Wayne Croch and the Rev. H. James Jenkins gave short talks. The affair was informal. Large name tags made on paper plates revealed whether persons were new or old in the church.

Buffet Luncheon Charming Affair

Mrs. Clem Schneider of Garden Valley was hostess at a salad luncheon Wednesday. Guests were served buffet style. Mixed spring flowers were used for decorations about the home.

After the luncheon, guests enjoyed the yard at the Schneider home and later in the afternoon the group attended the flower show given by the Garden Valley Garden Club at the Women's clubhouse.

Invited were Lillian Hill, Gretchen Raddatz, Marian Hill, Marlis Hill, Emma Reitmunn, Tony Hill, Bertha Bayliss, Hilda Walters and Clem Schneider.

Mrs. Catchpole served refreshments to Mrs. Edgar Markham, Mrs. Pearl Qualey, Miss Marg Barrow, Mrs. Russell Harwood, Mrs. D. D. Hartrick and the honoree, Mrs. Spurlock. The women presented her with a beautiful potted azalea.

Roseburg Unit Play Held Friday-Tuesday At Hotel

Winners for the Friday afternoon Special Events May Day Party of the Roseburg Unit of the American Contract Bridge League held at the Umpqua Hotel were Mrs. R. A. Diehl and Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, first; Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. James Harris, second;

Thursday night's winners for North-South were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, first; and a second-place tie between Mrs. Ray Carrio and Mrs. James Little and Mrs. Ray Borden and Mrs. L. E. McClintock.

East-West winners were Mrs. M. L. Hallmark and Mrs. G. W. Marshall, first; Mrs. J. M. Bevans and Ray Borden, second; and Gertrude Rast and Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, third.

Seniors Feted At Camas Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Harwood of Camas Valley entertained at a very lovely buffet luncheon and dessert at their home Thursday evening, honoring the seniors after the commencement exercises. Mrs. Harwood is senior advisor.

After the luncheon Mrs. Harwood showed her trained dog which did some tricks.

Seniors attending were Louella Edmonds, Garry Baker, Ted Kirkendall, Bette Spencer, Susan White, Klaus Pliker, Jim McGinnis, Trudy Eddy, Ted Buel and Bill Brown.

Other guests were Superintendent and Mrs. O. J. Monger, Leotta Cox from Gold Beach, formerly of Camas Valley and Linda Colton from Roseburg.

After the seniors left the Harwood home, they went to the home of Phil Wilbur, a high school teacher, for more entertainment. They concluded their evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Spencer.

Pink And Blue Is Shower Theme

Mrs. Charles Jaquot was honored guest at a pink and blue shower Friday at the home of Mrs. Jack Shellquist of Dixonville. Mrs. James Wright was co-hostess.

The gift table was centered with a small white tree decorated with baby items which were later presented to Mrs. Jaquot. Other decorations included a stork which viewed the proceedings from his perch on a pink cloud.

After games were played and the opening of the gifts, lovely refreshments were served to Mrs. Gene Young, Mrs. Cora Ylvisaker, Mrs. George Breeze, Mrs. Russell Briles, Mrs. Martin Higers and Mrs. James Wadsworth.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. M. C. Dellar, Mrs. James Vaughn, Mrs. Ernie Weber and Mrs. Eva Wade.

Mrs. Schneider Honored By Son

Mrs. Clem Schneider was honored Sunday at her home in Garden Valley at a birthday celebration. Host for the charming affair was her son, Marvin Schneider. He was assisted in the afternoon by Mrs. Kittie Winniford.

An arrangement of iris and honeysuckle and a birthday cake, all made by the host, graced the serving table. Guests were invited to call from 2 to 5 o'clock to visit and enjoy refreshments.

Arriving for dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Schneider and Marvin were Lillian Hill and Adam Schneider, mother and father-in-law of Mrs. Schneider. Calling in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hill, Marian Hill, Donna Hill, Linda Hill, Mrs. Walter Norris, Clifford Norris, Kittie Winniford, Lois Hill, Vicki Hill and friend, Candi.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE NEWS-REVIEW ADVERTISERS