Music Recital Enjoyed

Mrs. Merle Godding was hostess Friday evening at the Elktion Grade School at a music recital with her piano students participating. The program consisted of classical numbers, folk songs and contemporary music and was enjoyed by the students' mothers and guests.

Following the program refreshments were served to 65 by Mrs. Godding.

ENGAGED — Mrs. Vernon Patrick, Yoncalla, announces the engagement of her daughter, Karen, to Donald Dealy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dealy, Eugene. Miss Patrick was graduated from Yoncalla High School and is now a senior in Sacred Heart Hospital of Nursing in Eugene. Mr. Dealy was graduated from South Eugene High School and is now employed locally. A November wedding is planned.

John O. Wilsons Olympian Guests

The recent visit of Ranger and Mrs. John O. Wilson and sons of Tiller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hanell in Olympia, Wash., offered the opportunity for a delightful get-together of Forest Service families when the Hanells entertained at dinner for the Wilsons and for Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swartzlander Jr., now of Olympia, but formerly of Eugene.

The Olympia stop was made by the Wilsons during a recent vacation trip which took them as far north as Seattle, Wash., where they spent two days visiting the Century 21 Exposition.

En route north, the Wilsons were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sanford in Portland and were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pratt and family. The Pratts were recently transferred to Portland from the Union Creek Ranger Station of the Rogue River National Forest.

Hawaii Program Highlight Of Baptist Coffee Social

Thirty members of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society met recently for a 12:15 coffee social in the parlors of the First Baptist Church. Frazier Circle was hostess group.

This was the first of the newly-instituted monthly teas and coffees replacing the dessert luncheons usually given.

Coffee was poured by Mrs. Roy Knigge, and tea by Mrs. Paul Beaver. An attractive table held a display of mementos of Hawaii.

The president, Melva Mobley, opened the session with group singing. Devotions were given by Frances Crawford.

Mrs. Knigge gave a salute to Hawaii and introduced Frances Bonebrake, narrator of films of her trip to Hawaii last summer. Esther Gilliland told of her visit to Hawaii during the Christmas holi-

Winston-Dillard Bethel To Install On Saturday

"Thanks for the Memories" was the theme carried out by Diane Jackson, honored queen of Winston-Dillard Job's Daughters Bethel 33, when she presided at her last meeting Tuesday evening.

The following guests were welcomed and introduced: Marion Jackson, past honored queen of Bethel 7, California; Mary Bird, guardian of Bethel 53; Laura Haughn, Janice Ross, Halys Spurgeon and Pearl Day. The honored queen thanked them for their help during her term, and presented each of them with a corsage.

During the meeting, Vicki Peterson, honored queen-elect, announced the new appointive officers to be installed at the public installation of officers Saturday, June 9.

Bethel members discussed a swimming party at the Y.M.C.A. and a picnic at Stewart Park.

Dolores Day, outer guard, was awarded the traveling Job's Daughters charm bracelet for her outstanding ritualistic work.

A lovely reception immediately followed the meeting. The reception table was decorated with an arrangement of purple and white iris and a ceramic Job's Daughters doll. Honored queen Diane served the cake, beautifully decorated with the Job's Daughters emblems. Sherry Wilson attended at the punch bowl.
