

Six Contestants Sign At Sutherlin

Six contestants for the honor of being named queen of the annual Douglas County Timber Days have filed at Sutherlin. The deadline is June 15.

The six who have signed up so far are: Marta Lu Thomas, sponsored by the Lighthouse and Pastime taverns; Sharon Kenwisher, sponsored by Jug's Club; Judy Fugate of Yoncalla, sponsored by Woolley Logging Co. of Drain; Carol Trask, sponsored by Sutherlin City Drive-In Market; Rosa Vara of Oakland, sponsored by Brown Chevrolet of Sutherlin; and Eileen Kenwisher, sponsored by the Four Winds Center.

Meanwhile, five girls have been named as the court for the annual Fleet Days celebration in Reedsport. They are Sandra Jones, Joy Nickels, Sandra Hughes, Dixie Burleson and Sonnia Thofson. Timber Days are in August.

The Fleet Days queen will be selected on the basis of talent, beauty, poise and ticket sales to the salmon dinner at Salmon Harbor July 15.

Meanwhile, talent show judging will take place July 13. Fleet Days is scheduled July 14 and 15.

Plymen Set Meet On Market Ills

Nearly 500 plymen will convene at Vancouver, B. C. June 27 for a three-day conference on plywood matters pertinent to distribution and marketing.

Under the auspices of National Plywood Distributors Association, delegates from four quarters of the U.S.A. will meet to analyze and ponder the implications of recent and imminent changes in the national economy that confront producers and distributors. Solutions will be sought to improve the profitless prosperity being experienced by the industry.

Wallin To Graduate

John David Wallin of Roseburg is one of 15 Oregon students who will be graduated from Yale University in its 261st commencement next Monday.

Wallin will receive his doctor of medicine degree.

Community News Briefs

I. J. Bean of Roseburg made a business trip to Portland over Tuesday.

P. T. Buber of this city drove to Eugene Tuesday to be with his daughter, Gay Watson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boe and son, Norman, were in Corvallis Sunday where they attended Oregon State University graduation exercises. The Boes' daughter, Miss Merrie Ellen, received her diploma at the ceremonies. Miss Boe will spend the summer as a Girl Scout counselor at Silver Creek Falls, and will start her teaching career this fall in the Portland school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchings of this city drove to Corvallis Sunday to attend commencement exercises at Oregon State University, at which time their granddaughter, Pamela Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Porter of Portland, was graduated. Miss Porter will be a teacher and will teach in the Seattle School System this coming school year. Her mother is the former Mae Hutchings of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton of this city and the latter's step-mother, Mrs. Ethel Close, who is visiting here from Washington, made a trip to the coast and back Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott are back at their home in Laurewood, following a business trip to San Francisco. They returned home via the coast route. Elliott is manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schick and Mrs. Shick's mother, Mrs. Minnie Wood, all of Roseburg returned Saturday from a two-week visit in Valley Falls, Kan. The trip was made to visit friends and to move Mrs. Wood's effects to Roseburg, where she will make her home permanently. The travelers encountered snow and rain all the way on the trip to Kansas and report tornadoes occurring while there. They report good weather on the return trip.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Pearson have just moved into their new home at 550 SE Terrace Drive, which they purchased from Mrs. J. Clifford Baxter.

Mrs. Dolores Murdock and Mrs. Florence Ohling, of the American War Mothers, Albany, drove to Roseburg to spend Monday assisting with the Volunteer Services department of the VA Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth are back at their home in Laurewood, following a two months vacation trip to Europe. They went via the Swedish-American ship, "Kungsholm" to Copenhagen, Denmark, where they took a plane for London. In London they visited friends and enjoyed visiting points of interest, before flying to Dublin, Ireland, to enjoy two weeks. They rented a car in Ireland to tour that country. They returned to New York on the "Maasdam" and then went to Washington, D.C. for a few days. While there they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. E. F. Tandy, former Roseburg resident and with other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kesner of La Jolla, Calif., visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kesner, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Nielsen have returned home after spending the weekend in Gearhart. They attended the annual state meeting of the Chi Phi Fraternity Alumni Association of Oregon State University and University of Oregon. Nielsen is a past president of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Menzie Lee spent the weekend at Klamath Falls visiting their son, S-Sgt. Donald Lee, and his wife. They took a side trip to the Tulelake wildlife refuge and lava beds at Tulelake, Calif. They also stopped at Grants Pass to visit another son, Marvin Lee, and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stiegwig have returned to their home here from Grants Pass, where they spent several days visiting and attending to business.

Mrs. Mildred Haley, hospital chairman; Mrs. Alice Manley, Mrs. Leona Burgess, Mrs. Minnie Johnston and Mrs. Edith Whippes, of the DAV No. 24 auxiliary, Fernridge, assisted Charles McCoy, hospital representative for Roseburg, in the Volunteer Services department at the VA Hospital Sunday.
